ROBERT DAVID BAREFOOT

Funeral services were held Sunday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barefoot on Arendell street for their little fifteen-month old son, whose death occurred Saturday morning at the Morehead City hospital of mastoiditis. After the services, which were conducted by Rev. A. P. Stevens of the First Baptist church, the body was carried by motor to Benson for interment, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Barefoot.

WILLIAM GASTON HEADEN

At 3 p. m. this afternoon funeral services were conducted for William Gaston Headen, 22 at the home of his mother Mrs. Mary Headen on Arendell St., Morehead City. He died in the hospital there yesterday afternoon following a lingering illness. Besides his mother he is survived by one sister Mrs. Louis Norris of Morehead City.

Rev. D. M. Sharpe of the Methodist church and Rev. A. P. Stephens of the Baptist church officiated at the funeral. Interment was made in Bayview cemetery.

The dead youth was the son of the late Dr. Headen, prominent physician in Morehead City for many years.

MRS. LASHLY ENTERTAINS

On Thursday evening Mrs. John Lashley and sister, Miss Lillian Frances Giddens, entertained a number of friends honoring Miss Eulalie Wallace, whose wedding took place on Tuesday, March 26. Tables were arranged for contract and other games, which were indulged in until a late hour, when a delicious chicken salad course with hot rolls and tea was served. Miss Wallace, honoree, received an attractive novelty cigarette box.

POTTER-WALLACE

A wedding of unusual beauty and charm was solemnized in the First Baptist church here Tuesday afternoon when Miss Eulalie Wallace, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Wallace became the bride of Mr. William Hollister Potter of Beaufort. The church was beautifully decorated with snap-dragons, hyacinths, tulips and ferns and other Spring flowers and lighted by the soft glow of candles. Tall white tapers in Cathedral candelabras placed around the altar completed the decorations. Nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. A. P. Stephens, organist, Mrs. R. T. Willis, James and Reginald Willis, soloist, David B. Webb, violinist, and G. L. Arthur celloist. James Willis sang "I Love You Truly," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" was sung by Mrs. R. T. Willis and Reginald Willis sang "O Promise Me," "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Here Comes The Bride" was rendered by the choir. As the party marched up the aisle Mrs. Stephens at the organ rendered Mendelssohn's Wedding March.

The ushers, James H. Potter and James D. Potter preceded the bridegroom and his best man, Richard Whitehurst. Miss Cora Ward wearing a dress of rose beige with navy blue accessories and Miss Hattie Lee Humphrey, dressed in light blue with navy blue accessories and each carrying bouquets of snapdragons, stock and tulips then entered.

Following the brides maids came Mrs. Charles N. Bennett, matron of honor dressed in light blue crepe with navy blue accessories carrying an arm bouquet of snap dragons and fall-spring roses. Little Buck Matthews dressed in navy blue preceded the bride bearing the ring. The bride wearing navy blue crepe and carrying an arm bouquet of pink brides roses, valley lilies, gardenias and ferns entered with her brother Robert Moore Wallace who gave her in marriage. Rev. A. P. Stephens, pastor of the church officiated.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left by motor for a wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home in Beaufort, N. C.

This wedding joined two of Beaufort-Morehead City's popular younger set. Mrs. Potter graduated from the local high school and then attended Louisburg College. Mr. Potter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. B. Potter of Beaufort and is a graduate of the University of North Carolina. Finishing school he taught for a year in Newton and for several months this year he was a member of the faculty of Beaufort High School, resigning to operate a fish business he owns.

Following the rehearsal Monday night of this week, the bridal party and members of their families were entertained by Mrs. Ben Royall at a reception.

GEORGE KIRBY BOUND OVER TO SUPERIOR COURT

From evidence presented in Mayor's court it seems that Eugene Springle, Raymond Springle, Luther Glover and Porter Shirlee, the latter from Kentucky had a wild party last Saturday night. During the party, which was staged in Shirlee's room at the Russell House, some of the boys started dressing up in Shirlee's clothes. Anyone knows who has fooled around much with liquor that after several drinks one might get into a consuming mood. Anyway the three guests of Mr. Shirlee were arrested on charges of drunkenness and also for the theft of wearing apparel valued at less than $20. Each defendant admitted taking a few drinks, although none were convinced they were what one would call absolutely drunk. Each denied any theft, and Mayor Taylor took into consideration that Shirlee apparently did not want to prosecute the youths and thus be forced to send them on to Recorder's court. So the theft charge was stricken out, whereupon Chief Longest nonchalantly walked to the Judge's bench, requested a blank warrant, filled same out charging Shirlee with drunkenness, served the warrant and the Kentuckian was found guilty and given his choice of five days or $2.50. He chose the latter. The Springles were given 10 days on the drunkenness charge and Glover, because it was his first offense was given five days, or their choice of paying the fine on a 50 cent a day basis.

Ed Bullock Henry, one of Mayor Taylor's regular patrons was up again on the same old charge, drunk and disorderly. As he usually sleeps in jail, (according to an officer present) whether he is doing time or not his sentence this time was 30 days on the street.

Others in court answering charges of drunk and disorderly conduct and the sentences which can be stricken out if paid for at rate of 50 cents per day were: Johnnie Wiley, 5 days, Albert Ingram 5 days, Fred Lloyd 10 days and Hiram Springle 10 days. The foregoing were white men. Included in the colored list were: Joe Fulford, 10 days, William Brown 10 days. Cases against Calvin Stanley, Ellis Baxter and Corney Chadwick were continued.

Far be it from the Beaufort News to leave any one's name out of the paper, although the police court story last week was crowded to this edition. It follows:

Seven were found guilty. One case, that of a drunkenness charge against George Turner, colored, was dismissed. Other cases, the charges and disposition follow: Glover Hardesty, fighting, five days; Corney Chadwick, drunk, 10 days; Duffy Rhodes, drunk, 10 days; Andrew Stewart, drunk, five days; John D. Cope, drunk, 10 days; Sadie Fuller Sparrow, brawl, five days and William Presley, drunk and assault five days.
