Nomis of New York a Three-Master Laden With 338,000 Feet of Lumber Foundered There Last Saturday Morning During a Southeaster

C. G. RESCUE CREW OF SIX

Much of Lumber Will be Salvaged by Natives of Island And be Used For Repairing or Building Homes and When Craft Finally Breaks up Wreckage Will be Used as Fuel

The 'graveyard of the Atlantic' that section of the ocean in the vicinity of Diamond Shoals off Hatteras and Ocracoke islands claimed another victim last Saturday. The 3-masted schooner, Nomis of New York, bound to a northern port with a cargo of lumber from Georgetown, S. C., wrecked on the outer reef of Ocracoke abreast Six Mile Hammock during a southeaster shortly after midnight. Coastguardsmen under the command of Capt. Bernice Ballance of Hatteras Inlet station and Capt. Elisha Tillett of Ocracoke station shot a line to the vessel and by use of the breeches buoy rescued the crew of six by 7 o'clock.

Capt. Charles C. Clausen of Hempstead Gardens, L. I., was master and owner of the vessel. Others in the crew were Charles Clausen Jr., Hempstead; Michael Hotyky and Henry Wolzanski, Perth Amboy, N. J.; Leon Jerome, New York and Albert Butes, Georgetown, S. C. Not a man in the crew was injured as they were brought ashore in the buoy. They were succored at Hatteras Inlet station and were still there this week pending disposal of the vessel and cargo by wreck commissioner and underwriters agent. Theodore Meekins of Maneto is an agent for the underwriters and he with other insurance agents had arrived at Ocracoke on Tuesday. No definite date had been set for the auction sale or vendue of the wreck.

Those in the money and their scores in the 100-target event were: Suggs, 95; Denning, 93; and Buz Mitchel, 92; Young Mitchel, made an exceptionally good score considering the fact that he is only 14 years of age. Others participating in the shoot and their scores were: Lilly, 85; McIlhenny, 86; Zimmerman, 88; Hancock, 80; Barrett, 76; Simon, 77 and Lyon 75. Weather conditions prevented several who had planned to participate from taking part in the event.

Information as to the tides at Beaufort is given in this column. The figures are approximately correct and based on tables furnished by the U. S. Geodetic Survey. Some allowances must be made for variations in the wind and also with respect to the locality, that is whether near the inlet or at the heads of the estuaries.

FIRST LADY VISITS DIONNE QUINTUPLETS

Mrs. J. C. B. Ehringhaus

Mrs. Ehringhaus was interested in seeing the quins because she is the mother of twins herself. So when Governor Ehringhaus and family went to New England and Canada on their summer vacation the home of the famous quintuplets was included in the itinerary. The Ehringhaus twins are Matilda and Houghton. Matilda is now Mrs. Rush Jolly. By the way—Mrs. Ehringhaus' hobby is collecting old and odd shaped keys.

KILLING DEER IS EXPENSIVE

Because it is a closed season on deer, the doe that Brantley Morris and Claude Brown killed Wednesday out in the Open Grounds cost each around $19 and costs following trial before Squire Henry Noe. The doe, according to persons at the trial was described as hardly more than a faun as many of the spots were still visible on the animal. State Game Warden Charley Moore of New Bern with an assistant by a clever ruse effected the arrest. According to reports one of the couple was dressed as a tramp and just casually came upon the poachers with their animal with the arrests following shortly afterwards. The deer season this year opens on October 1.

Covering The WATER FRONT By AYCOCK BROWN

SEVERAL YEARS AGO when Will Rogers came to Durham and when I was a sort of cub reporter on the Herald there, I managed to get up enough courage to stop him in the lobby of the Washington Duke hotel and asked: "Mister Rogers, what advice would you give a young cub reporter starting off in the writing game?" I have never forgotten his answer. It was: "Be yourself son, always act natural, dont try to put on a lot of dog and when you write—say a whole lot in a few words."

I HAVE ALWAYS TRIED to act natural and have succeeded fairly well. The hardest part of his advice was to say a lot in a few words. I am still trying to accomplish that feat. Maybe some day I will succeed. When Will Rogers came to Durham he was writing a series of wise crack advertisements for Bull Durham smoking tobacco. But residents of Durham were somewhat disappointed when he told them he did not smoke Bull Durham—or anything as for that matter. Once in New York says Walter Winchell, he was taunted by the intelligentsia because he used the word 'ain't.' His reply to the taunt was: "Wal, all I know is that a lotta people who ain't saying 'ain't'—ain't eatin'!"

IT MAY SOUND rather impossible but quite a number of people have caught more than one fish (if a whiptail is classed as a fish) on the same line at the Inlet Inn wharf this week. One person counted eight caught on the same hook at the same time. Jack Windley caught three at the same time. If you dont get what we mean go down and catch one for yourself and learn something—or ask Jack. He can probably explain it all. I couldn't get in touch with Dr. Prytherch this week.

Gunning Season For Marsh Hens To Open On September First

The hunting season for Marsh Hens in Carteret county opens on September 1 this year and licenses may be obtained from either Carteret or Noe Hardware stores. The deer season this year does not open until October 1. The limits on Marsh Hens will be 25 per day and on deer one per day of three for the season. On October 1 the Dove season also opens.

L. E. Warrington, district game protector—a title given in exchange for District warden title stated in New Bern this week that digests of the North Carolina and Federal laws were now available and should be studied. Already licenses are for sale and local gun merchants are getting their hunting displays out for the person interested in guns and ammunition.

Hunting licenses this year for hunting only cost $1.10 for residents of county and State or $15.25 for non-residents. The trapping season will not open until later in the autumn. The Beaufort News will make every effort to give readers all hunting, fishing and trapping news as the seasons advance.

CARLTON TO HEAD BEAUFORT SCHOOL

September 16 is Tentative Date For Opening All Schools In County Including Morehead And Beaufort

W. C. Carlton, Jr., for the past five years superintendent of the Empire, Ga., schools was named by the Beaufort Board of Education last Thursday night to succeed Robert L. Fritz who recently resigned to take over the schools of Hudson, N. C. Many people in Beaufort already know Mr. Carlton as Mrs. Carlton is the former Miss Helen Hendrix, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hendrix here. They have visited Beaufort together several times, since their marriage.

Pending the approval of the State and County health authorities, September 16 has been set as opening date for all schools in Carteret, Gary Allen, county superintendent stated last night. High school students of White Oak who go to Swansboro High in Onslow may not start on that date, Mr. Allen said. Eugene Gaskill of Sea Level succeeds Mr. Eagles as principal of the Smyrna school during the coming session. Two new school busses have arrived to be used as replacements and four more are expected during the autumn, Mr. Allen stated.

New Bern Wins In Tri-City Tourney

Beaufort skeeters firing a score of 217 in a 5 target event at Washington, Wednesday afternoon won second place. New Bern's club with a score of 219 won first place and Washington, the host club came third with a score of 209. Buz Mitchell 14-year old summer resident of Morehead City who made the old timers look on with envy at his shooting at Edgewater Field last week-end was guest member of the Beaufort club yesterday and made the biggest score of any of the 15 individuals participating. He killed 48 out of a possible fifty. Other Beaufort skeeters and their scores follow: Hancock, 46; Nelson, 42; Noe, 43; and Taylor 38.

He Wants To Go To Heaven So Confesses To Lynching

Mr. Taylor of Cortez Writes Sheriff Chadwick a Letter and Wants to be Forgiven For His Part in Murdering a Negro Murderer in Carteret County About Thirty Five Years Ago

Carteret county's only lynching occurred during the summer of 1900. Louis Patrick, Negro, murdered Elijah Weeks, a store keeper at Bogue, N. C., was tracked to Craven county line captured and brought to Beaufort in custody of late Sheriff Alvin Willis. The following afternoon a sail boat from Bogue sound with a mob aboard who had disguised themselves by use of lamp black, moored at a local wharf, went to the jail, removed Patrick in chains, took him to Dog Island near the scene of the murder, hung him to a tree and riddled his body with bullets. Most everyone had forgotten about the lynching until Sheriff Elbert Chadwick received a letter this week from A. P. Taylor of Cortez, Fla., who confessed his part in the lynching.

Whip-Ray Fishing Has Been Good Off Inlet Inn Wharf This Week

Some of the whip-ray or sting-rays as they are commonly called by most people weighed up to 125 pounds and to get one ashore with rod and reel was quite a job. Many a person has lost tackled down at the wharf this week because they did not play their catch just right. The most successful way to catch a sting-ray is to use heavy cord or light rope—but it is not much sport catching them that way.

Jack Windley did not use a heavy cord, instead his outfit was regular surf casting tackle. Several people who saw the sting ray strike his line predicted that he would never get it ashore. But he did get it ashore and did not break his tackle, despite the fact that he lost a good tarpon hook that could not be gotten out of the sting-ray's stomach.

It is the first time this year that any sting rays have been caught at the wharf. While it was generally believed that a large school of them had come into the harbor this week for some reason or another—Dr. Prytherch of the Fisheries Laboratory believes they are always there as they like to feed on garbage and such that is dumped overboard. Unless one is cornered they are harmless, despite their poisonous sting.

EIGHT APPLY FOR JOBS AS MANAGER

But A. & N. C. Committee Will Not Select One Until Ehringhaus Returns From Vacation Canada

Eight persons have applied to Luther Hamilton, president of the A. & N. C. and the committee on arrangements for operation to serve as managers of the railroad when the Norfolk-Southern no longer operates the route. The committee which includes William Dunn Sr., New Bern, Dr. J. Y. Joyner, Ayden and U. M. Gillikin Goldsboro met in LaGrange this week to arrange for operations of the road. Following a discussion of the proposed operations it was decided that no appointments and no more committee meets would be held until Governor Ehringhaus returned from his vacation in Canada.

Carteret ERA Teachers Will Attend Institute

Twenty eight white and one colored ERA teachers in Carteret county are scheduled to leave on Monday, Aug. 26 for Emergency Education Institutes. The teachers will receive $15 per week for expenses while at the Institutes which will continue from next Monday until September 7 inclusive. It is compulsory that all teachers expecting to be approved for Emergency Education programs to take the courses to be presented. The white teachers will go to State College in Raleigh and Carteret's lone colored teacher will go to State Normal School Fayetteville. They will probably travel by chartered bus and will be accompanied by Miss Ella Davis who heads the Carteret ERA teachers.

BIRTHS

Another Liquor Store Opens In Carteret At Newport On Saturday

HE WANTS TO BE NEXT GOVERNOR

DR. RALPH W. McDONALD

"North Carolina has reached a point in her development when a definite choice must be made between machine government for the benefit of the few and a genuine government for the benefit of all," says Dr. Ralph W. McDonald of Winston-Salem, leader of the anti-sales bloc and champion of schools in the 1935 General Assembly. Dr. McDonald announced his candidacy for Chief Executive's office this week and he plans a vigorous campaign—despite the fact that he has no working capital—or that's his story.

HEN LAYS TWO EGGS AT ONCE

A black Leghorn hen owned by Capt. Henry Noe has broken all records for egg laying. Unless you see the curiosity yourself it is unbelievable that a little black hen could accomplish such a feat. Several days ago the little hen lay an egg about the same size of a goose egg. It weighed six ounces. In itself was an accomplishment for the hen—but when the egg was boiled a few days later it was broken open and inside of the larger shell which contained both yolk and white was another egg—a natural size hen egg with a hard shell. No one around these parts had ever heard of such a thing and the chances are that Mr. Ripley, the 'Believe it or Not' artist will pick the story up.

Nine defendants faced Mayor Bayard Taylor in city court on Monday night. Each man was found guilty or plead guilty and was given their preference of going to work on the streets or pay nominal fines. Most of them paid. Those tried follow:

BALL GOERS MAY RENT A COSTUME

A costume firm in Richmond is sending down 100 outfits to be rented to persons who wish to go to the gala masquerade or fancy dress ball at Atlantic Beach on Saturday evening. Mrs. Richard Duffy stated today by telephone just as we were going to press. Anyone desiring a costume may see D. G. Bell Jr., at his Dee Gee shop and rent one or get further information, said Mrs. Duffy. A story about the ball will be found on today's social page.

Ira Garner Will Be Manager of ABC Store No. 3 in Newport Which Will be Last Establishment to Open in County For Several Months. He Will Have No Assistant

4 VIOLATORS ARRESTED

Of Approximately $25,000 Worth of Liquors Sent to County on Consignment, $6,000 Worth Has Been Sold. Officer Nelson Gets Conviction in Three of Four Cases Taken To Court for Violating ABC Laws.

Ira Garner will be manager of Carteret's third and last ABC store which opens in Newport Saturday morning, Charles L. Skarren, disbursement official stated today. The Newport store will be operated by only one person, being supplied with stock from the local warehouse. Since the opening of county stores on July 31 over $6,000 worth of liquor has been sold, it was stated.

Enforcement Officer George Nelson is making some headway in his work. Of four defendants he apprehended and brought into Recorder's Court on Tuesday three were convicted and sentenced to serve 12 months on the roads. The defendants were: Zeb Foy and Stanley Lockhart, operators of the barbecue stand about 100 yards west of King Watson's former location and Farley Small operator of the Log Cabin, in Morehead Bluffs. Each defendant appealed to higher court and Foy and Lockhart were placed under bonds of $500 each and Small under bond of $750. Effie Garner of the Lee Garner section was charged with manufacture of Home Brew. A chemical analysis of her brew disclosed that it was less than alcoholic percentage prescribed by law so she will be tried later on a tax evasion charge. Until she is tried she is under bond of $500.

Beaufort May Have Dial Phones Soon

But the board of aldermen are not jumping into the proposed change in the local telephone system until they are convinced that it will be an asset instead of a liability. Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company officials have had two or three meetings with the Beaufort town commissioners and at the last which occurred a few days ago the matter was deferred until the next monthly meeting. If installed the dial phones would cost the subscribers 50 cents more per month, but the toll charges between Morehead City and Beaufort would be eliminated. It would mean that one central office would take care of the two towns—but it would also in all probabilities mean that those employed in the local telephone office at present would be dismissed from service. The additional cost per month might not be objected to by the majority of subscribers—but Beaufort would hate to see the local employees lose their jobs.
