WORRY

Today is that Tomorrow
You feared so, yesterday.
And cares you tried to borrow
You find have slipped away.
Remember how you fretted
At things that might befall?
And what was it, you netted?
You aged yourself—that's all!
We have enough of trouble
From which we cannot flee,
So let's not make it double
Through cares we think we see,
Lets not in fear be sinking—
Be brave, and don't be glum.
But sweeten life, by thinking
Of cares that will not come.

A most enjoyable social meeting preceded the business with Mrs. Bloodgood and Mrs. Will Arrington as hostesses.

Mrs. J. G. Allen, president of the twelfth district, announced the state council meeting will be held in New Bern Oct. 8 and 9th. She called special attention to the twelfth district meeting to be held in Vanceboro, Saturday, Oct. 19, and urged all club women to attend. She stated that her outstanding objective for the Beaufort club this year is the organization of a Junion Woman's Club.

Recommendations of the club board as read by the secretary and accepted by the club were as follows:

1. Monthly business meetings to be held on first Thursday of each month in the Hut.

2. Thursday of each week to be designated as "Club Day" on which some phase of club work be carried out such as meetings of book, club, garden and civics dept. etc.

3. A social hour to be observed at each regular business meeting.

4. Dues to remain the same, one dollar per year, payable to Mrs. Hugh Jones, treasurer. All members asked to pay early, so that obligations of the club may be met at once.

5. Publicity chairman to be appointed.

6. Music appreciation in the schools to be continued under the direction of Mrs. Florence Brooks, and more supplies to be added to those now in use.

7. Three departments to be active this year: music, with Mrs. Graydon Paul and Mrs. Jim Rumley in charge; garden and civics, under Mrs. S. E. Hayne and Mrs. Leslie Davis; book-club, Mrs. Swann and Mrs. Robert Safrin. Each member of the club is asked to join one or more departments.

8. Community club and its departments to continue to serve the Rotary Club every other month as at present.

Mrs. Graydon Paul talked of plans for the music department, emphasizing the choral club and public concerts to be given during the year.

Mrs. Hayne outlined a four-fold program for each monthly meeting of garden and civics department with a discussion of trees, shrubs, flowers, and papers on garden work.

The library report for the past year was given by Mrs. Stubbs, librarian. This showed considerable growth and quite an increased patronage over any previous year.
