

Personal Notes

TELEPHONE 16

Miss Lucille Gillikin of Davis was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guthrie during the week-end.

Mr. E. A. Crump spent last week-end at Lumberton with his family. Mrs. Henry Styron who has been ill for some time was taken to Duke Hospital Tuesday for treatment.

Mr. Tom Hall spent last week at Wilmington with his family.

Miss Mary Robinson of Raleigh is spending some time here visiting her sister Mrs. Ruth Mebane.

Mr. Q. J. Sutton spent the week-end at Warsaw with his family.

Mrs. Ruth Mebane, Mrs. Ruth Roberts and Miss Sarah Rumley spent last Saturday in New Bern.

Mrs. Evelyn Dixon is spending the week-end at New Bern visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mades and Miss Hilda Whitehurst spent the week-end at New Bern with friends.

Miss Elizabeth Gaskill returned to her home at Ocracoke Saturday after spending a few days in Beaufort visiting Mr. and Mrs. Aycock Brown.

Mr. Frank Hitch left last Friday for Williamston where he will spend his vacation. From there he will go to Roanoke Rapids where he has been transferred. For several months he has been employed here with the State Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sellers of Norfolk, Va., spent the week-end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Tom Duncan.

Mrs. Carrie Doxie will return today from Connelly Springs where she has been visiting her daughter.

Mrs. Joe Matthews and son returned this week to her home in Southern Pines after spending some time in Beaufort visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skarren.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spruill and children of Rocky Mount spent last week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. John Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Brooks and little son Brookie returned this week from New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Van Martin and son Bobbie spent last week-end in New Bern visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. D. W. Morton spent Tuesday and Wednesday of this week in Raleigh.

Miss Annie L. Morton of the E. T. T. College is spending Thursday and Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Morton. Miss Morton will return to Greenville Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Allen spent Sunday in New Bern visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. John Forlaw have returned home after visiting their daughter in Charlotte.

Mr. and Mrs. James Piner of New Orleans, La., spent the day in Beaufort Monday enroute to Marshallberg where they will visit relatives.

Mrs. Mary Olive Piner left Tuesday for Marshallberg where she will spend the week at her home there.

Mrs. Wheatly Improving

Mr. James Wheatly accompanied by Kenneth Johnson went to Durham last Friday to bring Mrs. Wheatly, who has been receiving treatment at Duke Hospital home. Since returning to Beaufort she has been very ill at the home of her mother. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is very much improved.

MISS NORCOM HONORED

Mrs. Charles Case delightfully entertained at a bridge party last Friday night at her home on Craven Street in honor of Miss Evelyn Norcom.

The home was beautifully decorated with fall flowers.

At the conclusion of the play it was found that high score was held by Dave Clawson who received a cigarette lighter.

The hostess served the guests delicious ice cream, cake and mints.

Those present were: Miss Mary Anne Taylor, Miss Eloise Freeman, Miss Laura Mace, Miss Alma Potter, Miss Cathrine O'Bryan, John Baker, Dave Clawson, Leslie Moore, Billie Mace, Carl Hattell, Paul Cleland and Clarence Guthrie.

GARDEN DEPARTMENT MEETS SOON

The first program meeting of the Garden Department of the Community Club will be held November 21st at the Legion Hut. The meeting will begin promptly at 3 o'clock and all members are urged to be present.

The program consists of House Plants, Bringing the Garden in doors and Plantings that should be made in the Fall.

There will be a house Plant exhibit open to all members of the Community Club and all prospective members. There will be judges and prizes will be awarded for the best grown specimen.

Members are asked to bring fruited or berried branches either wild or cultivated for identification.

P. T. A. MEETS TUESDAY

The regular meeting of the P. T. A. will be held Tuesday night, November 14th at 7:30. Rev. Frank Hall of Morehead City will speak. Every parent is urged to be present.

MISSION STUDY CLASS

The Missionary Society of Ann Street M. E. Church held its regular week of prayer services at the church last week, with an unusual large attendance. Much interest was shown.

This week they are holding mission study class. Mrs. H. C. Jones, Mrs. Mary Privette, Mrs. Jimmie Fodrie and Mrs. William Potter, Jr., are teaching "That Other America." Friday, November 15th a special program will be given, and women of all churches are cordially invited, it was announced Wednesday by the Mission Study Chairman, Mrs. Laura Duncan.

MISS RUDDER HONORED

Miss Mary Sue Rudder daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Chadwick was selected by the members of the Junior class of W.C.U.N.C. at Greensboro, to take the part of the bride in the annual wedding of the Junior and Freshman Class of the College where Miss Rudder is a popular member of the Freshman class. The groom was Miss Daphne Savage of Norfolk, Virginia, a member of the Junior Class.

The celebration took place Saturday night, November 2, in the Students Building. The bride wore an Adrian gown of white satin and carried an arm bouquet of white Chrysanthemums and ferns. The guests consisted exclusively of members of the freshman and Junior classes. A reception was held immediately after the wedding in Cornelean Hall.

Miss Rudder is a member of the Oikean Society, one of the first societies founded at the College.

RUTH BIBLE CLASS MEETS

The regular meeting of the Ruth Bible class of the Ann Street M. E. Church was held last Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. Piver on Front Street.

The election of new officers was held, but all of the old ones were re-elected except the president, Mrs. James Fodrie who resigned. Mrs. Seth Gibbs was elected new president and she presided at the meeting. The lesson for the evening was the First Psalm. The best attendance of the year was reported with 27 members present. Much work was planned for the next two months.

After the benediction the meeting was turned over to the hostesses who were: Mrs. Horace Loftin, Mrs. Roy

Seabreeze

THEATRE
WEEK NOV. 18
MONDAY & TUESDAY WILL ROGERS in

"Doubting Thomas"

All Pictures—First Run in Carteret County

10c BARGAIN DAY 10c
WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY

'Charlie Chan in Egypt'

FRIDAY & SATURDAY

Helen Gahagan in

"SHE"

with Randolph Scott, Helen Mack

One of the most astounding spectacular presentations ever conceived for the screen by the Master of Big Picture Producers, Merian C. Cooper.

Willis, Mrs. G. W. Duncan and Mrs. J. A. Piver.

The living room was decorated with white flowers. After several games were played the guests were invited into the dining room which was lighted with red candles. The room was decorated in red, white and blue carrying out the Armistice Day spirit. The table was covered with an Irish lace cloth, and the centerpiece was the "Dove of Peace" lighted. The hostesses served delicious fruit jello with whipped cream and cake.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The regular monthly business meeting of the Community club was held in the hut Thursday afternoon, Nov. 7, with Mrs. B. H. Noe, presiding.

Reports of chairmen showed much activity in each department. Mrs. Leslie Davis that the garden club and the American Legion Auxiliary served supper to the joint meeting of the clubs with the proceeds to be used to beautify the grounds around the hut. She urged that all member join the garden club which meets the third Thursday afternoon of each month in the hut.

Mrs. Graydon Paul, chairman of the music department reported the choral club organized and preparation for a concert are being made.

In the absence of Mrs. W. A. Allen, chairman of the book club, Mrs. L. W. Moore reported that the first meeting was held at Mrs. J. S. Gutsell's on Thursday evening with Mrs. Leslie Davis, that the garden club and as hostesses. A most enjoyable lecture was given by Rev. Frank Hall of Morehead City on his trip abroad during the past summer. The book club meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month. Very attractive programs have been arranged, and the Community club members are invited to join.

Mrs. J. G. Allen and Mrs. Leslie Davis gave interesting accounts of the district meeting held in Vanceboro; and Mrs. J. S. Gutsell, of the meeting of the Federation of Music clubs held in Mt. Olive.

Mrs. F. E. Hyde of the welfare committee of both the club and American Legion auxiliary asked for any discarded toys to be left at the hut at any time. These will be repaired and used for Christmas giving. Anybody in town interested in this phase of work is asked to contribute.

The tubercular seal sale will begin Thanksgiving, and will be worked through the schools of the county. Seventy five per cent of the proceeds does local health work and will remain in the schools where seals are sold.

The problem of keeping the High School open an extra month was discussed and referred to a committee for investigation, plans to be made at some later meeting.

A donation was given to the High School library, and books were called for for High School and Town libraries.

Several new names were presented and passed on for membership.

The program committee for December is Mrs. C. R. Wheatly and Mrs. James Rumley; hostesses, Mrs. W. K. Hinnant and Mrs. W. A. Pierce. National Education Week was observed in short talks on three subjects: "Good Movies," by Mrs. Mary Privette; "Good English," by Miss Emily Loftin; "Right Books for the Right Child," by Mrs. Vera H. Stubbs. A delightful social hour closed the meeting with Mrs. G. D. Hill and Mrs. C. L. Beam hostesses.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams, of Washington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Marjorie Blount, to Raymon Paul, of Beaufort, the marriage to take place in December.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS

The Lina Bumpas Bible Class held its regular business and social meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Herring Nov. 11 at 7:30. The meeting was well attended. Mrs. W. H. Bailey presided. Mrs. Otis Moore gave a most interesting Treasury report for the month, reporting 20 cards sent to sick shut-ins and etc. The class, at the regular visit to the County home Sunday afternoon, will present each inmate with a basket of fruit and nuts, in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. The standing committee made splendid reports, and much class spirit was shown. The ways and means committee announced a benefit to be given in November and asked the support of the entire class. 160 visits were reported, and over 50 trays and flowers were sent. The program was given by Mrs. J. H. Stubbs and Miss Martha Jones, and consisted of songs, poems, and several book contests. The hostesses, Mrs. J. R. Herring and Mrs. John Rice, served delicious ice cream and cake.

BOOK CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Tuesday afternoon Book Club was held on Nov. 12th, at 3:30 P. M. at the home of Mrs. W. A. Allen. Interesting papers on England were presented by Mrs. U. E. Swann and Mrs. meeting delightful refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Blythe and Mrs. Allen.

THIS WEEK'S Obituaries

MRS. ESTHER ANN SPENCER

Funeral services for Mrs. Esther Ann Spencer 86, who died Monday, November 11th were conducted from the home of W. H. Congleton Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. C. T. Rogers, Rev. J. W. Morgan and Rev. Lawrence Fenwick officiating. Interment was made in Ocean View cemetery.

Twenty two of the grandchildren and 33 of the great grandchildren attended the funeral. Pallbearers were the grandsons.

Surviving are three children, Mrs.

Henry Congleton, Mrs. Tom Lawrence, and Mrs. Oscar Garner all of Beaufort and 25 grandchildren and 36 great grandchildren.

RAYMOND HARRIS

Funeral services for Raymond Harris, 66, were conducted Saturday at 1:00 O'clock from the home at Atlantic, with Rev. R. E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of New Bern officiating. Interment was made in the Atlantic cemetery.

Mr. Harris died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Travis Willis, Hancock St. New Bern, N. C. Friday at 3:30 O'clock.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Eliza Harris, one daughter, Mrs. Travis Willis, one brother C. F. Harris, Washington and four grandchildren. Pallbearers were James Mitchell, T. J. Mitchell, Howard Styron, Almond Hamilton, Oscar R. Street and Jerry Jarman.

WORLD POPULAR COMICS

If you want to laugh then read the big Comic Weekly that comes regularly with the BALTIMORE SUNDAY AMERICAN. You'll find the American comics funniest of them all—a chuckle on each page. Tell your newsboy or newsdealer to reserve you a copy.

MAE WEST IN
"Going to Town"
Also Comedy "Excuse My Gloves"
—All Talkie Movie at—
THE LYRIC THEATER
MARSHALLBERG, N. C.
Show Starts at 7:00 P. M.
Friday Night Nov. 15, 10-20c
Saturday Night Nov. 16, 15-25c
Talking Pictures Friday and Saturday Nights
Each Week

HOLEPROOF SOCK OF THE MONTH
Gridiron Stripes
75¢ VALUE 50¢
R. FELTON & SON
"Everything to Wear"
BEAUFORT, N. C.

1¢ Sale 1¢
WHICH STARTED NOV. 13
WILL CONTINUE THROUGH
SATURDAY, NOV. 16
UNUSUAL VALUES
Mail Orders Filled Promptly
"ASK YOUR DOCTOR"
JOE HOUSE DRUG STORE
Front Street Phone 29

AGED 8 MONTHS
AGED 8 MONTHS
AGED 16 MONTHS

CENTURY LIQUORS OF QUALITY and ECONOMY
CENTURY DISTILLING Co.
PEORIA, ILL.

Dixie Dairy Products Incorporated
MOREHEAD CITY, N. C.
Carteret County's Sanitary Milk Plant

Milk
Cream All Pasteurized
Lactic Milk
Butter Milk Dairy
Chocolate Milk
Cottage Cheese Products
Orange Ade

ASK YOUR DEALER FOR DIXIE DAIRY'S ICE CREAM

Pasteurized Milk is Safe

PHONE 62 No. 2—7th. St.