$118,000 Appropriated For Federal Building

Another Rail Hearing Held

Norfolk Southern Will Operate Over Tracks Till Nov. 1

By Paul May
Special Correspondent To THE BEAUFORT NEWS

Washington, July 2—Norfolk Southern railroad must continue running a train between Beaufort and Morehead City until at least November 1, it was learned today at the Interstate Commerce Commission.

A decision as to whether the railroad will be allowed to stop operations over the Beaufort extension should be made by the I.C.C. by that and is now engaged in making a report which the commissioners will base their decision. The report will not be announced until after August 1, as parties interested have until that date to file briefs, material from which will be needed before the report can be finished.

"Permission to abandon operations over the Beaufort extension will not be given the Norfolk Southern unless the railroad can prove abandonment would not adversely affect the public interest and convenience," Prichard said.

Should it be determined however that the public would lose nothing by the abandonment, then the interstate commerce commission will grant the application of the Norfolk Southern railroad, and train operation along the stretch of track will cease.

"On the other hand," Prichard said, "Should the Commission decide that the interest of the public is best served by trains operating along the Beaufort extension, then either

Prominent Citizen Buried Here Today

Carl T. Chadwick

Funeral services for Carl Thompson Chadwick, 55, who died late Tuesday night, were conducted from the Chadwick home this afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. C. T. Rogers, pastor of the Methodist church, of which the deceased was a member, and Rev. Lawrence Fenwick, rector of St. Paul's church officiating. Interment was made in the family burial plot in the Episcopal cemetery.

Mr. Chadwick's death came following an illness of several weeks. He was prominent in the business and political life of his hometown and

Fishing for Fish-They Caught A Turtle

The Loggerhead Was Harpooned At Cape Lookout

Fishing for fish, the above party, down at Cape Lookout one day early in June caught the 250-pound Loggerhead in the above picture. Unable to bring the giant reptile aboard alive it was harpooned. In the above picture from left to right are: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chadwick, Graham Duncan, Jr., Miss Marianne Taylor, Miss Ruth Lewis, Capt. Guy Lewis and Wade Neal. Others in the party which harpooned the loggerhead, but not shown in the above picture were: Miss Alma Potter and Charles Case, Beaufort; Alan O'Bryan and Miss June Crabtree, Greensboro, and Harry Murphy, Capt. Lewis' mate aboard the deep sea fishing boat "Piggie," on which the party cruised to the Cape. (Beaufort News Photo by Aycock Brown.)

Rotary President

Dr. J. S. Gutsell

Dr. J. S. Gutsell was installed as president of the local Rotary Club at their meeting Tuesday night. He was formerly secretary of the club. Gary Allen, former treasurer was installed as vice president while Thomas Hood and James Davis were installed as secretary and treasurer. Dr. Gutsell, however, will be here only a short time as he is being transferred from the local laboratory of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries to another laboratory located in Charlestown, W. Va. He will move there with his family during the latter part of this month.

Appropriation $48,000 More Than Announced Last Week

The appropriation for a Federal building in Beaufort which was definitely approved last week by Treasury officials in Washington is $118,000 instead of the $75,000 or more reported in last week's edition of The Beaufort News. The exact amount appropriated was learned from Congressman Graham A. Barden by long distance telephone just after we had gotten out our June 25 edition. It was Congressman Barden who secured the approval for the Federal building as a part of the deficiency appropriation bill of $60,000,000 for construction of buildings, over 320 throughout the country. And he secured same within 60 days from

Farmers Convene At State College Soon

County Agent Hugh Overstreet has written a list of farmers in Carteret county urging them to attend the annual convention of Farmers and Farm Women's convention at State College from July 27 until August 1. A program of special interest to farmers all over the state has been prepared, while class work so far as men are concerned has been eliminated this year. The program instead will be of a statewide scope, it was stated.

Carteret county has not been represented at recent conventions, and County Agent Overstreet is making a special effort this year to have Carteret represented by good attendance. There will be no charge for sleeping quarters for the delegates attending and the cost for meals in the cafeteria will average only about $1 per day it was stated.

Heavy Sluggers To Fight Friday Night

Two fights will be listed as headliners in The Casino Friday night when Add Warren, Duke boxing coach stages his second boxing show of the season. Red Lewis, 170 pound light heavy of Richmond who won over Bob Allison, last week will meet "Hip" Hoffman, 175-pounder of Charlotte. "Hip" is classed in state fight circles as a tough Dutchman and the fight should be interesting.

Joe Spangler who pleased fight fans and won praise of the men in the press box Friday night will meet "Little Boy" Safrif of Albemarle. Their weights are 148 pounds and 145 pounds. Spangler hails from Richmond. They will fight for eight rounds. A six round event will be Tony Amarose, A.A.U. champ, 147 pounder of Richmond and Frank Johnson, 145 pounder of Charlotte.

Fishing And ALL OUTDOORS

By AYCOCK BROWN

ONLY ABOUT HALF the people owning tackle take proper care of same. Whether this is a streak of laziness in the fireman or because they just don't care or know how to take care of their tackle I do not know. Personally I think the care of tackle after it has been used, is one of the most fascinating attractions of all—and I am not a particularly ambitious sort of fellow. Take the care of rods for instance.

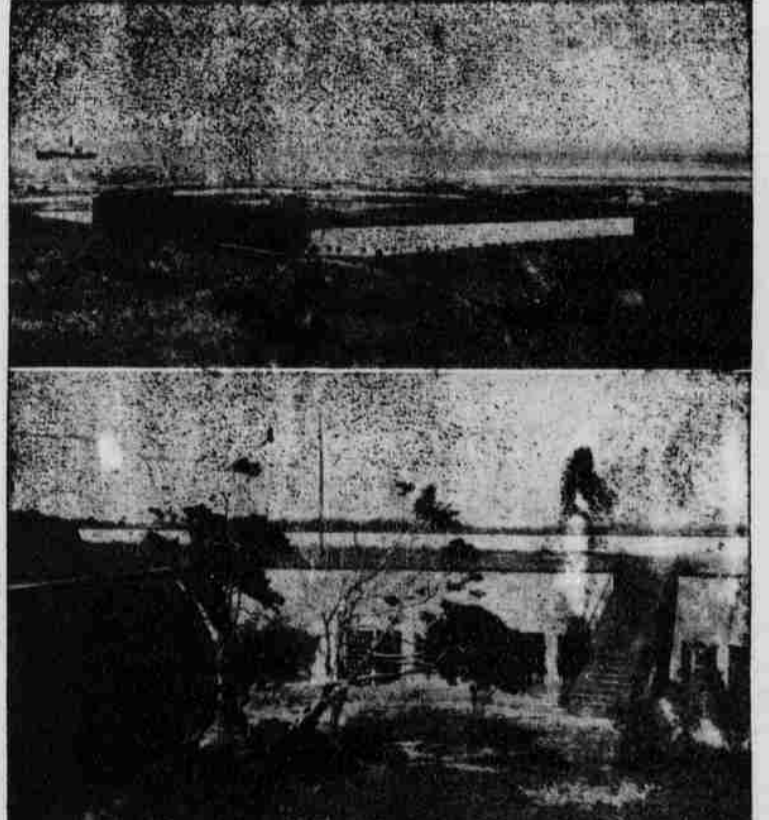

NEVER PUT A ROD away in a rod case while it is still wet or damp—it may cause the rod to swell and ruin it. A favorite way to keep a rod and a method employed by better anglers is to hang it from the tip, which will straighten out any bends or "sets" caused from reeling in a fish. When the varnish on your rod wears off, touch it up, and thus keep it in perfect condition for use.

SIX CANDIDATES IN SATURDAY RUN-OFFS

Unless they have already seen the ballot it is quite likely that only a few voters know that others are in the race for nomination on the state ticket Saturday besides Clyde R. Hoey and Ralph W. McDonald, Ph.D, in the gubernatorial lineup, Paul Grady and Wilkins P. Horton are both seeking nomination in a second primary for the lieutenant governorship and Thad Eure and Stacey W. Wade are in the run-off for secretary of State. The polls Saturday will open at sun-rise and close at sunset. In Carteret it is believed by many that the gubernatorial candidates will run close. And it is the duty of everyone to cast a ballot.

He Who Enters Here-Pays A Dime

But Libby Ward Hopes To Stop That

The above photos show excellent views of famous old Fort Macon on Beaufort Inlet. Visitors may at anytime visit the area shown in the top photo, but to get inside the interesting structure (lower photo) tourists must arrive at a certain time. For instance, from Monday through Saturday the fort is open for awhile in the morning and also during the afternoon. But on the Sabbath it is open only in the afternoon, and last Sunday, it has been reported that approximately 100 cars loaded with tourists drove to the fort, only to learn that it would not be open until the afternoon. On top of the foregoing situation everyone entering the fort must pay a dime. Representative Libby Ward of New Bern, a member of the board of Conservation and Development, which is parent to the N. C. Park Service expects to enter a protest to the charging of admission for this historical structure, when the board holds its summer session at Morehead City July 13. Whether he will be successful in his efforts to throw open Fort Macon to visitors without charge, remains to be proven. But one thing sure, Libby is the type of guy that makes every effort to get his plans across. (Beaufort News Photo by Dee Gee Bell)

McDONALD AUDIENCE BROKE ALL RECORDS

The largest audience to ever turn out for a political speech jammed their way into the Carteret courthouse last Friday night to hear Dr. McDonald, candidate for governor flay machine politics, but still hold the attention of those present for over an hour. Loud speakers were set up in the windows of the courtroom and many persons who could not gain admittance stood on the porch or in the driveways to hear the speaker, who was introduced by an Atlantic Democrat Walter R. Smith. Some favorable—some unfavorable comments were heard on the address. Highspot of his talk was when he promised to "bring Carteret, east of the Newport river back into North Carolina—and save the railroad for this section."

LAST RITES HELD FOR LOCAL YOUTH

Fletcher Eure Met Tragic Death By Drowning In Core Sound

Funeral Services for Fletcher Eure, 19-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Eure were conducted this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Methodist church here with the pastor, Rev. C. T. Rogers assisted by Rev. Lawrence Fenwick, rector of St. Pauls, officiating. He was drowned in the waters of upper Core sound, near Harbor Island yesterday morning about 10 o'clock, when he fell in some manner from a pile driver on which he was employed.

When the body reached Beaufort late Wednesday a coroner's inquest was held, but no verdict had been rendered up to noon today. Coroner George Dill stated by telephone that the youth was drowned, but how he happened to fall from the scow is not known. David Beveridge also employed on the pile driving

LATER THAN USUAL

We apologize for getting The Beaufort News out later today than usual. Trouble with our linotype caused this delay. We sent to New Bern and had an operator on The Tribune set much of the type in this issue, at considerable additional expense to us—but we have made an honest effort to give you an interesting Beaufort News out on the day of publication. ### Covering The WATER FRONT

By AYCOCK BROWN

ONCE UPON A TIME there was an ex-soldier who needed medical attention from his physician and drugs from his druggists. The ex-soldier had no money, but the physician and druggist extended credit and thus perhaps saved the ex-soldier or some member of his family's life. The account was never paid because the ex-soldier was always in hard luck and had no money. Along came the bonus, and the ex-soldier received several hundred dollars, with which he could have paid his doctor's bill and the bill of the druggist—but he never did. Instead he spent the money for an

TIDE TABLE

Information as to the tide at Beaufort is given in this column. The figures are approximately correct and based on tables furnished by the U. S. Geodetic Survey. Some allowances must be made for variations in the wind and also with respect to the locality, that is whether near the inlet or at the heads of the estuaries.
