HONORING MISS PROCTOR

On Saturday afternoon, November 7th Mrs. C. L. Hattell of Beaufort and Mrs. R. S. Proctor of New Bern delightfully entertained at the hut honoring Miss Helen Proctor whose engagement to F. G. Hattell was recently announced. The wedding of Miss Proctor and Mr. Hattell will take place during the Thanksgiving holidays.

The hut was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and white tapers. The log fire lent charm and coziness to the beautifully decorated hut.

The guests were received at the door by Miss Lena Duncan who introduced them to the receiving line. Receiving with Miss Proctor were Miss Mildred Salter and Miss Mildred Johnson December brides elect.

Presiding at the punch bowl were Mrs. W. A. Mace of Beaufort and Mrs. William Wadsworth of New Bern. Misses Edith Lewis, Nellie Lewis, Louise Hudgins and Rosa Lee Saied assisted Mesdames Wadsworth and Mace in serving.

During the afternoon the guests were entertained with music by Mrs. Charles Hassell and Mrs. John Brooks assisted by Mrs. Otis Moore, Mrs. Joe Matthews and Miss Ruth Lewis.

Many friends of Miss Proctor, who is a popular member of the Beaufort school faculty called during the evening.

Mrs. N. W. Taylor Honored

The regular afternoon meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Episcopal church met at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. N. W. Taylor. After the business session, other guests joined the group in celebrating Mrs. Taylor's 76 birthday.

The Auxiliary and friends met in Mrs. Taylor's bedroom, as she has been confined to her home for the past two weeks. The room was made beautiful with many baskets of flowers, gifts of friends, and other lovely gifts were showered upon the honoree, attesting the love and admiration of the Auxiliary and friends for her. A beautifully decorated birthday cake with its lighted candles was brought in and later ice cream and ginger ale with block cake were served to the guests. A number of friends called throughout the afternoon and evening.

MRS. JONES HOSTESS

Mrs. Paul Jones entertained on Saturday evening at three tables of bridge. The home was most attractive with a profusion of Autumn flowers. High score prize, a set of Pyrex dishes, was awarded Mrs. Hugh Piner, while a floating prize, a celery dish, went to Mrs. James Caffrey. Mrs. Jones served a salad course with hot tea.

A Sea Gull Told Me

BY MARIANNE

That maybe I shouldn't start this column, but I have had so many requests from the younger readers (some people still like to be mentioned in such columns) that I will start today with the hope that I will not find myself in a ditch minus a head before Christmas.

It is rumored to be true that one of our most attractive and most popular young blondes, who is employed at Rose's 5 and 10c store, was kept waiting at the door of that establishment after working hours Saturday night by a personable young highway man, who failed to show up. (It is also rumored to be true that the said highwayman was dreaming at the Russell House, but not dreaming that he was keeping the fair lady in distress).

That the romance which started this summer between one of the local sheiks and one of Morehead City's most attractive members of the female sex is really beginning to look serious.

A certain young lady—Beaufort's Giggie Girl—who has been romancing rather heavily for some time now, is not as carefree as usual. This state of affairs seems to be due to the fact that the other half of the team, which was once located with the Railroad in Morehead, has been transferred to New Bern.

That trouble is brewing for a certain young Morehead City man, who, having always been a "ladies man," is now finding how hard it is to keep two or three girls interested at one time. It seems that most of the trouble started when a certain attractive young nurse, a Yankee newcomer to the M. City hospital, gave the old flames a right to work harder to keep in the favor of the employe.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Williams of Morehead City announce the engagement of their daughter, Hilda Catherine, to Joe A. DuBois, of Morehead City, formerly of Washington, D. C. The wedding will take place in December.

of the N. C. Fisheries, Inc.

That the Beaufort and Morehead members are teaming up. The Gull has noticed that a very attractive young man, also employed with the Railroad, is almost a regular Sunday night visitor at the home of a certain popular member of the high school set on Ann street.

He hopes that the readers will let him and this columnist know what they think of "A Seagull Told Me—" We are open for arguments pro and con.

Book Club To Meet

The Book Club will hold its first real meeting at the home of Mrs. F. R. Bell on Thursday, November 19.
