FULL TIME FIRE TRUCK OPERATOR TO BE EMPLOYED

Volume XXVII 10 Pages This Week

Town Board Could Not Furnish Funds For New Hospital

Julius Duncan, secretary of the Beaufort Fire Department and one of the most interested members and hardest workers members and hardest workers of the organization appeared before the Town Board of Commissioners on Monday night, and requested that a full time fire truck driver be employed. While the request was not definitely settled during the meeting, members of the board voiced their approval, and it was indicated that ways and means to employ a fulland it was indicated that ways and means to employ a full-time operator are being work-ed out at this time. Secretary Duncan put up a force-ful plea on behalf of the Fire Department's need for such a driver. He cited instances, without directing criticism on any individual where fires have occurred recently in Beaufort, when the need of a driver was very great, on the spur of the moment.

A delegation appeared before the Board seeking funds to be used by the sponsors in the erection of a hospital to be built with WPA funds at Community Center. It was later shown that the Board could not legally give such monies.

Lovering The WATER FRONT

By AYCOCK BROWN

JUDGE T. D. BRYSON, dean of the School of Law at Duke University was in Beaufort this week, and dropped by the office to see me. He always drops by the office or my residence when he comes to the coastwhich is frequently during the summer months when fish are running. Judge Bryson had rather be on the coast fishing than be in a college class room teaching law-and as for that matter-who hadn't?

WHILE WE WERE talking in came Capt. Harvey Willis, the most prominent citizen of Salter Path. introduced him to Judge Bryson and right off, he started talking about fishing. Dr. Prytherch who was also in the office with us asked Capt. Willis about the many tarpon which are caught off Salter Path during the autumn. (These tarpon are caught in nets.) That attracted the attention of Judge Bryson and next autumn when the tarpon start chasing little mullets along the surf at Salter Path Capt. Willis will have a fishing guest. His guest will be Judge Bryson, who has landed some of the largest channel bass ever taken from the surf along North Carolina's coast, who Willis was talking about.

JUDGE BRYSON, until he became connected with the Law School of Duke was a Superior Court jurist. He the auspices of the Beaufort Rotary is a native of Bryson City, one of Club. Three More Negroes Killed In County

Three Negroes, students of a Trenton school were killed near the in-tersection of Wildwood Road and U. S. Route 70 between Morehead City and Newport about 11 o'clock Monday night, as a result of a car-truck crash. Those killed were: James Green, 18, driver of a 1934 Ford coach the party was riding in, Maybelle Green, age 16 and Mattie Green age 17. Four other occupants, Leila Pollock, Lilly Foy, Annie Green and Dephine Williams, suffered cuts and abrasions but neither were seriously injured. The Ford coach was bound west and a heavy fish truck owned by T. H. Taylor and driven by Euill Taylor of Sea Level was bound east when the crash occurred. Neither of the Taylors were injured. Clerk of Court L. W. Hassell appointed George Dill of Morehead City acting coroner to investigate the crash. The verdict of the coroner's inquest was that drivers of the truck were not to blame. The accident was said to have been unavoidable. The Negroes had played basket ball in Morehead City earlier in the evening. The Trenton girls' team won 26-4. The Trenton boys' team lost 11-18 . . RUNNING LIGHTS

By JOHN SIKES

THE VAGRANT thoughts incarcerated in this section this week can be tossed into one cell labelled This-Is-A-Small-World-After-All.

NEARLY NINE years ago-I find it more and more disturbing to ponder about How-Time-Does-Fly - I walked out on Forbes Field, the home baseball park of the Pittsburgh Pirates. I was a Sports Writer on the Pittsburgh Press. The New York Giants were the visiting team. went out to get a story on Southern players in the Big Leagues. The first two gentlemen, clad in the gray flannels and stick-candy effect sox of Giants, I stopped to talk to were Bill Terry and Pat Crawford. John Mc-Graw was still living then and, naturally, was still manager of the Giants. He had just told me that Pat ural ball-players he'd ever seen. And McGraw had seen a lot. Bill Terry was first1baseman for the Giants. Pat was doing general utility work. As I recall he played second base that day.

BEFORE I STOPPED to talk with Graveyard of Atlantic Bill and Pat I was dawdling around the Pirate dugout, talking to Jewel Ens, who was managing the Pirates at that time.
