Many Candidates To Seek Public Office

Much Interest Being Shown In Coming Elections

Several new candidates for public office in Carteret county have announced officially or otherwise during the past few days.

L. W. Hassell, clerk of superior court in Carteret County has announced his candidacy for re-election to this office.

Although no one has officially advertised in The Beaufort News that they will be a candidate for the office of Recorder's Court Judge, Paul Webb, the incumbent, stated this week that his advertisement would appear next week.

On Saturday, April 23, Carteret County Republicans will have their Convention for the purpose of electing a Chairman and Secretary and to nominate candidates for public office.

Political candidates who have advertisements appearing in The Beaufort News today follow: C. Ghermann Holland and Elbert M. Chadwick for Sheriff; W. P. Smith, J. W. Stewart, Raymond Davis, Cleveland Davis, Martin Guthrie and George W. Davis for county commissioner; F. R. Seeley for re-election to State Legislature; L. W. Hassell, for clerk of Superior Court and Charles L. Skarren Jr., for State Senator.

EATING PLACES MUST CLEAN UP

Public eating places in Beaufort are either cleaning up or closing up according to E. C. Hubbard, District Sanitation Supervisor for the State Board of Health.

According to Hubbard's survey there is only one Grade A eating place here. There is one Grade B and four Grade C eating places in Beaufort and six too low to be graded.

Other eating places and the scoring points according to the survey of Inspector Hubbard follow: Seafood Cafe, 90.0; Ann Street Inn, 85.0; Troy's Place, 76.5; Mathis Cafe, 76.0; The Beaufort Cafe, 70.5; Ye Olde Inlet Inn, 73.5.

The word "closed" used in the foregoing does not mean that the places of business are closed, but that their lunch counters have been ordered closed.

U. S. Fisheries Take Over Weather Duties Of Late Thos. Duncan

Duties of the late Thomas Duncan who served as weather displayman here for many years have been taken over temporarily, and probably permanently, by the U. S. Fisheries Laboratory on Piver's Island.

With the duties of displayman added to the weather duties already performed by the Fisheries Laboratory, will help centralize weather data. Daily reports will still be posted on the postoffice window, and the Laboratory group will also send the daily reports to Harkers Island, part of the duties of the displayman.

Co-operative observers at the Fisheries Laboratory have in the past been of much aid in furnishing day-by-day weather statistics of this section. Efforts are being made to increase the weather facilities now available at the U. S. Fisheries Laboratory, it was stated this week by Dr. Herbert F. Prytherch, director.

GOLF TOURNEY BEGINS MAY 1

The annual Spring Tourney of Gulf Stream Golf Club will begin on Sunday, May 1, it was announced this week by President Charles R. Hassell.

Only six holes were open to players last Fall, but the three remaining fairways and holes are getting in good shape now for use. The Medalist will receive a prize and each winner of the Flights will also be given awards. Local merchants are contributing funds with which to buy prizes, it was stated.

His U. S. Coast Guard Reserve Bill Passes

Senator R. R. Reynolds

Good news to the enlisted personnel of the U. S. Coast Guard will be the contents of a telegram received late Wednesday by Aycock Brown from Senator Robert Reynolds. It follows: "Glad to inform you that this afternoon I was successful in having passed by the Senate my Bill S-2206, providing for the creation of Coast Guard Reserve and Retirement of enlisted personnel and transfer to this Reserve after 20 years service. It has been a genuine pleasure to have been of service to the enlisted men of the Coast Guard in this connection. Kindest regards." Robert R. Reynolds, USS. While this does not mean the measure has been adopted, it does mean that a mighty important hurdle towards its adoption has been crossed.

ART SCHOOL TO OPEN JUNE 5TH

Gregory Ivy Will Bring Students To Beaufort

The Woman's College of the University of North Carolina definitely announced this week that a course in painting out of doors would be given at Beaufort starting June 5 and continuing through July 5.

"The aim of this course is to study the problems encountered in landscape painting, the handling of form, volume, space, light and color and the organization of compositions emphasizing the theories, methods and techniques of post-impressionism, cubism, and other recent trends in painting will be studied."

Mr. Ivy was accompanied by Mrs. Ivy. He is a native of Missouri and a graduate of the university in that State. He studied art in New York and spent many summers at the art colony in Provincetown Mass., before taking up his duties at the Greensboro branch of the University.

It will be necessary for the art students coming to Beaufort to find quarters in local homes and boarding houses. That was a matter which Mr. Ivy discussed with Aycock Brown, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The Chamber of Commerce is co-operating with the Woman's College in the establishment of the summer art colony in Beaufort.

On Wednesday Mr. Ivy was shown over the Community Center properties. While the courses he will teach in art will be out of

County Board Holds Regular April Meet

GOLF OFFICIALS DRAW UP RULES

Officials of Gulf Stream Golf Club met in the club rooms of Beaufort Business Association last Thursday night and drew up new rules and regulations for the organization. The meeting was presided over by Dr. W. L. Woodard, chairman of the Greens Committee. Copies of the rules will be given each member along with new membership cards at an early date.

Stanley Woodland of Morehead City was the only official not present at the meeting, but he sent as his proxy C. G. Owensby one of the outstanding players of the club and a member of the greens committee. Treasurer W. A. Mace told officials that a motor driven lawn mower had been ordered and would probably be placed in service this week.

Recorder's Court

Four cases were disposed of in Recorder's Court on Tuesday and according to one judgement, Carteret has disposed of a person who had been arrested on charges of chicken stealing. That was the case of Tom Noe. He was given his preference of 12 months on the roads or banishment from the county for a period of two years.

Another six months suspended sentence was given in the case of John Andrews, charged with bastardy. Upon motion of the attorney for the defendant the charge against Vance Hill, for reckless driving was non-suited. Libby Ward and Claud Wheatley appeared as attorneys in this case.

URGE CORRECT TAX LISTING

During the month of April all property in Carteret county, according to law, must be listed. If an individual fails to list, that individual is subject to indictment by the Grand Jury. If the individual fails to list correctly, that is his or her fault, and will cause trouble for the parties concerned at a later date. Citizens are urged to list their property personally, not let someone else do it, and to list it correctly.
