Lesson for July 3 A CHOICE OF LOYALTIES

LESSON TEXT-Joshua 1:2-6; 24:14-GOLDEN TEXT—As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord. Joshua 24:15.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Choosing Sides.
JUNIOR TOPIC—A Loyal Leader.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR
TOPIC—A Choice of Loyalies.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT
TOPIC—Man's Highest Allegiance.

"Lives of great men all remind us," according to the poet, that we so may make our lives sublime, and thus leave our footprints in the hifting sands of time. The study if biography is interesting, instruclive, and often challenging. When we enter the field of Bible biography we bring into consideration an additional and fundamental factor. namely, the power and grace of God working in and through a surrendered life. All strength of character and ability is a gift of God, but its glory is largely veiled and its usefulness definitely limited, if not actually perverted, because there is no recognition of the foundation of true greatness, which is faith in and loyalty to God.

During the next three months we are to share in the study of the life stories of great men and women which will not only stimulate ambitions, but which also reveal what God can do through those who are ready to follow Him.

Moses, God's great leader for Israel, having brought them out of the land of bondage and through the terrible wilderness, is about to leave them. God's workman is about EMPLOYEES ADVISED TO to die, but His work is to go on. God is not taken by surprise.

I. A Prepared Man Takes Command (1:3-6).

"Moses is dead: now therefore arise." Life is like that. "The king is dead; long live the king," is the cry of those who live under monarchies, as one ruler dies and his successor takes over the throne. Until that day when there shall be "time no longer," men must put away their sorrow and go on. Three words characterize the commission of Joshua-

1. Promise (vv. 2-4). God gave the land to Israel. Every place that Joshua planted his foot upon was to be his possession, even as God has promised Moses. A river lay between; there were walled and armed cities to be taken; there were even giants in the land, but God promised it to Joshua; and he took it by faith.

God has given us many promises. too. If we are fearful, povertystricken, powerless Christians, it is because we do not believe God.

2. Power (v. 5). No man is able to stand against God's servant who is doing God's will, in God's way, in God's time. It was true of Joshua, is true today. Men set up their trives in Bussia, secretly perhaps, goods, meals, or lodging. ut none the less sincerely and sucno does the will of God.

neans to be assured of His help. Faith lays hold of that fact and the whole man becomes courageous. But observe that the foundation of courage is faith in God's Word, nurtured by meditation in it "day and night" (v. 7). The house of courage can be built only on that Mare than two decades have and since the appointment of and to lead Israel. God has fuled every promise. Israel is in Promised Land, Before the aged mer dies he calls the leaders of a people together to urge them to ntinue in the way of faith and cally to God. This he does by:

1. Example (v. 15). "As for me d my house, we will serve the rd." No man can honestly and ectively call others to devotion to Lord unless he sets them an exaple. No one takes any stock the preacher or teacher who ys, "Do as I say, not as I do." e are more than signposts; we are

2 Instruction (vv. 16-19). Rememouring God's dealings with them, he people declare their determinaon to serve the Lord. They spoke ather glibly. Joshua instructs them. God is not interested in lip service. He does not need them so much as they need Him. He does not look upon their confession of

Tim. if they continue to live in sin. 3. Warning (v. 20), God will visit fis judgment on His people if they forsake Him and kurn away-such is Joshua's warning. We who look back to the history of Israel know that they did forsake Him, and that the judgment of God is still upon them. "Be not deceived: God is not mocked, for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap" (Gal. 6:7) is God's warning through Paul to the Christian.
