Work Starts Soon On New— FORT MACON C. G. STATION

A NEW "SUPER" Coast Guard Station with quarters for a crew of 30 men will soon replace the present structure pictured above and the lookout tower. The contract for building the station has been let to a Norfolk firm. E. L. (Tad) Davis, of Beaufort, has the contract to build a new boathouse and launchway at Fort Macon at a cost of $29,575. (Note: An item appearing in the second column on page 3 of this edition stating that Davis has contract to build Fort Macon station dwelling was gleaned from a daily newspaper and is an error.) The Beaufort contractor does have the contract to build a new combination "super" station and boat house on Ocracoke Island. W. F. Martens has the contract for improvement of the Cape Lookout Station involving an expenditure of $13,240.—Eubanks-News Photo.

Covering The Waterfront

By AYCOCK BROWN
THAT CAPE Lookout will eventually be the principal resort of Carteret County is predicted by any number of persons who are familiar with the location. The only reason the Cape has not developed before had been due to the fact that it was necessary to go there by way of Beaufort Inlet and even on fair days this route is mighty uncomfortable for the land lubber. Within a few more weeks the "Drain" will be dredged to a depth sufficient to accommodate yachts and the type of boats which now go to the Cape. With the completion of this route, it will be possible to go to and from the Cape in all kinds of weather and in comfort.

CAPE LOOKOUT today offers what Ocracoke and Hatteras offered before those places tried going modern. And it offers what so many vacationists are really looking for in the way of recreation and rest. Already this season an increase in the number of persons going to the Cape has been noted. Mrs. Carrie Davis who operates the only Inn at the Cape has had full houses every (Continued on page 8)

What's the Answer?

WHAT ARE DREAMS AND WHY DO WE DREAM THEM?

DREAMS are the means by which Nature insures to us the rest which we should otherwise lose did we not dream. When the entire brain is unconscious during sleep we do not dream. But when a portion of it is awake and some force from the conscious penetrates to it, a dream is set into motion. For instance, we are asleep in a hammock on a hot day. The sun creeps on us and the heat of it causes that portion of our brain which is not entirely asleep to start dreaming that we are on a hot dry desert. The glare of the sun becomes the bright blinding glare of the desert. Were the dream not set into motion, the sun would awaken us.

LOCAL GIRL ON MARCH OF TIME
Vivian Miller Is
Featured In A
Safety Shot

Little Vivian Blanche, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Miller will be seen for about 30 seconds on the August release of the news-reel "March of Time." She was chosen by the editor of the news feature by the editor from a class-room full of youngsters attending Lincoln Demonstration School kindergarten in New York recently.

The subject of the picture pertains to highway safety. The part the little Miller girl portrays has to do with teaching of small children the importance of learning traffic signals and the functions of the traffic policeman. She along with other children play with toy traffic policemen in a miniature city.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller saw the release of the reel in which their daughter appeared at Radio City a few days ago according to a letter received by the editor of this newspaper. Mr. Miller has been attending Columbia University's summer school this year and while in New York he had the honor of serving as president of the North Carolina Club. After the summer school session they visited relatives in Canada. They will return to Beaufort the latter part of this week. He is principal of Beaufort High School.

Broad Creek Fishers Tried For Trespass

Angler Caught
Alligator Out
At South River

A three foot alligator was hooked in South River last week-end by a party of anglers who had gone there for the fresh water bass fishing. It is probably the first time on record that an angler has caught an alligator in North Carolina with rod and reel.

The black bass fishing was also good for this party. They landed 11 fish weighing from one and a half pounds each and threw back 11 fish weighing from 1 1/2 to three pounds and threw back 15 or more fish for which they did Leon Thomas and District Warden Warrenton were in the party making the catch along with an angler from Charlotte whose name was not obtained.

Seeley acting as agent for Mr. Fort. The defendants represented by Attorney C. R. Wheatley are fishermen. The case was continued until next Tuesday for judgment.

Over anxiety in anticipation of nuptial bliss resulted in Euell R. Potter, of Lowlands, Pamlico County, into Recorder's Court on charges of seduction upon promise to marry. Legal Liquor
To Be Bought
Cooperatively

Cooperative purchase of liquor stocks for stores in North Carolina's 27 wet counties was tentatively approved by members of county ABC boards meeting at Atlantic Beach Friday. Savings of from $40,000 to $60,000 annually would be effected by the stores on reductions in freight rates and other costs, it is believed.

Cutlar Moore, State ABC board chairman, who made the principal talk, called for stricter law enforcement of liquor laws—road and jail terms instead of fines.

J. D. Cobb, Durham, presided over the 26 representatives of 18 of the 27 liquor counties. Details of the cooperative purchasing plan will be worked out and presented at a meeting in Rocky Mount next month.

New Fairway Mower
At Gulf Stream Club

A new fairway mower has been received at Gulf Stream Golf Club and placed in operation. It is in reality three large mowers in one and cuts grass to lawn shortness for a width of about six feet. It replaces a small power motor which was bought several months ago but proved inadequate to keep the fast growing grass on the fairways cut. The new mower is towed by a motor truck at the rate of about 10 miles an hour.

GOGGLE FISHING PICTURE TO BE USED IN "SPUR"

Wide Publicity Has Been Given This
New Sport

The magazine "Spur" with home offices in London will use a series of the goggle-fishing pictures made by Bill Sharpe of the N. C. Advertising Division at an early date, the Beaufort News editor learned this week. They will be used in a series of shots showing a new type of submarine gun lately introduced on the French Riveira.

A recent edition of Spur carried shots of surf casting along the North Carolina coast. Spur is the most outstanding magazine for sports-minded people in the world. It is a slick paper magazine, beautifully illustrated in colors and is quite similar in style to Esquire.

Goggle fishing pictures made at Beaufort show Dr. Herbert F. Prytherch, director of the U. S. Fisheries Laboratory here, Major W. A. Farrell, of the U. S. Marine Corps, Quantico, Va., who introduced the sport to Carteret country, Miss Lucille Thomas, who tried goggle fishing and Aycock Brown, fitting goggles on Miss Thomas. Already the pictures and stories of this new sport have been carried in newspapers throughout America.

Miss Thomas Rides
Bicycle And Gets
National Publicity

Miss Lucille Thomas who as "Miss Beaufort" was crowned the queen of Morehead City's first annual Coastal Festival, was in the national spotlight again this week. Accounts of her winning the beauty crown at Coastal Festival was carried beneath her photo appearing in many newspapers published throughout the nation. The photo used showed Miss Thomas riding a bicycle along the surf.

Miss Thomas also received an invitation to appear as "Miss Beaufort" at a water carnival to be presented at Wrightsville Beach next week. She did not accept the invitation however, as she will soon leave for school and wants to remain in Beaufort as much as possible until that time.

Joe House Drug
Store Will Move
In Old P. O. Bldg.

Joe House Drug store which has been located in the Duncan building at the corner of Front and Turner Streets for many years will soon move into new quarters at the corner of Craven and Front. New home of the drug store will be in the building formerly occupied by the Postoffice. At the present time the quarters are being completely remodeled.

The new location will be very desirable as there seems to be a trend in the movement of business houses east along Front street. Incidentally it will be located directly beneath Potters Emergency Hospital and convenient to patients, and the physicians who have their offices on the second floor of the building.

Suit Transferred
To Federal Court
From This County

Two suits in which damages totaling $30,000 are asked of Swift and Company have been transferred to Federal Court in New Bern from this county at the request of the defendant company. The suits had been brought in Carteret Superior court.

Mrs. Fannie L. Willis of Carteret county is the plaintiff in one suit in which $5,000 actual damage and $15,000 punitive damage is asked. Cornelia Willis, age 9, daughter of Mrs. Willis, by next friend, James W. Mason, is the plaintiff in the second suit in which $5,000 damage and $5,000 for costs and such other relief as she is entitled to receive, are asked.

Both suits have arisen from the allegations that on March 2, 1937, Mrs. Willis purchased at a Beaufort store some shortening manufactured by Swift and Company and that glass was found in the shortening after both the plaintiffs had suffered bodily harm through eating it. The suits charge negligence and a violation of the national pure food act.

Speaker Bankhead
Appointed Him
Tuesday

Representative Graham A. Barden was appointed by Speaker of the House William B. Bankhead on Tuesday to succeed Representative William J. Driver, (Dem. Ark.) resigned, on the joint Congressional Committee investigating the Tennessee Valley Authority.

Congressman Barden was at the Latham cottage on Cape Lookout Monday night when Speaker Bankhead called him by long distance telephone from Jasper, Ala., asking if he would accept the post. He had been at the Cape with his family for the past several days recuperating from a recent illness.

On Tuesday he wired Speaker Bankhead that he would accept the important post and made preparations to leave immediately for Chattanooga, where the committee is this week investigating a certain phase of the allegations involving TVA affairs. He came to Beaufort Wednesday morning via boat and went to New Bern, expecting to leave late yesterday or early today for the Tennessee city.

Announcement of the invitation to serve on the important Congressional committee was wired The Beaufort News by Tom McGee, private secretary to Mr. Barden in New Bern. The news had also been telephoned to Beaufort to a correspondent of newspapers upstate by Mr. Barden.

Congressman Driver resigned because of his recent defeat in the Arkansas elections.

Speaker Bankhead wired his thanks to his friend Mr. Barden, following his acceptance to the important post.

Fishing And All Outdoors

By AYCOCK BROWN

A GROUP of automobile representatives convened on the Carteret Coast last week-end. A feature of the convention was the fishing trip. So many delegates were present that it was necessary to employ several boats to take care of the large party. A $20 prize was offered the party catching the largest number of fish. Who won the prize makes no difference. The idea that it was offered for the largest number of fish taken does make a difference. If the prize had been offered for the largest fish taken, it would have been real sportsmanship. As it so happened there was no sportsmanship involved—none at all.

MARSH HEN season opens next Thursday. Quite a few local gunners and probably some from outside the county will be going to the marshes gunning for these fast flying morsels. It is likely that (Continued on page 8)
