Important Meetings For Farmers of This County Will Be Held Next Week

Frank And Friendly Discussion On Crop Control Planned

Declaring that the farmers of Carteret County are facing one of the most important issues on December 19, that they have ever faced, County Agent J. O. Anthony stated this week that he hoped every farmer would attend one of the series of meetings to be held during the coming week with the thought in view of having frank and friendly discussions of the whole matter. The whole matter includes besides the series of meetings, the Referendum on Saturday, December 10, to decide on the 1939 Farm Program.

Representative Graham A. Barden will be the speaker at the Newport meeting on Friday December 9, it was stated with other outside speakers scheduled to explain the program and talk at the other meetings. In a form letter to farmers of Carteret this week the County Agent wrote: "We can't gamble with the future of this County. And every intelligent farmer in Carteret will heartily agree that he is absolutely right. However, the purpose of the referendum and the meetings prior to same are to get a consensus of opinion from those who will be affected by proposed measures. Farmers are urged to attend the meetings and then vote on December 10th, regardless of whether they are for or against crop control."

The date, place and time of the meetings during the week follows: Monday, December 5, Smyrna School at 2 o'clock and Beaufort at Courthouse at 7 o'clock; Tuesday November 6th, Harlowe at L. N. Connor's store at 7 P. M.; Wednesday, December 7, Wildwood at Lodge Hall, 11 o'clock; Stella at Pelletier's Store, 2 o'clock; Buck's Verner at 4 o'clock and Bogue at Community House at 7 o'clock; Friday, Merrimon at Old School House, 2 o'clock and Newport in High School Auditorium at 7 o'clock.

He is survived by nine children: Mrs. Charles S. Wallace, William Webb, A. H. Webb, Jr., Judge Paul Webb, and Charles B. Webb, of Morehead City; Earle W. Webb and Theodore Webb, of New York; Harry V. Webb, of Richmond, Va.; John D. Webb, of Washington. He is survived by two sisters Mrs. George V. Bell and Mrs. Ida L. Easton, of Morehead City.

Fishing And All Outdoors

A TIP FOR you guides: Write John L. Jones, Rt. 2, Box 1385, Detroit, Michigan and tell him that Carteret has to offer in the way of duck, deer and quail shooting during the Christmas holidays. Mr. Jones asked for that information when he wrote the Chamber of Commerce here this week. JOHN PARKS, JR., of the Raleigh Times, and his friend shooting at Davis on Thanksgiving day, called to get their bag limit. It was a bluebird day—not a duck shooting day. This week I met for the first time, Ammie Willis, of Davis. Ammie is the best known hunting and fishing guide in Carteret County. He said that he appreciated all the publicity The Beaufort News had given Davis and himself during recent years. (Continued on page 8)

What's the Answer?

BY EDWARD FINCH

WHY DO THEY CALL IT PIN MONEY?

ANCE, pins were so expensive that only the rich could afford them. There was a law allowing the sale of pins only on the first two days of the new year and on those days, the women of wealth would rain from their husbands "pin money" to shop for their pins. The tradition held through the years, lending its meaning when pins came cheap, to any money used for personal expenses.

Beaufort was treated to a thrilling air show early this afternoon by a plane which appeared to be of the U. S. Navy Aircraft carrier type. It did not land here.

Maj. General Schley Arriving Tonight

Brings His Chief To Carteret May Visit Beaufort Early Friday Morning

BARDEN AND BAILEY WILL JOIN GROUP

Major General Julian L. Schley, chief of U. S. Army Engineers, Major George Gillette, U. S. Army district engineer and other officials of this branch of the Federal government will arrive in Morehead City tonight about 8 o'clock aboard the Falcon. Representative Graham A. Barden and Senator Josiah W. Bailey are scheduled to join the party in Morehead City. Before sailing on Friday morning for Wilmington, the U. S. Engineering chief and his party will probably make a tour of inspection of Beaufort and other nearby harbors and waterway projects.

It is one of the most extensive inspection tours the chief of army engineers has ever made of North Carolina waterways. The Falcon sailed from Norfolk early this week. Early Wednesday the party left Manteo for a visit to old Fort Raleigh, Wright Memorial and other places of interest in that sector. Later they sailed in a flying speed boat to inspect the waterway facilities of Avon, Roanoke, Hatteras and Ocracoke. They lunched at Hatteras and then went across Pamlico sound to Engelhardt. They visited Mattamuskeet Lake, Swanquarter and Belhaven where they boarded the Falcon again for the night.

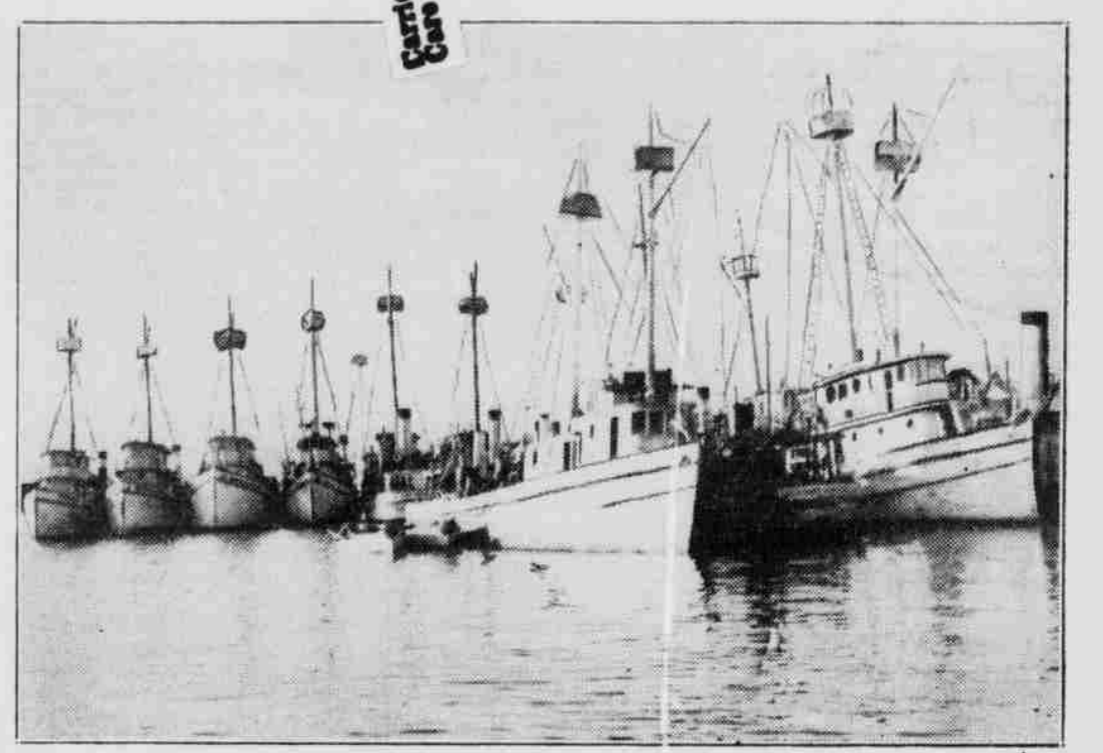

C. of C. Banquet Will Feature A Delicious Menu

The annual membership meeting and banquet of the Chamber of Commerce scheduled for next Thursday night at the American Legion Hut will feature a delicious menu it was announced today by Mrs. Martha Loftin treasurer of the organization who is in charge of preparing same. The banquet will feature tomato cocktail, roast turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, garden peas, potato salad, celery, cloverleaf rolls, coffee and fresh strawberries. An honored guest at the banquet will be Congressman Graham A. Barden. Major Gillette, district U. S. Engineer, has also been extended an invitation to attend as an honored guest. Mrs. Loftin is now selling tickets for the banquet and interested citizens and members of the organization are showing a fine spirit of co-operation.

Styron Child Breaks Arm While Skating

Margaret Styron, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Styron, received a fractured arm a few days ago when she fell while skating out near the schoolhouse. The fracture occurred at the elbow which made it necessary to place same in a cast. Her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Partial View of Menhaden Fleet—Beaufort Harbor Presents Busy Scene These Days

U. S. ARMY ENGINEERING officials arriving in Morehead City tonight may have an opportunity to see the large menhaden fleet which is basing in Beaufort now because if fishing conditions are right the boats will be off shore before daylight Friday, but the above photo will give them an idea of the importance of Beaufort harbor. The scene shows only part of the fleet of approximately 40 menhaden vessels now basing here.—(Eubanks-News photo.)

WOMAN'S CLUB TO HELP WITH GLAD FESTIVAL

Will Encourage All Home Owners To Plant Bulbs

Woman Club members of Beaufort will lend their cooperation in making the proposed Gladiolus Festival of June 1939 in Beaufort a big success. At a meeting of the Club on Wednesday the members were very much interested in the proposal as outlined by Mrs. T. A. Richards. Prior to the meeting Mrs. Richards and Mrs. W. S. Chadwick met with Chamber of Commerce officials and commercial gladiolus growers and discussed the plans. It was proposed that each home owner on Ann Street purchase bulbs and plant same in front of their homes. Other home owners will be urged to plant gladiolus to help make the town more colorful at festival time. Committees from the Woman's Club will make a canvass of home owners to determine if they will cooperate by planting gladiolus and a report on same will be given next week.

SPORT-LITES

By J. W. Stewart

Now that the frost is on the pumpkin and your correspondent has had his first taste of turkey and pumpkin pie, it is time that he come out of his hibernation and start his yearly series of articles on the basketball situation that is soon to attract the attention of the schools as the public to this popular sport in this section.

FOOTBALL

Just a few words on football before the draw on basketball begins. Last week Beaufort and Morehead City played their annual football classic at Morehead city. The score was 13-13. However, there has been quite a buzz of talk about the game as to score and officiating. The writer will not make comment on the matter from the fan standpoint. However, he will say a few words regarding the situation. Few know there is an official athletic board, consisting of the County Superintendent and the coaches and principals of the schools. They have formulated rules and regulations regarding sports participated in by the schools. However, they have put all of their efforts on basketball. The situation that arose last week plainly shows the need of emphasis by that board on football. Little criticism has been heard about (Continued on page 5)

Sheriff Holland To Have Office In Court House

Sheriff Holland who succeeds Sheriff Elbert Chadwick next Monday will maintain offices in the court house here it was announced this week. The office will be located in the room formerly occupied by the Board of Education. Sheriff Holland plans to have a person on duty in the office at all times to help carry out the duties expected from this County official. In addition to Holland all county officials elected during the recent election will be sworn into office next Monday.

Covering The Waterfront

BY AYCOCK BROWN

ONCE IN THE Pennsylvania station in New York a fellow came up to me and offered to let me hold his beautiful gold ring with a diamond setting for the loan of $3 the amount he needed to get back to his home in Ohio. I fell for his story. And believe it or not, it was one time that I happened to have an extra $3 in my pocket. He was to return the $3 and I was to return the ring. I never heard from him and the ring soon changed to brass. I was the sucker. BECAUSE I WAS the sucker in the case I never said anything about the incident. Not until this past week. I happened to be talking (Continued on page 8)

TIDE TABLE

Information as to the tide at Beaufort is given in this column. The figures are approximately correct and are based on tables furnished by the U. S. Geodetic Survey. Some allowances must be made for variations in the wind and also with respect to the locality, that is whether near the inlet or at the head of the estuaries.

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING NOTES

BY AYCOCK (Shopper) BROWN

FAR BE IT from me to burden this newspaper with an additional by-line column but there are too many fine gifts and fine stores right here at home to go unnoticed by shoppers who are really doing their Christmas shopping now. And the little things I say I hope will turn more dollars into the cash registers of our local merchants and especially our advertisers.

WHAT IS Absolutely the neatest thing I have seen in a radio this week is the RCA VICTOR "Little Nipper" that is on display at Carteret Hardware Company. Equipped with five tubes the little set could almost be concealed in your overcoat pocket, and the cabinet hardly covers the span of your hand, although it brings in all stations and foreign lands. Incidentally it sells for only $17.95.

WHEN ED MARTIN approved his 30 inch advertisement featuring gift selections he said, "And don't forget to say something about our most complete line of Christmas dresses, coats and Millinery." On display at Martin's I saw quite a batch of useful and practical gifts. Read his ad and see for yourself.

FELTON'S is telling the world that gifts of "Everything to Wear" are available at this firm, one of our steadfast advertisers. Felton's not only features "Everything to Wear" gifts for EVERYBODY, but the firm is also showing many other worthwhile gift suggestions. C. D. JONES COMPANY whose slogan is "Everything to Eat" is already taking orders for Christmas dinner foods. And this splendid food store which is this year celebrating its 25th anniversary advertises everything in the way of cake and fruit cake ingredients.

WARD'S FRUIT cakes are advertised by Bett's Bakery, the "Home of Lady Carteret Bread." He also advertises that these fruit cakes can be purchased at better stores throughout Beaufort and the County. ONE OF THE gift-like looking windows down the street yesterday was the B. A. BELL (Continued from Page 8)
