GULF STREAM Golf Links, a 9-hole course which is continually improving has the distinction of being the nearest links to the Gulf Stream north of Southern Florida. That is the reason it was named Gulf Stream Golf Club. While many people may not yet realize it, the golf links is a real asset to Coastal Carteret. About 50 percent of the inquiries from prospective vacationists ask if there is a golf course here, and the links is used by a large number of non-residents.-(Photo by Aycock Brown)
