Several Hundred Dollars Will Be Paid The Winners For Carteret County Fair Exhibits

East Carolina To Honor Warren

SEVERAL PERSONS from Carteret county are planning to attend the gathering in Washington on Friday to honor Congressman Lindsey C. Warren, who becomes comptroller general of the United States on November 1. Although representative for many years of the First District, all of East Carolina highly appreciate the fine work that Congressman Warren has accomplished in Congress. Of interest to many in East Carolina also was the announcement on Tuesday that Dudley Bagley of Currituck County, will be second assistant to the Comptroller General. For the past five years Dudley Bagley has been chairman of the NCREA.

PRETTY MARIGOLDS

Some of the prettiest marigolds we have seen this year were grown by Beaufort News Linotyper Paul Lincke, whose hobby is horticulture.—(Ed.)

CONSCRIPT DOCTORS

National Guardsmen and the new draft army are going to have plenty of medical and dental service. Army plans call for a corps of 12,000 doctors and 2,287 dentists by July 1, 1941, who will be summoned from the Medical and Dental Reserve as the expansion of the army progresses.

At present the army has 1,196 physicians on active duty and expects to add another 2,700 from the mobilized National Guard. The remaining 8,400 will be secured from the Reserve Corps, the draft and volunteers. Dental vacancies will be filled the same way.

The 7,000 nurses needed for the Nursing Corps will be obtained chiefly through Red Cross registers. The nurses have warrant officer status and receive $60 a month, plus board, room and laundry. They cannot marry while in the service.

Animal medicine also will not be neglected, with 1,143 veterinarians. See Merry-go-round—Page 2

Schools, Clubs, And Individuals To Profit

Exhibitors at the Carteret County fair won several hundred dollars in cash prizes week and from the stubs in the Premium Statement book winners of cash awards have been gleaned for today's paper. It would take several columns to list each item separately, so the names of winner and number of prizes won will be given.

The average prizes ranged from 50 cents for second place to $1.00 for first place for individual exhibits. The larger cash awards went to schools, club and commercial booths, as follows: Curb Market Agricultural Exhibit, $10; Triple-A exhibit, $5; Morehead City School Booth, $5; Beaufort School Booth, $5; Home Demonstration Clubs, $10; Bettie Club Booth, $8; Crab Point Club, $6; Wire Grass Club, $4; Boy's 4-H Club, $7; Girls 4-H Club, $5; Newport Vo-Ag and School Exhibit, $10.

Approximately 70 individual exhibits won cash awards for one or more prizes ranging from 50 cents to several dollars. A list of individuals and number of prizes they won follows: Mrs. J. E. Weeks, Pelletier, 7; C. T. Eubanks, Beaufort RFD, 3; Mrs. M. M. Eubanks, Beaufort, 6; Mrs. J. B. Garner, Newport, 17; No. 134 (no name) 1; Alton Higgins, Newport, 1; H. T. Carraway, Beaufort, 20; H. C. Small, Newport, 2; D. W. Truckner, Pelletier, 2; Marjorie Gooding, Beaufort, 11; Jesse Newport, 1; Mrs. Mary Gillikin, RFD, 3; No. 795, (no name) 1; Mrs. W. S. 1940 Carteret Fair Financial Success

Officials of the American Legion sponsored Carteret County Fair have indicated that the event which came to a close last week was a financial success, despite the fact that the profits this year were smaller than in previous years. Exact figures as to amount grossed are never given for publication, but sharing in the funds received by the local Legion Post were exhibitors, (cash prizes), school board, (for rental of athletic field), and the Parent Teachers Association and Legion Auxiliary. In addition school children were admitted to Fair free on certain days, and two bicycles were given in addition to the cash free prizes each night during the week and grand cash prize of $50.00 Saturday night.

Hatteras Scenes Painted By Noted New York Artist

An odd combination and circumstances has placed Cape Hatteras on record in as remarkable a series of paintings as have come off the Carolina "Outer Banks", according to a story under a New York date line written by John Selby, Associated Press Arts Editor.

"The talents are those of De Hirsh Margules, long-time police reporter for the New York City News Service and a self-taught painter of watercolors.

Although Margules knows New York better than nine-tenths of the guidebook writers, he also likes to paint out-of-the-way places.

"He has painted in Tunis and quaint corners of Burgundy, in Paris and in Nova Scotia, Vermont and now Hatteras. In a month this summer, he did 15 watercolors of impressive proportions in a brilliant, rather nervous style which seems unexpectedly appropriate to the peace and remoteness of what some sailors call the "Cape of Lost Hope."

"Margules lived in Hatteras with a fishing captain, and Mrs. Margules brought back five pages of the remarkable, almost Chaucerian English spoken on the Banks, plus many stories of shipwrecks. See Hatteras—Page 8

NEW MEMBERS REQUIRED FOR REA PROJECT

Discuss Plans For Getting Members At Meet Here

Members of the Carteret Craven REA Cooperative met in the Courthouse here last Saturday morning to discuss plans for rushing the proposed project which would result in electricity service for practically every rural section of Carteret and a portion of Craven counties. County Agent J. Y. Lassiter and the Cooperative's attorney Alvah Hamilton, were in charge of the meeting.

REA headquarters in Washington have requested additional members for the local cooperative before the loan for operations can be approved. At the present time over 400 prospective members have been signed up, but this does not meet the latest requirements of the REA officials, despite the fact that it gives an average of three subscribers to the mile for the proposed 128 miles.

A drive is being made this week by leaders of the various communities to be served with hopes of securing the additional members. The group on Saturday went on record as favoring a meeting between local persons interested in REA and Congressman Barden, Senator Bailey and REA officials in Washington within the next few days. Attorney Hamilton, and the Craven and Carteret County agents would attend this conference with one or two representatives of the people who are seeking the project.

The Board of Directors of the Carteret-Craven Cooperative follows: W. S. Goodwin, Lola; Gerald Whitehurst, Straits; George W. Huntley, Beaufort; D. F. Merrill, Beaufort RFD; George W. Ball, Claude Garner, and C. T. Cannon, Newport RFD; John S. Jones, Swansboro; L. W. Pelletier, Stella; A. B. Morton, Bachelor and Borden Adams, Newport.

Ocracoker Playing With Gene Autry's Cowhand Band

Edgar Howard, who with his brother Walter Howard, were runners-up for top honors in a Major Bowes program several months ago has joined Gene Autry's Cowhand Band and at present time the outfit known as the World Rodeo is playing Madison Square Garden. From New York the outfit goes to Boston and from there to sunny California and Hollywood to appear in an Autry picture with Republic Pictures. Edgar Howard plays just about every string instrument, the harmonica and piano. He is best on a tenor banjo. It all goes to prove the old adage that you can find an Ocracoker in just about any port in the world.

BARDEN AFTER NAVY VESSELS FOR M-C PORT

Congressman Graham A. Barden is making every effort with the Navy Department to have the port of Morehead City designated as a "port of call" for naval vessels. This was announced in a letter from the Third District Representative received on the Carteret Coast this week.

Congressman Barden has had the opportunity of seeing as many as four naval vessels in the Morehead City port at one time, not to mention other vessels there, and he knows that the facilities offered are worth consideration by the Navy. Morehead City is the nearest port to the ocean along the Atlantic Coast.

The thought behind it all is to create more activity in the vicinity of the port, and to give potential recruits of the navy an opportunity of seeing life aboard ship.

Republicans Are Active In County

Capt. George Brooks has been very busy recently organizing "Willkie For President" clubs in Carteret County. He stated today that active clubs had been organized at Stella, Pelletier, Bogue, Newport, Davis and Stacy. Clubs will be organized in other communities between now and election day, it was stated.

H. S. GIBBS TO HEAD DEFENSE FUND SEEKERS

Carteret Had Big Delegation At Gathering

H. S. Gibbs, County Representative Nominee, of Morehead City, was named chairman of a committee formed in New Bern on Wednesday which will have as its objective the inclusion of North Carolina's vast unprotected coast line in the defense program and retaining Colonel George W. Gillette as U. S. District Engineer for the Army in North Carolina. The organization will be known as Eastern North Carolina Committee for Coastal Defense.

Ed Smith of Scotland Neck, was selected as vice chairman of the organization. Miss Helen Hawk, secretary of the New Bern Chamber of Commerce was named secretary of the committee.

Twelve persons from Carteret County were present at the meeting. They were: Mayor George W. Huntley, Beaufort; Irvin W. Davis, Davis; E. O. Moore, Marshallberg; Raymond K. Ball, Harlowe; Earl Davis, Harkers Island; H. S. Gibbs, W. M. Webb, Dr. E. F. Royall, Walter Hufham, George McNeill and A. H. Joyner, of Morehead City.

Representatives of the various sections represented at the meeting were instructed to outline the projects they thought desirable for national defense. With this information at hand, committee members will put up united fight to obtain the projects.

To Hugh MacRae, outstanding business leader and colonization expert of Wilmington goes the credit for making all arrangements leading up to the meeting. President H. M. Jacobs of the New Bern Chamber of Commerce attended to local arrangements, assisted by his efficient secretary, Miss Helen Hawk.

Senator Bailey On Coast After Cero

Senator Josiah W. Bailey arrived on the Carteret Coast last night and today he was taking time off from official business to try the cero trolling off Beaufort Inlet. It is also a good bet that between fish he is studying the lay of the land and waters in this vicinity with defense program thoughts in mind. It was Senator Bailey who recently pushed the Ocracoke and Oregon Inlet projects (included in defense program) through and work is expected to start on deepening the waters of these two sections soon.

And speaking of fishing, the weather looked bad this morning but by noon the sun was shining and this should be a break for the fishing Senator and others going after cero. Some of the finest specimens of cero ever landed with rod and reel on the Carteret coast were taken by Senator Bailey.

Covering The Waterfront

By AYCOCK BROWN

SAY WHAT you wish about the Legion sponsored Carteret County Fairs, but give them credit for one thing, they have brought some of the most outstanding free attractions in America to our coast. Remember the first fair five years ago when Cotlin and Wilson was on the midway? The attractions that year were Sol Solomon, world champion high diver and Wilno the human cannon ball. If you noticed the rotogravures last Sunday you saw sensational pictures of both of these attractions which have been featured at the World Fair in New York this year. The only difference is that Wilno and Solomon were both presented in Beaufort, our small North Carolina coastal town five years ahead of their appearance in New York at the World Fair.

THE SAME WILL be true of the Berossino troupe—the free attraction on the midway here last week. You will be hearing more and plenty more about that act as years go by. It is true that they were playing small towns this season, but that is because they had to take what was offered and any. See Waterfront—Page 8

MANY OF THE pupils enrolled at Beaufort Consolidated School patronize the lunch room which is located in the bleacher building on the athletic field. Cost of a meal in this school lunchroom is usually one dime.

FOOTBALL GAME HERE FRIDAY

Beaufort High School's football team will meet the Williamston High team on the local athletic field Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. It is the first game of the season played in Beaufort. The local team urges everyone to attend this game, which they claim will be a good one.

TRUCK FARMERS MAY GET LOANS FOR OPERATING

Local FSA Office Ready To Give Assistance

Truck farmers in Eastern Carteret County who are planning to apply for Farm Security Loans to carry on their operations for the year 1941, are urged to file applications immediately with the Beaufort office of the Farm Security Administration, it was stated today by Joseph Allen, assistant R.R. Supervisor who is in charge of the Carteret office.

Farmers may secure these loans for seeds, fertilizers, feeds, food, clothes and all operating expenses and live stock. A person may borrow according to their needs, and crops. All operating expense loans must be paid within one year, loans for livestock and equipment must be paid within three to five years. This money is loaned farmers at rate of 5 per cent interest.

Applications for farm loans have been coming in rather slow for 1941 operations, it was stated at the local FSA office. For 1940, approximately 50 loans were made to farmers in Carteret. Any farmer interested in securing the loans are advised that they may receive application forms at the local FSA office which is located in the Courthouse Annex in Beaufort.

Rotarians Have Get Acquainted Program Tuesday

Beaufort Rotarians learned a bit about their fellow Rotarians at the weekly meeting of the club on Tuesday. For instance, Rotarians learned what town in Scotland was the birthplace of Bill Stewart and when he came to America, went to school, what he did before entering the ministry and so on—Incidentally Rev. Bill Stewart was a U. S. Naval architect during the last world war. Jacob Miller, another Rotarian is a native of Russia, but has been a naturalized citizen of the United States for many years and he was the only Rotarian present Tuesday night who is a member of the American Legion.

Joe Hines is a native of Philadelphia, he has been with the Rose Company for several years and he is also a very good Rotarian. Two Rotarians, Warden Woodard and Tom Leary said they were natives of Pamlico County, and Graydon Paul, native of Davis, had hopes during his youth of becoming a public speaker. Incidentally he is one of the best speakers of the Rotary Club. Majority of other Rotarians questioned were natives of Beaufort or immediate vicinity.

Beaufort Becomes A Miniature Reno

Beaufort was a miniature Reno this week insofar as divorce cases were concerned. Eight persons were granted divorces in Superior Court here this week up until the time we go to press today. The divorce cases follow: Grace Mae Pace vs F. H. Pace; Iva Miller vs Donald Miller; Eunice Harrell vs William Harrell; Victoria Rawls vs Evant Rawls; Lizzie Willis vs Allen Willis; Earl T. Congleton vs Nellie Congleton; Vernon Guthrie vs Franquette Guthrie and Rosa Culliford vs Edward Culliford. Most of the grounds for the divorces granted were on two years separation.

served a prison sentence for attacking Ralph Hassell (for apparently no reason at all) with a cue stick. On the night of the fire he slipped up behind and attacked Capt. Charles Hatsell.

In Superior Court here this week Johnny was tried. He made an effort to be his own lawyer, but without any success. After hearing the evidence in the case the jury found him guilty and he was sentenced by Judge C. Everett Thompson to serve from 5 to seven years in State prison. To See Court—Page 8

SALVATION ARMY ADVISORS TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army in New Bern on Monday, October 23, it was announced by Cadet Captain E. V. Farmer who conducts weekly services at the Beaufort outpost of the Army.

Judge Carl Cook Of Oregon Likes Central N. C. Coast

Judge Carl Cook, police court judge of Klamath Falls, Oregon, stopped by The Beaufort News office this week to meet the author of the Saturday Evening Post story, "Cape Stormy". The story which appeared in August 3rd edition attracted the attention of the Klamath Falls' police jurist and he was determined to visit this section. He had been down in the Marshallberg area visiting some of his wife's friends and relatives and was enroute to Wilmington when he stopped by on Monday.

Judge Cook is only one of many many people who have come to the North Carolina coast from distant places as result of Cape Stormy. Down at Ocracoke recently was a resident of Alaska, who traveled thousands of miles to visit the Outer Banks after reading the articles. There have been many other persons from the west coast, California, Washington and Oregon to say nothing of hundreds from other sections of the country who have visited the section as result of the publicity this section was given in the Post story.

Beaufort Precinct Leads With 552 Registered

Over 2,000 young men in Carteret County in the 21-to-36 age bracket thronged the polling places of the various precincts on Wednesday for draft registration. While all registrars had been notified that 11 o'clock today was the dead line for turning over the list of registrations to Bayard Taylor, Chairman of the Board of Elections here, two precincts were still not heard from at that time. These were Stella and Lone Pine.

Scenes around the registration places was one of efficient activity. There was no laughing or loud talking. Everyone took the matter seriously and while the largest groups arrived early in the day, there were many registering in the larger precincts throughout the day.

Beaufort precinct registered the largest number, a total of 552 as compared to three (2 resident and one non-resident) at Portsmouth, smallest precinct in County. Lunkens the new precinct registered 12. Morehead City, followed See Draft—Page 8

This Is New York

The glint of superiority in the eyes of the boys who shine shoes by electricity, when one of the old-fashioned shoe shiners passes their shops. . . The lady title of a shoe store on 57th St. "Clinique des Pieds Sensibles". . . The antisepic look of the town around six ayem, after the long evening has cleansed the city's face. . .
