TRUTH

Truth is the trial of itself,
And needs no other touch;
And purer than the purest gold,
Refine it never so much.

It is the life and light of love,
The sun that ever shineth,
And spirit of that special grace,
That faith and love defineth.

It is the warrant of the word,
That yields a scent so sweet,
As gives a power to faith to tread
All falsehood under feet.
—Ben Jonson.

They have been farming in the vicinity of Newport most of their lives, and are well liked by their many friends. Tuesday they showed their grateful appreciation of their friends by entertaining some 120 of them at a delicious dinner served in front of their country home on the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. Garner are active Baptists as are several of their children and several Baptist ministers were present at the affair. Most of them spoke on religion after the meal. The Garners have twenty five grandchildren, one who is married. The gathering also served as a sort of reunion between old friends and everyone enjoyed renewing old acquaintances and making new ones. While they were standing for a picture, someone asked Mr. Garner how peace was kept in the family, and who was the boss in his family, anyway. Mr. Garner remarked that peace had been kept by letting his wife be the boss, for the first fifty years, but now he was going to be the boss for the next fifty. The Garners received scores of valuable gifts from their children and friends. All in all, everyone enjoyed the affair.—(Photo by Leon Mann in Greensboro Daily News.
