Senator Larkin Of Trenton Was The Chief Speaker

STATE AND NATIONAL OFFICIALS PRESENT

An outline of the role in which young men of the nation are playing in the civic advancement and progress of communities and cities, was the theme of an address here on Monday night when The Junior Chamber of Com-merce of Beaufort was presented with its charter. Senator John Larkin, a young man of Trenton, who has played not only an important role in civic, but also the political advancement of North Carolina was the guest speaker. During the program, there were shorter talks by State and National officials of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

It was a banquet meeting, featuring a turkey dinner, prepared by the Episcopal women and served in their St. Paul's Parish House. Parents are urged to attend this meeting. It is most important for the about organization, their wives and friends, and invited guests were

Thanksgiving Day To Be Observed On November 20, 1941

Through proclama tion, Governor J. M. Broughton has designated Thursday, November 20, as Thanksgiving Day in North Carolina this year. That is next Thursday. While The Beaufort News will be published as usual, those who bring out the paper each week would appreciate the cooperation appreciate the cooperation of advertisers and those who wish to contribute news to send same in early in the week, so our employees can have at least a part holiday on Thanksgiving.

First Citizens Bank and Trust Company, all public offices, (including postoffice) and perhaps a few of the stores will observe a holiday on next Thursday. Superintendent J. G. Allen's office reported that Thanksgiving was a compulsory holiday in all State schools, and that it was optional with the principals of each school whether the following day (Friday) would be observed. Beaufort and Morehead City schools will observe Thursday and Friday, giving four holidays (including Saturday and Sunday) in a row, and it is likely that all other county schools will do likewise.

It has been reported that 1941 will be the last year that Thanksgiving will be observed other than the last Thursday in November.

PICTURED ABOVE is Miss Eunice Avon Goodwin, nativetive of Cedar Island, who is attached to the U. S. Navy Nursing Corps at the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla. Long a subscriber of The Beaufort News, she wrote, in a letter to The Editor this week:

"I wish to let you know how much I enjoy reading THE BEAU-FORT NEWS. My parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Goodwin, who live at Cedar Island, send me the paper every week and I read it from cover to cover. I have been living away from Carteret County for the past seven and one-half years and have kept up with what is happening back in my native county through The Beaufort News. I hope that I can always get a copy of The Beaufort News every week, as it is like a "long letter" from home. Sincerely, Eunice Goodwin."

CORE CREEK'S CHURCH TO BE CONSECRATED

Observance To Take Place On Sunday November 23

Core Creek's Community Church, Inc., one of two nonsectarian houses of worship in North Carolina, will be consecrated on Sunday, November 23, it was announced today by the Rev. W. Y. Stewart, pastor. The ser-vices will take place at 11 o'clock in the morning and the pubrine Corps in this time of national lic is extended an invitation to attend. At 7:30 o'clock in the evening, on the same date, there will be a musical program and sacred songfest. Core Creek Community Church, one of the most beautiful rural Go To Puerto Rico churches in eastern North Carolina was completed two years ago. It was given to the people of Core Creek by Col. F. S. Dickinson, of Rutherford, N. J. He gave the ing to information received here himself. He saw the need for a new building to replace the old Core Creek house of worship, and so he built one, which is not only one of the most beautiful, but also one of the most completely equipped church properties in the

One of the newest features of the church is the new Hammond Organ and the Maas Cathedra! Chimes. The organ and chimes were dedicated at impressive services on Sunday, November 2, with the Rev. Mr. Stewart in the pulpit, with Dr. Barnes of the Methodist Orphanage in Raleigh as a guest, with Vernon Jordan of Stephenson Music Company at the console of the organ and chimes, and with an auditorium crowded to capacity with worshipers and visi-

Washington, D. C. NAZI SABOTAGE

The man to watch in Europe to day-next to Hitler-is a suave and charming diplomat in Turkey named Franz von Papen. It is always a significant omen when Hitler sends Von Papen to a country. It means he has dire and potent intentions regarding that area.

It was Von Papen swho went to Austria as ambassador to soften it in preparation for the Nazi occupation. It was Von Papen who 26 years ago tried to do the same thing here. And now, with weather getting cold in Russia and Hitler running lower and lower on oil, a Nazi squeeze on Turkey becomes almost inevitable. To prepare for it, Ambassador Von Papen has been working overtime in Turkey.

Almost forgotten is Von Papen's attempt to soften and sabotage the United States during the last war. But his operations here indicate the lengths to which he may go in Turkey to bring that country into the Axis.

In 1915, Von Papen was German military attache in Washington when Count Johann von Bernstorff returned from England with a satchel containing $150,000,000 in German treasury notes.

Von Papen, then in Mexico City, hurried north, and immediately began organizing a network of
