GOD BLESS AMERICA

God bless America, land that I love;
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above.
From the mountains to the prairies,
To the ocean, white with foam,
God bless America, my home
sweet home.

—Irving Berlin.

CARD OF THANKS

We highly appreciate the many things that was given us in the pounding during my husband's illness in the hospital, and especially thank those who did the calling.

Mrs. Milton Lewis and Children.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Three nurses of the Carteret County Health Department gave members of the Women's Club a most interesting outline of the work they are doing in the county at the regular monthly meeting of the club held on Thursday, December 6, at the Inlet Inn. Miss Josephine Sykes spoke on maternity and child hygiene, explaining what the Department is trying to do in its clinics for pregnant women and infants and in its courses for midwives. Mrs. Anne Stout told of the methods used in the discovery and treatment of tuberculosis, emphasizing the necessity for early diagnosis and treatment of this disease. Miss Mary John Brown, a Federal nurse working in our county, spoke on the work she and her fellow health workers did during the maneuvers where she has recently been on duty.

The program was preceded by a business meeting. The club voted to sponsor a contest for the second year to encourage the decorating of homes and business houses at Christmas, and to take a needy family to provide for as has been our custom. The treasurer was instructed to pay $5.00 to the Girl Scouts to pay their charter fee whenever it is called for.

Christmas Baskets in Exquisite Crochet

WHEN planning your holiday parties and your Christmas giving, you'll find many uses for decorative crocheted baskets. They're very easy and inexpensive to make, and you can give your imagination full play in combining colors and adding your own decorative touches of holly, mistletoe, Christmas balls and bells. Here's a basket and bon-bon dish to hold nuts and candies on your holiday table, both made in mercerized pearl cotton. For an unusual gift idea, cover an ordinary tumbler with a crocheted "slip-cover" to make a handsome flower vase. Directions for crocheting these baskets may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying design #828.

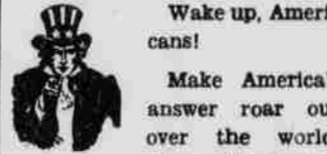

GRAHAM DUNCANS CONCLUDE SERIES OF PARTIES

On Friday and Saturday evenings of last week, Mr. and Mrs. Graham Duncan concluded a series of parties to which various groups of local people were invited.

At the afternoon parties only ladies were invited but in the evening husbands were also included as guests.

The Duncan home was most suggestive of the approaching Yuletide season with its artistic decorations of holly, yucca and burning red tapers. Partners found their places by attractive miniature gift packages with names inscribed on the packages. A three-course dinner, consisting of popcorn, a turkey plate with all the "fixings" and a dessert course of date roll with whipped cream was served. Plates were attractively garnished with sprays of mountain spruce with cones. High score awards, boxes of Christmas candies, were claimed by the Robert Safrits Jr., and the J. Y. Lassiters.
