CITY TO ENFORCE DIM-OUT TRAFFIC LAWS, PAUL SAYS

Chief Longest Warns Bicyclists Against Night Traffic

Mayor Graydon Paul announced Monday that the City of Beaufort will co-operate with the military and State authorities in enforcing the 15 mile-per-hour and parking-light restriction.

Concerning the use of bicycles, Mayor Paul added that it is against the law to ride a bicycle at night without lights "and the city officials wish to encourage people not to use them at all unless absolutely necessary."

Chief of Police W. R. Longest also issued a statement concerning law enforcement in co-ordination with the announcement that proclaimed Beaufort in the Eastern Military Area. Said Chief Longest: "By request of the military authorities, the Mayor and citizens, the ordinance applying to bicycle riding at day and night will be rigidly enforced."

City officials requested that operators of bicycles and automobiles use caution in parking their vehicles at night. Those who have garages or access to alleys were urged to use them rather than parking their vehicles without lights on the streets and sidewalks. This cautionary measure is not only for the safety of motorists but pedestrians as well.

City ordinances regulating bicycle traffic date back as far as 1908 before the advent of auto-joyriding and other motorized four-wheel traffic.

Back eight years after the turn of the century, the Board of City Commissioners passed an ordinance prohibiting the riding of bicycles on the sidewalk; also, prohibiting the riding of bicycles at night without lights. Later the See DIM-OUT Back Page

Mr. Givens has tried to give inspiration to youngsters by discussing the problems in a sane and sensible manner. Carteret County citizens are urged to read the story so they may be better qualified to discuss those problems with youngsters in their families or other graduates of their acquaintance.

AROUND TOWN

—With—
MACK CLARK

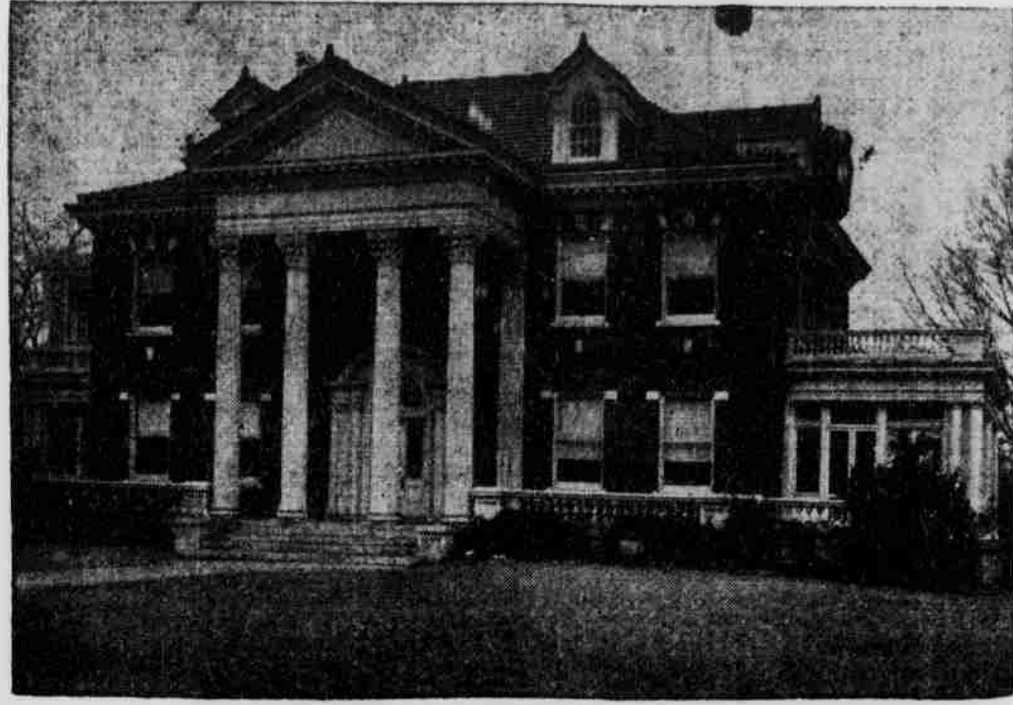

We looked back over the copy of this column since we started several weeks ago and discovered that for the most part we have either been running something down or harping on the war, directly or indirectly. So we asked ourselves, "Can't you find something good to say about the town and the people in it?" Herewith, we give you the answer. And we will try, for one week, not to bring in the war.

ITS TREES

The next time you come into town over the bridge drive very slowly and let your eyes take in the beauty of Ann street. That long avenue of tall, graceful elms lifting their branches heavenward to meet and form an arch and make of the street a continuous arbor of inviting shade and coolness.

Or, drive down Front street and really look at the shorn tops above the dwarfed and twisted trunks of the scrub-oaks. There may not be See AROUND TOWN Back

Eleven Precincts Out Of 27 Represented At Meeting Here Last Saturday

JUDGE HAMILTON SPEAKS TO GROUP

The Democratic convention last Saturday at the Carteret County Courthouse looked like the turn-out at a football game of which the score had already been announced in advance.

The lack of Republican opposition, however, did not retard the enthusiasm of the Democratic delegates from 11 out of the 27 precincts.

The election of officers for the Executive Committee of the Carteret County Democratic party held after the session named: "Irvin W. Davis of Davis, chairman; Mrs. Clayton Fulcher of Atlantic, vice-chairman; and James B. Long of Morehead City, secretary.

The delegates from the 11 precincts who attended the convention presided over by Irvin W. Davis of Davis, re-elected chairman Executive Committee Carteret County Democratic party, included: Beaufort, Atlantic, Davis, Sea Level, Morehead City, Marshallberg, Straits, Harkers Island, Newport, Broad Creek and Wildwood.

In spite of the fact that the court room was barely half-filled, Judge Luther Hamilton of Morehead City, principal speaker, stated that "there are five or six more here than I expected to attend."

Judge Hamilton's remarks were prefaced by Capt. John Nelson, North Carolina State Fisheries Commissioner of Morehead City, who stated: "This is the smallest Democratic convention I've ever been in."

Judge Hamilton did not blame the small attendance entirely to the lack of Republican opposition in the coming general election. He stated that the rationing of tires and gasoline was equally responsible for the lack of attendance.

The principal speaker continued by saying: "I would hate very much to see the Republican party See DEM. Back Page
