LOVE'S REUNION

On the line of the horizon, Is an island dark and fair, And in the quiet of the midnight Two lone hearts are winging there.

There where giant palms are waving Silhouetted in the light, Of the full moon which casts shadows, On the golden sand so bright.

There where tropic flowers bloom ing Sweetly scent the jungle air, And a sense of expectation, Makes the island seem aware.

Here, within this scene of beauty Love has made a dream come true; And two lost hearts share reunion In a secret rendezvous.

RICHMOND-THOMAS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. Thomas last week announced the engagement of their daughter, Sidney Manney Thomas, 2nd Lieut, U. S. A., to Leon Booth Richmond 1st Lieut, U.S.A., the marriage to take place at 6 p.m., on December 5, in the Chapel at Fort Bragg.

Plans for the wedding were made public today. It will, of course, be most appropriately a military wedding. The bride will wear the traditional white satin with veil, and Mrs. Joseph David Sebes, her matron of honor and only attendant, will wear pink net and lace with matching hat. Sam A. Thomas, father of the bride, will give her away.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Bayard Taylor, Miss Helen O'Bryan, and Miss Catherine O'Bryan, will go from Beaufort for the ceremony. No invitations will be issued but Mrs. Thomas wishes to invite, through this paper, any friends who can get down for the ceremony.

Miss Thomas has a host of friends here. She is a graduate of the Beaufort High School, of the Nursing School of James Walker Memorial Hospital, in Wilmington and for several years served as office nurse for Dr. W. L. Moore. She enlisted in the Army Nursing Corps last May with the rank of 2nd Lieutenant and has since been stationed at Fort Bragg.

Lieut. Richmond is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Richmond of Longmont, California. He has been stationed at Fort Bragg for some months. After the ceremony the couple will take a short trip to an unannounced destination. They will return on Monday and both officers will again take up their duties.

AUXILIARY ENTERTAINS SERVICE MOTHERS

DON DERO-STYRON

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19. Metropolitan Baptist Church was decorated with palms, white chrysanthemums and candelabra for the marriage of Miss Rosalie Styron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey Styron, to Mr. Charles Peter Don Dero, U. S. C. G., son of Mrs. Clara Lange Don Dero, which took place last night at 8 o'clock. The Rev. John Compton Ball officiated at the ceremony and Mr. Woodley Kalehoff, organist, and Mr. Frank Numbers, U. S. A., vocalist, rendered the nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin made with a fitted bodice and long, fitted sleeves trimmed with lace around the wrists. Her long veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of satin held by tiara of pearls and orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Janet Willard, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor, wearing a gown of rose taffeta made on princess lines with a full skirt and sleeves gathered below the elbows. Her Juliet cap of velvet matched the color of her dress and her bouquet was of chrysanthemums in two shades of pink.

Miss Dorothy Eaton Wells and Miss Frances Willard were the bridesmaids. Miss Wells wore a gown of orchid taffeta matching that of the matron of honor and Miss Willard's blue gown was also matching. Both carried bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Mr. Don Dero had Mr. Louis Kreiger as his best man and the ushers were Mr. Vale Stephen Canfield, Mr. Otis Murphy, Mr. Stewart Baker and Mr. James Calvin Smith.

The bride's mother wore a floor length dress of turquoise crepe studded with gold sequins. She wore a hat of matching shade trimmed with pink ostrich plume, pink gloves and gold slippers. Her corsage was a pink orchid tied with matching ribbon.

The groom's mother wore Iris purple with jeweled belt. Her hat was purple trimmed with velvet roses. Her slippers were of silver and her corsage was a purple orchid tied with purple ribbon.

The mother of the bridegroom assisted the bride's mother in receiving the guests at the reception in the bride's home which followed the ceremony.

A leading caterer had charge of the reception. A huge tiered wedding cake graced the center of the table flanked by candelabras. White pom poms and fern decorated the white cloth. Large vases of white chrysanthemums were placed in the dining and living rooms.

About one hundred guests enjoyed the delicious refreshments and stayed to see the bride and groom leave for their train to take them to points north. After a ten day's honeymoon Mrs. Don Dero will make her home with her parents while Mr. Don Dero returns to his duties in U. S. Coast Guard service. The couple received numerous gifts, among them U. S. Bonds.

The bride is formerly of Carteret county.

Out of town guests were Mrs. D. C. Willis, of Davis, aunt of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Willis, of Davis; Mrs. J. P. Smith and Mrs. Clarence Willard of Greenville.

For the going-away costume the bride wore an aqua crepe dress trimmed with gold sequins. Her accessories were brown and she wore a mink coat with a hat of matching fur.

The bride attended Eastern High School and is a graduate of Strayer Business College. She is now employed at the United States Civil Service Commission. Mr. Don Dero was graduated from Me
