

Backstage Scenes With 'Prisoners of War'

(1) German prisoners of war have their own band at Fort Dix, N. J. Here they play overture to play staged by other "P of Ws." (2) A scene from the play "Froh und Heltter" (Bright and Gay). Scenery and costumes are the work of the prisoners made from waste material during their spare time. (3) A scene in the kitchen of the prisoners' mess hall showing them preparing the evening meal for their fellow Nazis. These men appear anything but unhappy.

Republican Keynoter and Daughters

Gov. Earl Warren of California, who is to be keynote speaker of the Republican party national convention to be held in Chicago in June, and his two daughters, Nina (left) and Dorothy. The girls attest they are staunch supporters of their Dad as they give the victory sign to the camera.

"Well, judge," said the waiter, "Whut'll you-all have for breakfast? Has you ebber tried enny ob ough boiled eggs, sah?"
"Yes," responded the judge, "and I found them guilty."

Her Idea
"If you hadn't been so long getting ready we'd have caught that train," she grumbled.
"If you hadn't rushed me so," he countered, "we wouldn't have had hours to wait for the next!"

Extended in Front
Caller—Let me see. I know most of your folks, but I have never met your brother, George. Which side of the house does he look like?
The small boy in the family—The side with the bay window.

You've heard about the little chick who was naughty. After one of his pranks, his mother said to him, "If your father could see you now, he'd turn over in his grave."

Two More Ears
One morning some university students brought a donkey into the lecture room.
"Take your seats, gentlemen," said the professor. "I see there's one more of you this morning."

Navy Crewmen Find Antidote for Battle Strain

Once the business of conquering Roi island was completed, these crewmen of a United States navy aircraft carrier take the antidote for post-battle nervous strain by an invigorating swim in the warm waters of a lagoon in the Marshalls. After the heat of battle a dip is a soothing tonic for the nerves, the men declare.

Major Bong's Favorite Interests

Maj. Richard Bong, leading ace in the South Pacific, is posed here standing beside his favorite plane. On the nose of the fighter ship is another of his favorites—his sweetheart, Marge Vattendahl. Also pictured are 25 of the 27 flags of the Rising Sun brought down by the major, which completes the pictorial trilogy—as banging Japs is Bong's favorite pastime.

Pacific Leader

A candid closeup of picturesque Vice Admiral Mitscher who commanded the carrier task forces which accounted for lion's share of triumphs in 28 months of Pacific war. He was prominent in the gigantic assault on Palau.

Triple Headaches for the Axis

Top: Albert, Herbert and Gilbert Gierts, 19-year-old triplets from River Grove, Ill., who are studying to be ground observers at Farmingdale, N. Y. Below: This trio earned the sobriquet of "The Three Mucketeers" as a result of their scouting patrols on Bongainville. They proudly display the array of decorations they have garnered in the campaign.

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well

24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, uric acid and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.
