'We Lost Two Heavy Bombers'

Announcement of our losses in terms of planes brings heavy hearts in America, but in many cases it is not as serious as it sounds. For instance, these two bombers were written off as "lost." The one at the top, a Flying Fortress, made a crash landing in occupied Holland. The lower one, a Liberator, was shot down in Germany. Both were badly damaged, but, according to the German caption that accompanied the pictures, crews of both ships survived to become prisoners of war.

One Case That Was Easily Settled Out of Court

"HERE," said a man angrily to the railroad official, "I got a cinder in my eye from one of your engines, and it cost me $5 for a doctor to have it taken out and the eye dressed. What are you going to do about it?"

"Nothing, my dear sir, nothing," the official replied suavely, "We have no further use for the cinder and you are quite welcome to it. From a legal point of view, the cinder was not yours, and no doubt you could be proceeded against for removing our property. But you can rest assured, we will take no steps in the matter."
