

Yanks on Way to Invasion by Air and Sea

By air and sea the army and navy of the Allied countries join in invasion of French coast. The U. S. paratroopers reflect confidence as they fly over the English channel en route to the invasion of Europe. They were among the first assault troops to land on the continent. More than 4,000 vessels were employed in the initial landings. The landing craft, one of newest types, is shown loaded with American troops about to sail for somewhere in France during the first days of invasion.

Coastguardman 'Flagging' the Sarmi Invaders

Coastguardman B. W. Long, coxswain of Detroit, Mich., directs incoming LSTs to their beaching positions with semaphore signals from the shore at Sarmi, on the north shore of Dutch New Guinea. Capture of Wakde Island and Sarmi beachhead after stiff Japanese army opposition brought two more vital landing strips into American hands on their steady thrust westward toward China and the Philippines and that much nearer to Tokyo and the final victory over the Japs. Heavy naval bombardment blasted Sarmi.

First Nazi Prisoners Taken in France

These are among the first Nazi prisoners captured by the Canadian invasion troops on the soil of France, in the great Allied invasion. Returning ships to England from the first invasion wave carried a large number of Nazi prisoners, which were increased by later returning ships of American and British naval forces.

Honor American Dead at Anzio, Italy

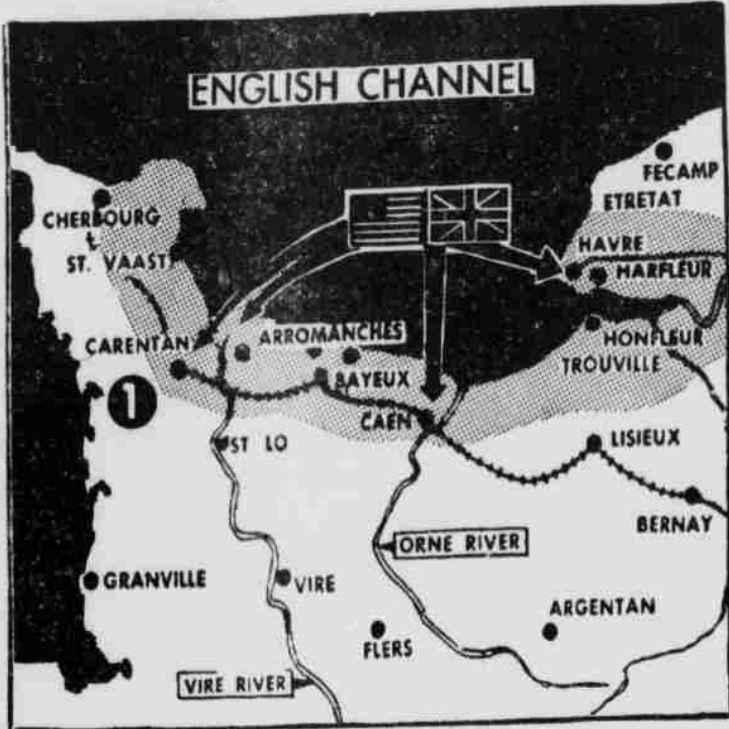

A firing squad sends a volley over the graves of soldiers in an American cemetery at Anzio, Italy, at a Memorial day ceremony. The salute followed an address by Fifth army commander Lieut. Gen. First Major Battle in Caen Region

The Caen region of Normandy invasion coast became the reported scene of the first battle of major proportions, with worst fighting just outside of Bayeux, north of Caen. After amphibious forces converged on St. Vaast, on Cherbourg peninsula, troops began straddling the road to Carentan (1) where paratroopers landed. Landing made at Arromanches, midway between Le Havre and Cherbourg, moved toward Bayeux.

War Chiefs Give Report on Invasion

The nation's military, naval and air chiefs leave the White House after reporting progress of the invasion to President Roosevelt. Left to right, front—Adm. Ernest J. King of the navy, Gen. George Marshall, army. In the background is Gen. H. H. Arnold. All details of the invasion had been worked out months ahead by these three leaders in cooperation with other Allied commanders, including Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander. First details were reported during the secret visit of General Eisenhower to Washington, and after months of planning, in London and Washington.

Bound for France

At That She Put Her First Aid Training to Good Use

A woman who had driven the other members of a first-aid class nearly frantic by her continual criticism of the whole idea turned up one day a complete convert. "Why," she said, "yesterday I was sitting at home when I heard a screeching of brakes and then a terrific crash. Two cars had up-turned right in front of our gate and four people were lying in the road. One woman had a deep cut in her arm, two men had broken legs, and another severe lacerations of the face. But, thank Heaven, I remembered exactly what you had taught me. I bent over and put my head between my knees—and didn't faint!"

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par
 It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.
 You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.
 There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.
