

Brazilian Troops in Italy

The first contingent of Brazilian troops is shown arriving in Italy to take its place beside the American, British and French Allies in the fight against the common foe. A Yank guard of honor was on the dockside at Naples when the Brazilians disembarked. Brazil has asked that her troops be used on every front. Brazilian air troops have received training in U. S. and war workers of America have turned out a large volume of supplies for the South American troops.

Boy Does Big Job

This youthful Italian lad, member of the underground and familiar with Livorno area, directed American troops away from mined areas.

American Troops Land at Harbors on Guam

Guam, first American possession to fall to the Japs, is back under control of the military authorities. After the U. S. naval task forces subjected Jap installations to intermittent bombardment, the marines and army troops established beachheads. The Yanks drove northward and southward on the west coast, captured airports destroyed during the bombardment, killed hundreds of Japanese, destroyed tanks and installations and took possession of all major objectives.

Yanks Take Prisoners and Mop Up St. Lo

A Yank infantryman dashes down the street to cover past a knocked-out U. S. tank destroyer (left), in the shell-riddled town of St. Lo, France, during the mopping up of that section. Right—German prisoners, some of them without shoes, are herded through a ruined street in St. Lo. The German communications center in Normandy was captured by American forces after some of the most savage fighting of the invasion.

A Pock-Marked Jap Seaplane

U. S. marines at this captured harbor in the Marianas islands examine the results of bombing and strafing of a Jap seaplane by American airmen. The four-motored "Mavis" was one of several caught on the ground at the Jap seaplane base at Tanapag harbor. The number shot from the air has been considerable, but the Jap loss of planes destroyed on the ground has been increasing.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action
Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposures and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling—feet constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.
Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!
