Three tables of friends played four progressions of bridge after which Miss Lena Duncan was awarded the prize for high score—a double deck of playing cards. Miss Lessie Arrington who held the only hand of the evening without a face card was consoled with an attractive book mark.

Mrs. Wheatly served a delicious fruit salad, hot cheese biscuit, sandwiches, and a fruit drink.

SNOWA-CREE

Miss Alma Douglas Cree, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cree, of Henderson, and Henry Linwood Snowa, Jr., son of Mrs. Carrie

Brooks Snowa and the late Henry Linwood Snowa, of Richmond, Va., were united in marriage in a ceremony of beautiful simplicity in the chapel of the First Baptist church in Richmond, at three o'clock, Saturday, August 26. The Rev. Hugh T. Busey, associate pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony.

The chapel was decorated with white gladioli and clematis arranged against banks of palm. Silver candelabra held burning white tapers. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Elizabeth Buxton, played a number of selections, and Mrs. Clarence E. Green of Henderson sang, "I love you Truly" and "Because."

The bride was attended by Mrs. Charles Bennett Deane, who was her sister's only attendant. She wore an ashen of roses chiffon gown with hat to match and carried a bouquet of summer flowers. See —SOCIETY—Page 10
