Their Days of Hunger Are Over

In This Corner—the Winners

Another term in the White House has been assured for Franklin D. Roosevelt, who together with his running mate, Harry S. Truman, right, received a total of 432 electoral votes, 17 less than the Democrats secured in 1940. Truman, senator from Missouri, gained nationwide fame as head of the committee investigating war expenditures. Dewey and his running mate secured a total of 99 electoral votes, unless late soldier votes change the picture, which is not considered likely by most political observers.

Too Late for Treasure Hunt

Insert shows Rudolph Wickel of Verona, N. J., as he left for Holyoke, Mass., to dig up a bonanza of $1,000, whose location was told him as a studio guest on a quiz program. Others heard the program, and Wickel arrived to find that Jose H. Roy and his 14-year-old brother-in-law, Henry Martell, already had the money, as shown above.

Posted on Election Returns

GIs of the American news services broadcast election returns to American soldiers all over the world from the New York headquarters of Yank magazine. The army news services shooting the result overseas with an estimated 25,000 words by cable and another 25,000 by radio to furnish the armed forces with early returns.

The Frinch for th

The Once Over

THE GI AND INDIAN SUMMER ("The GIs miss Indian summertime back home. There is nothing like it in Europe."—News Item.)

Indian summertime back home—
November in my town—
The maples and the chestnut trees

All red and gold and brown! . . .

Gee, what a peek at that would mean!—

To take a good, deep breath

To take a good, deep breath
Of smoke and flame at sunset time—
And get no thought of death!

The leaf piles burning in the street, Boy, what a grand old smell,

And how it used to linger as
The evening shadows fell!
Things burning in the autumn time
Yeh, burning everywhere
But not from tank or torch or gun;
And just peace in the air! . . .

The trees aglow all rich and whole—
Their tops a flaming red—
Not blasted into twisted shapes—
Not blackened, limp and dead!...
The corn stacked up like sentinels
Across the countryside—
Where no one's killed another man
And not a kid has died!

The leaves in mounds on my home

street
A-cracklin', and the rush
Of all the neighbors to put out
The fires in the brush. . .
The smell of chestnuts rossting and
The scent of newmown hay. . . .
You take the global battle grounds—
I'll take that scene today!

My white and yaller rabbit hound—
The rabbits just beyond. . . .
The squirrels on the garden wall
And wild ducks in the pond. . .
The sumac in one ruddy blaze
In every path and glen. . .
I'd like a look at it before
They send me in again!

The try-outs for the football team—
The school lot and the cries
Where all the fighting is in fun
And not a school chum dies! . . .
Indian summertime back home—
For one brief peek today
I'd make them Krauts pay extra for
The time I've been away!

HOUSING SHORTAGE (Scene: Any real estate office.)

I am looking for a place to live. Who isn't?

Have you anything on your list?
About how many rooms?
Five rooms will do.
We have nothing in five rooms.
Well, I might use seven or eight.
Sorry. Nothing in seven or eight.
In a pinch I could do with two or

We haven't had any small apartnents in months Then why the differentiation?

It's just office routine!

Can't you help me out some way?

I've got to have a roof over my head this winter.

head this winter.

We have a couple of places, but that's the trouble: the roofs are off.

Would you mind living in a barn?

Not if the horses and cows are willing to vacate.

One horse is pretty stubborn about it, but we can get all the others out. What's the rental? $100 a month. Isn't that high for a barn? Not when you consider the owner

Have you anything in a trailer?

Don't be silly; all the trailers are occupied by the capitalistic classes.

What's the situation in houses for we have quite a few houses but you'll have to act fast.

Why?

Because you can get a house today for only three times what it's worth. Wait a week and you may have to pay four times the value.

What have you to offer?
I've got a nice little five-room bungalow out in an exclusive swamp.
It has a portable bath, defective plumbing and all modern defects.
You can have it for $10,000 cash.

Isn't that high?
High! Why, it cost eight hundred dollars to build it!

How old is it?
Only six years. It's one of those
Federal Housing Loan bungalows.
Oh, the kind with no nails and with overcoat buttons for doorknobs!

This one has extra value. One of the doors isn't warped and part of the cellar is dry. You can have it for $12,500.

From the Front

Dear Hi—The French kids' early cry of "Vive les Americains!" has now been supplanted by "Cigaret pour Papa?"

It isn't quite true that the British drive on the left, the French on the right. Both our Allies drive in the middle just like everyone in the United States does.

The French gals have learned that there's at least one wolf in every foxhole.
