PEACE

...and on earth peace, good will towards men." Germany will celebrate its sixth war Christmas on Monday. We shall celebrate our third.

But when our children are taking their first peep at the Christmas tree Germany will be deeply immersed in Tuesday and in Tuesday's troubles.

Tuesday's troubles are troubles of the world, troubles of man. Christmas Day joys are joys of a philosophy so great that the man is a fool who attempts to qualify them.

...peace, good will They have been given us.

But we are as a man with a fertile field, with seed, with a hoe but so lazy that we lie in the sun and starve.

A CARD OF APPRECIATION

I wish to send by thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Blakely Wade of Lenoxville Highway in sacrificing their car and time by driving my baby to Wilmington Hospital Thursday night. Thanks to you and Addie Lou Gillikin.

I am sure I can always have you folks for good neighbors, as my baby Jimmy Walker is doing well and hope to have him home for Christmas.

Mrs. Charlotte Moore, Lenoxville Highway, Beaufort, N. C.

ANN ST. METHODIST HOST TO BISHOP

Ann Street Methodist Church will be host to a bishop of the church for the first time in five years the Rev. W. Stanley Potter, pastor, announced today when Bishop W. W. Peele of Richmond, Va., attends the Carteret County-Eastern North Carolina Conference "Crusade for Christ" on January 4 at 7:30 in the evening.

The Rev. R. W. Bradshaw, chairman of the Conference "Crusade for Christ" will be another guest as will Professor B. H. Childs, Ph. D., of Duke University.

With Warmest Greetings

and Best Wishes

for the

Christmas Season

and high hope that

the New Year

May usher in a lasting era of

Peace and Good Will

FIGHTS WITH BATTERED 135th

Pfc. Dannie Davis, a rifleman, is a member of the 135th Infantry Regiment which recently marked its 338th day in combat according to a dispatch to The News from the Fifth Army in Italy. The regiment is a unit of the Lt. Gen. Clark's "Red Bull" division of the Fifty Army.

Davis has been in the thick of things at Algiers, Hill 609, the Voltorno and Rapido Rivers, Cassino, the Anzio beachhead, Rome, Pisa and the Gothic line. Only 600 of the more than 3,000 Minnesota National Guardsmen who composed the original 135th Regiment are in the present organization. The regiment has lost 1,000 killed and several thousand wounded but Dannie Davis is going strong. The regiment has been overseas 1,000 days and has fought 388 days.

ABC BOARD INCREASES RATION FOR HOLIDAY

Liquor ration coupons No. 3 and 4 are valid for the purchase of one-fifth each or two pints each of domestic or Scotch whiskeys, according to an announcement by E. G. Rawlings, supervisor of the Carteret ABC Board.

This action has doubled the quantity of liquor that may be bought.
