R. F. D. No. 2.

Crowded out last week.

Esq. C. A. Wilson married Mr. S. W. Vaughn and Miss Florence Self last week; both of the young people were of No. 2. We hope them much joy.

Mr. Jas. A. Gilliam showed us the nicest quantity of honey we ever saw. He took from two stands of bees 104 pounds of very fine honey; the sample was fine and don't forget it.

Messrs. Edridge and Rouch, members of the Murray House Club are on the grounds this week hunting.

Several of our good patrons took advantage of the cold weather last week and killed some fine hogs. Mr. S. R. Story killed two that weighed 341 and 332, and Mr. G. E. Brooks killed two pigs which were only 8 months old weighing 229 and 206.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham, Evelyn and Albert visited relatives in Rockingham last week.

Messrs. J. H. and J. D. Wilkins spent last week at their saw mill near Camp Springs.

Mrs. G. R. T. Garrison is at home again after spending several days with her parents on No. 1.

Misses Brona Garrison and Agnes Albright were in town Saturday shopping.

Prohibition don't scare uncle Tom Morene, he is still making good locust beer.

Mrs. Fannie Hughes, who was quite sick last week, is much better. Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Walters visited in town Sunday.

Miss Georgia Garrison is at home again after visiting in Burlington last week.

Mr. L. Banks Williamson sets up again; it's a new girl.

R. F. D. No. 8.

the carrier on No. 8 is (or used to be)

Little John Rice accompanied his grandfather Matlock home from Durham. He will stay 'till Christmas. Glad to see little John.

Jack Harvey, of Richmond, Va., son of our colored friend Geo. Harvey is at home on a visit.

Mr. L. E. Gattis has purchased the Apple place on No. 8 near Isleys school house and moved in. We are glad to have Mr. Gattis and family as patrons.

Luther Ross has begun to get a smile on his face for Christmas. May it always last.

HARVEST SALE

OF HOUSE
FURNISHINGS

This is the opportunity of the year for prudent people to refurnish their homes with the utmost economy possible. We have anticipated your needs. The things that are necessary to make the home comfortable during the long winter months to come are all here in stock, and every article is the best of its kind.

Isley Quality has set a pace in the selling of House Furnishings which no other store in North Carolina has found it possible to equal. Our claims rest upon a basis of past achievements in the distribution of high-grade home-embellishments, which are too well known to dwell upon here. We have only to say that our preparations for this feature of the Harvest Sale have been made on a scale which assures the continuation of our leadership in the retailing of fine Artistic Furniture, Carpets, Rugs, Art Squares and Floor Coverings, Curtains, Draperies, Upholsteries and Mattresses.

On this page you will find special values in each of these lines. In every case the price is LOWER than our regular moderate figures for House Furnishings of thoroughly desirable quality. We invite comparison of our offerings with those of any other reliable store in the State. Read on and harvest your share of these substantial savings.
