

Some Big Ones.

Here are some big ones, going the rounds of the rural press. The Louisiana Press-Journal told of a potato which resembled a snake. Middletown Chips said it had been "laying" for some such story to beat it with the tale of three which had been brought to its office, one resembling an owl, another a glove and the third a bust. Then the Hale Hustler told this: Last fall while a Carroll county man was digging his potatoes he dug out of one hill an enormous spud in the shape of a hen and almost as large. In the same nest were a lot of other potatoes resembling eggs, and several resembling young chickens, some of which were so lifelike that you could tell the roosters from the pullets. The fellow who can beat this potato "laying" tale will have to put "lay" in the present tense and that's all there is to it. P. S.—We can prove this by Bert Donovan of this city. He bought the mother potato for a hen and had it on the scales before he knew the difference.

Blockaded.

Every Household in Burlington Should Know How to Resist It.

The back aches because the kidneys are blockaded. Help the kidneys with their work. The back will ache no more. Lots of proof that Doan's Kidney Pills do this. W. L. Pettigrew, Reidsville, N. C., says: "I heartily endorse Doan's Kidney Pills and advise anyone having kidney trouble to give them a trial. I suffered for several months from this complaint, the chief symptom being sharp pains across the small of my back. When I stooped or lifted, knife-like twinges would start through my body and as can be readily seen, it was hard for me to perform my work. The kidney secretions were quite irregular in action and there was a sediment in them. I became easily tired, was languid and nervous and in fact was generally run down. The contents of two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, effected a complete cure that has remained permanent up to the present time."

Plenty more proof like this from Burlington People Call at the Freeman Drug Co. and ask what their customers report. For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

In a "Dry" Town.

Bohemian Magazine. Two men from New York awoke one morning to find themselves in Savannah. Remembering that they were in a prohibition state, and having a thirst worthy of their surroundings, the pair started out on a still hunt for an eye opener.

They were not acquainted and were in a quandry as to where to start on their quest, and while they were debating the question mentally between them they were approached by a pleasant looking policeman, who wished them "good morning." "Say, Jim," said one of the pilgrims to the other, "this is an opening. Here's a good fellow; let's ask him." It was agreed, and the officer answered their inquiry by saying laconically, "Follow me." He walked them three blocks until they stood in front of the cathedral. Here he paused.

The travelers looked at each other in astonishment. "Surely my good man," said the first, "you do not mean to tell us that a blind tiger is being operated in a church?" "You see the church, do you?" asked the policeman solemnly. "Yes," assented the two. "Well, that is the only place in Savannah that you can't get it," said he.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The Publisher's Claims Sustained UNITED STATES COURT OF CLAIMS The Publishers of Webster's International Dictionary allege that it "is, in fact, the popular Unabridged thoroughly re-edited in every detail, and vastly enriched in every part, with the purpose of adapting it to meet the larger and severer requirements of another generation." We are of the opinion that this allegation most clearly and accurately describes the work that has been accomplished and the result that has been reached. The Dictionary, as it now stands, has been thoroughly re-edited in every detail, has been corrected in every part, and is admirably adapted to meet the larger and severer requirements of a generation which demands more of philological knowledge than any generation that the world has ever contained. It is perhaps needless to add that we refer to the dictionary in our judicial work as of the highest authority in accuracy of definition; and that in the future as in the past it will be the source of constant reference. CHARLES C. NOTT, Chief Justice, LAWRENCE WELDON, JOHN DAVIS, EDWARD C. FELLERS, CHARLES B. HOWRY, Judges.
