

SATISFACTION

It has always been our endeavor and always will be our endeavor to so conduct our store in every part of it, that each and every customer who comes here to trade will experience nothing but the utmost satisfaction. Satisfaction in the way our service is conducted. Satisfaction in the courtesy extended. Satisfaction in the quality and style of goods. If there is one thing above another that we exert ourselves over it is to secure from the manufacturers only such goods as we know will give our customers absolute satisfaction. It is on such lines, as these—on the motto of absolute satisfaction in every deal—that we solicit business.

Subscribers, when you fail to receive a copy of the Dispatch make complaint direct to the Dispatch office by letter, card, or in person. So many of you tell your mail carrier or the postmaster, and he forgets all about it, and still we are censured. We are more anxious for you to receive every copy than anyone else. Send all your kicks direct to us. The office is never closed.

Mr. Finley Williamson and John Patz, Jr., were the successful parties to the big stick of candy guessing contest at Mr. J. D. Payne's. They divided the reward because they each guessed 26½, when the correct weight was 36 lbs and 7 oz. The mouth of the Dispatch watered for that candy, because it was peppermint, and appetite runs that way, and we did not get even a taste for Christmas.

Death of C. F. Hornbuckle.

Mr. Charles Frank Hornbuckle died in his home on Logan street on Monday Dec. 28th, 1908, at the age of 34 years 4 months and 21 days, after lingering for some time with lung trouble. In his early life Mr. Hornbuckle connected himself with the M. E. church, but for some reason had let his membership lapse. On the day before his death he was received into the membership of Burlington Reformed church. His death was unexpected when it occurred. Several weeks before his death he gave every assurance of being ready to go. His remains were carried to Redsville and laid beside his mother on the 30th, the funeral service being conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. D. Andrew. He leaves three brothers and four sisters.
