Our Social Organization.

It is no news to a majority of the people of Burlington that for the past month that there has been a movement on foot to organize some kind of a social club for the young and married men of our town. The details of which have not yet been fully determined upon, but it means for our city a place where all respectable people can meet and spend a social hour. It means a place where the boarding young men of our town can take his visiting friends and be at home to the world, it means a place where banquets may be given, for the different organizations of our town, it means the removing of a great degree of private social games to public view. The temporary organization is as follows: E. S. W. Dameron, President; J. H. Vernon, Vice-President; Chas. Sharpe, treasurer and Clyde May, secretary. The organization has practically completed negotiations for the spacious hall on the third floor of the Hall & Troxler building.

Taft to Southern Girls.

Baltimore American. The President-elect surely has been having the time of his life in Georgia. His felicity results not alone from the fact that delegations from all over the state have been pouring in upon him and assuring him of their most distinguished consideration. He has won over, it seems, the seminary girls, and invitations to make addresses to sweet girl graduates that are yet in the bud are reaching him in such numbers that his secretary is keeping the typewriter warm in lining out the regrets that he cannot exchange sunny smiles with all the numerous bevy of college and high school girls scattered over Georgia.

The girls of the Tubman High School, of Augusta, being close to the home base, did prevail, however, upon the President-to-be to give them a talk, the subject of the talk being left entirely to Mr. Taft's selection. He didn't make a speech to the Augusta girls upon the use of the injunctive process by the courts, and he didn't give them any suggestions as to how the Dingley tariff schedules should be reformed. Early in the last presidential campaign in a post-pandial speech in New York, Mr. Taft declared that when in Ireland some years ago, he had kissed the Blarney Stone. The Tubman High School girl have no longer any reason to doubt, if they ever did doubt, that he really did get into touch with the magic rock; for he dealt out compliments with the ease and gallantry of a carpet knight of long training.

He touched upon the question of giving women the voting privilege but lightly, assuring the girls, however, that when women really want the suffrage they will get it, on the general principle that they always do get what they want. As to matrimony he suggested that it should not be regarded as the only future to which a young woman should look. He was of the opinion that no Georgia girl need pass into advanced spinsterhood unless she wanted to; but he advised that no woman should marry from the motive of escaping the old maid stage of existence. He assured them that women may make for themselves successful and useful careers.

The President-elect mingled fine compliments and sound advice in a way that will doubtless linger long in the memories of those Georgia girls. He said that he would be handed down in the traditions to the children and children.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. CHENEY & CO. Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Convulsions, or Spasms and St. Vitus' Dance are Nervous Diseases. Most cases can be cured by strengthening and building up the nervous system. To do this a-nerve medicine is needed. We can give you names of many who have been cured through its use. Write for advice.

"My son John had epilepsy for years, and after having him treated by specialists for over 2 years he still continued to have spells. I had almost given up in despair, but knowing the virtue of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for sick headache, I concluded to try the Nervine. During June, 1906, I gave him a teaspoonful three times a day, then in July I gave it as directed, and I could see that he was improving, and he has not had a spell since August 28, 1906, and has taken no medicine since Jan.-07. I am writing the case just as it is, hoping it will induce others to try it. Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Nervine, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind
