R. F. D. No. 2.

Mrs. R. T. Kenodle spent several days visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Walker on No. 3 last week.

Messrs. B. L. and Ernest Simpson of No. 8, are doing a nice job painting for Mr. A. G. Garrison, he is having his residence repainted inside and out, and everything is looking good around there.

Messrs. J. H. and J. D. Wilkins are spending the week near Camp Springs at their saw mill.

Messrs. Dr. Walters, J. M. Wallace, J. Shaw, J. W. Gilliam and J.

A. Gilliam, of No. 2, have their phone line about completed and will soon be ready to say "Hello".

Dr. W. S. Long was visiting the schools on No. 2 last week and held a meeting with the teachers of the community and the people, looking forward to the establishment of a High School near Union Ridge. The prospects seem to be good for the school.

Mr. B. L. Simpson says he is compelled, in self defense, to either move his mail box or his poultry fence. The mail box is just in front of the poultry yard and it seems that brother Simpson's barred Rocks become frightened and fly out of the pen just about the time brother Hayes passes that way. We told brother Simpson it was because brother Hayes was such a good looking man, and they were not accustomed to handsome people passing that way, he said that might be the cause, but he had never known them to get scared but once before, and that was when a showman passed that way with a monkey on exhibition.

Several of our patrons were on the tobacco market last week and were well pleased with prices.

Messrs. J. A. Gilliam and E. L. Hughes made some splendid sales at Burlington Saturday.

Messrs. Knapp and Eldridge, of the Murray House Club, are expected to arrive this week for a ten days outing.

Miss Etta Pettigrew, of Watson No. 1 is visiting Mrs. G. L. Fonville, on No. 2.

In an explosion in a mine at Johnstown, Penn., twenty-five men were killed including the Superintendent.

Again a good news item comes to our desk from the Oakdale and Cross Road section, but no name is signed to it, hence it goes to the waste basket. We cannot and we will not publish such communications unless they are signed by some one.
