

SATISFACTION

It has always been our endeavor and always will be our endeavor to so conduct our store in every part of it, that each and every customer who comes here to trade will experience nothing but the utmost satisfaction. Satisfaction in the way our service is conducted. Satisfaction in the courtesy extended. Satisfaction in the quality and style of goods. If there is one thing above another that we exert ourselves over it is to secure from the manufacturers only such goods as we know will give our customers absolute satisfaction. It is on such lines, as these—on the motto of absolute satisfaction in every deal—that we solicit business.

WANTED! Teams and laborers to work on street railway. Apply at room 8, Piedmont Building.

Mrs. L. A. Crawford, of Mebane, arrived yesterday to spend the week with Mr. Claud Cates and family.

Miss Ida Boone left yesterday evening for Raleigh, where she expects to make her home in the future.

Dr. R. T. Vann, President of the Baptist University, of Raleigh, will preach at the Baptist church here Sunday.

Prof. J. A. W. Thompson, of Thompson's Township, was in town Monday shaking hands with his many friends.

Mr. H. D. Leigh and family, who moved here last fall and engaged in the market business, left yesterday for Chapel Hill.

Mr. A. Cheek was elected as outside-sentinel at the Junior meeting at Elizabeth City, which was in session last week.

Mr. Cecil Neece is with his father in Guilford county this week cutting some lumber. His sister, Miss Bertha, is staying with Mrs. Neece.

J. W. Davis, son of W. Floyd Davis, of Caswell county, R. F. D. No. 2, was in town Monday and purchased a nice top buggy from the Coble Bradshaw Co.

D. R. Sheppard, a prosperous farmer from the Brick church section, was in town Monday. He is a staunch friend of Burlington and we are always glad to see him.

J. M. Saunders, a prominent business man of Elon College, passed through town Monday on his way to Graham court. He made the heart of the editor glad by subscribing for the Dispatch.

If you'd be dubbed a handsome girl, And win a handsome Knight, The secret here I do impart, Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea at night, T. H. Stroud.

Miss Bettie Morrow went to Greensboro last Saturday.

Miss Nan Rogers spent Sunday at Gibsonville, visiting friends.

D. S. Gallagher, of Wilmington, spent Sunday week in the city. Just visiting friends of course.

Mr. Riley Summers, one of the farmers in Boonstation township, was in town Monday.

The Alamance Insurance and Real Estate Co. can supply your needs, see their ad in this issue.

Miss Bettie Snipes and Miss Alice Kime, of Mebane spent Sunday Monday in the city, returning Tuesday.

The Holt & May Hardware Co., who are doing one of the largest hardware business in the State have an ad in this issue.

M. B. Smith has moved his entire stock of furniture to the new Isley building where he will be glad to serve you. See his ad in this issue.

W. I. Braxton, of Newlins township, Snowcamp R. F. D. No. 1, was in town Monday and made a pleasant call at the Dispatch office.

A spring tonic that makes rich, red blood. Brings strength, health and happiness to the whole family. Nothing equals Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea as a spring regulator 35c. T. H. Stroud.

Mr. L. B. Whitted left Monday night for northern cities, where he will spend a week or ten days buying stock for his spring and summer trade. We hope Mr. Whitted a pleasant as well as profitable trip.

The repair work on the front of Mr. B. Goodman's dry goods store is moving along rapidly, and in a few days will be completed. This will give Mr. Goodman's store a beautiful appearance on out side and inside.

Don't wait until your blood is impoverished, and you are sick and ailing, but take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea now. It will positively drive out all winter impurities. 35c. Tea or Tablets, T. H. Stroud.

Mr. Walter L. Cates, who is the traveling representative for the Holt-Cates Co., returned last Saturday from a trip to the eastern part of the State and reports that business is much better than a few months ago.

Mr. J. A. Isley and Miss Alice Boland, milliner for Isley Bros. & Co., left Monday night for Baltimore, Chicago, Philadelphia and other northern cities, where they went to buy goods for the spring and summer trade.

Capt. Jack Wiggins, one of the most popular "knights of the grip" on the road was in Burlington last week, and gave us a pleasant call. The Capt. is as jovial as ever, and we believe grows younger and better looking as years pass by.

We are extremely sorry to announce at the hour going to press that the condition of Mrs. L. S. Holt, Jr., who has been critically ill for several days, is no better, and while strong hopes are entertained for her recovery, still she is a very sick woman. It is thought that the next few hours will bring a change. Mrs. Holt has suffered untold agonies, and had she not been a brave hearted woman with indomitable pluck she no doubt would have succumbed ere this. The entire community is praying for her speedy recovery.

We are glad to see Uncle Eli Isley back at his old job, carrying the mail for some of the East Burlington people. Uncle Eli is 87 years old and has carried the mail for a number of years. Here's hoping that he may be able to continue for many years to come.

Dr. R. A. Freeman, Messrs. A. Cheek and J. C. Shepherd spent last week at Elizabeth City attending a State meeting of the J. O. U. A. M. which met at that place. They report a nice time, stating that they received very courteous treatment by the Elizabeth people. The next annual meeting will be held at Greensboro.

The Foster Shoe Co. have recently placed a new awning in front of their store which is operated by a cord, drawing the frame, cover and all so that it is completely out of the way. This is the first of the kind in our town, but we learn that a number of our other merchants are contemplating using one on this same plan.
