

R. F. D. No. 8.

Mrs. D. M. Barker spent last Sunday and Monday in Burlington visiting her sister Mrs. Garrison. Mrs. Garrison accompanied her home and stayed until Thursday, we hope she enjoyed her visit.

J. M. Murray visited his wife who is in the hospital at Greensboro last Friday. We are glad to hear that Mrs. Murray is getting on well and expects to be able to come home the last of this week.

We sympathize with our worthy colored friend Bruce Fancette, in the loss of his oldest daughter who died Sunday night. Bruce is a hard working colored man and is a credit to his race.

Ben Simpson came home from South Carolina last Saturday where he is at work, and goes back Tuesday. Ben is a good fellow but can't stay at home long. We wish him success in his work.

Ernest Ross went to Burlington one day last week and treated himself to one of those nice Holt and May buggies. Now Ernest don't you go to hauling hens like our young friend Wilbur Gwyn of Altamahaw did.

Clyde Isly says that John Conklin and this writer are worthy and eligible to membership in the Ananias Club. A "hit dog hollers" so said Samuel Jones.

Jim Pearson—well he's just gone crazy—it's a fine boy. Jim has just quit work all together.

Don't forget the box party and entertainment at Maywood school house Saturday night 13. Base ball at 2 p. m., J. B. Robertson's address at 5 p. m. The flag raising by the Juniors immediately after the address, then selling the boxes etc. Come early and enjoy the whole afternoon. Come and help a good cause, as stated last week the proceeds go for the benefit of the school.

J. D. Simpson our clever painter who is at work in Greensboro, spent Sunday at home, returning to his work Monday.

Having a few hours to spare each day after returning from our trip, I have decided to do some sewing machine repairing and adjusting, so if your machine needs "physicking" call on us. Have had 25 years experience in that line.

After much consideration and brain work, we have decided that the No. 7 items are the most interesting. All the items appearing last week were worthy of mention, and it was very hard to decide. We enjoyed reading them all and only wish they would do that well every week.

R. F. D. No. 3.

Messrs. W. H. Trolinger and H. C. Kirkpatrick were on important business in town Sunday.

Mrs. Esther Boswell Lea is spending a few days at Mr. L. H. Leas. We are sorry to learn that the condition of Mrs. Lea does not improve much.

Mrs. J. C. Hurdle is spending a few days in Burlington.

Our 'phone people went over Monday to complete the line between Haw River and Burlington. This will give a line from W. E. Vincents via Haw River, to Burlington.

The 'phones have come and they expect to "hello" in a few days.

Several of our young people attended the "Old Maids" convention at Squires school house last week, they report a pleasant time. We understand that the proceeds were ten dollars and that a like amount will be given by the county and also the state for the purpose of establishing a library at that place.

Mrs. W. S. King visited in Burlington last week.

While we did not compete for the prize offered in the last issue of the Dispatch, we understand that it will not debar us from voting, so we cast our vote for No. 8.

R. F. D. No. 5.

We are glad to note that our friend A. S. Dickey is getting along nicely and will be at home soon.

L. M. Johnson is still on the sick list, don't seem to get along so well we are sorry to say.

We are sorry to lose Walter Aldridge, he having to return home on account of the death of a brother.

R. G. Aldridge is at Winterville hospital for treatment and is doing fine, hope he will soon be entirely well.

After carefully considering and much study, we cast our vote for No. 8 as winner in the carriers contest last week.

R. F. D. No. 1.

We now come to the place where we wish we could be excused, that is, in voting to decide our contest. At first reading we thought No. 6 would have no opposition, but after receiving instructions from higher authority, that route notes only would count in this contest, then we went to pondering over it, and at last we have made up our mind to vote for No. 7.

We are glad to know that the little son of E. Patterson, who has been critically ill for several days is improving some.

Jesse Bradshaw, of near Swepsonville, spent Sunday on our route. Friendship and Climax crossed bats at Friendship Friday. Friendship took the victory.

Sherman Vestal and wife of Graham, spent Sunday with Mrs. G. W. Patterson.

Rev. Burgess filled his appointment at Friendship Sunday. A large crowd was out to hear his splendid sermon.

Russell Garvin and Miss Page of Burlington spent Sunday on No. 1 with friends.

A crowd of young people spent Sunday afternoon at Durggin's mill pond. They had a great time boat riding.

Miss Lola Albright, who is book-keeping at Swepsonville, spent Sunday at her home on No. 7.

J. F. Homewood made a business trip to Snow Camp Monday.

James Coble made a business trip to Greensboro last week.

H. C. Anthony of No. 9, was a visitor on No. 1 Sunday. Henry knows what route has the pretty girls.

Mr. Hobson may cry "war, war" but there is no war.

R. F. D. No. 9.

Miss Lelia Welch has been in Greensboro for some time going to school. She and her aunt, Mrs. E. M. Caldwell, have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Welch.

Mr. L. G. Freeland can take the prize on a small cow, she will not weigh more than 125 lbs. and her calf is about one-third as large as herself.

Miss Jennie Watkins, of Raleigh, has been visiting friends and relatives at Winston-Salem and on her return home she stopped over with sister, Mrs. J. H. Trolinger, for a few days.

Mrs. Barker and daughter spent last Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Julia Smith.

We feel indebted to Mr. W. T. Jeffreys for the good job he did on the road near his home. Let the fever spread.

We want to thank K. S. Freeland for the nice bucket of kraut which he gave us last week. It was fine.

Miss Ella Murray spent Saturday night with Miss Fannie Smith.

Miss Ella Andrews closed her school near the Fair Ground last week. Miss Ella has done well this term. I think all of the children of school age was in school this term. She managed her school in her good, kind way which won for her friendship with the little ones that will not be forgotten.

J. F. Blaylock has moved his family to Graham. We regret very much to lose our friend for he and his brother, W. A. Blaylock, were very kind to us.

Miss Minnie Montgomery closed her school last week at Holt's School House. She has had the best school they have had for sometime. We can say for Miss Minnie while on No. 9 we always found her good and kind, we regret very much to lose her.

W. A. Blaylock and Miss Pearl Long were among the social gathering at the home of Mr. Geo. King on No. 5 last Saturday night.

S. C. Spoon went to Greensboro last Saturday on business.

Misses Minnie Trolinger and Inez Albright, of Graham, spent Sunday with Miss Virgie Trolinger.

J. C. Faucette and family, of Haw River No. 1, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Trolinger. Misses Esper Ballard and Lillie Browning spent Sunday with Misses Martha and Pearl Smith.

We are glad to see W. H. Conklin out again after being confined to the house for 30 days.

Martha and Pearl Smith was in town shopping Saturday.

Miss Murray spent Sunday in Burlington visiting friends.

All readers of the Dispatch understands that this week's issue decides the contest for the one having the best line of items in last week's issue. I will cast my vote as winner for Miss Alice Fowler and will say in connection to this that she has another prize won in town if she will just say yes. He is waiting. Subscribe for the Dispatch and be up-to-date.

Senator Hemenway has been made a "quick" member of the Ananias Club.
