Danbury Reporter.

Miss Louise Pepper was awarded the Salem Female Academy scholarship offered by the Winston-Grad Schools, from which institution she was graduated recently.

Mr. R. H. Mitchell, a good citizen of Madison Route 3, was a visitor at the Reporter office Thursday. Mr. Mitchell told us that some of the farmers in his section were giving their wheat crops at the price of $1.10 per bushel. If there isn't a big fall off in wheat they will lose considerably. The market is something like $1.50 now.

Greensboro Patriot

Bodenhamer, white, who will serve a five years term for larceny of $2,500 from the Bank & Trust Co., at Kernersville, and Thomas Ellis, white, who goes to the department of the insane.

Asheboro Courier

John Humble, of Asheboro, suffered a severe cut on his wrist Friday while sawing logs. In some way his hand was caught under the saw, cutting the artery and muscles of his wrist. It is not thought the wound is serious.

Several farmers in this county, we are informed, are growing alfalfa in New Market township and in Trinity township more farmers than one have nice fields of alfalfa clover. It is to be hoped that every farmer who is growing alfalfa will get his neighbors interested. There cannot be too much of this grown. Two crops a year can be grown.

Yanceyville Sentinel

Irvin Slade, a son of John W. Slade, and one of Dan River's promising young men, left Sunday for Louisville, Ky., where he expects to enter business. The loss of such young men is yearly making Caswell poorer.

A. C. Lindsay has announced that he will have his annual barbecue and picnic in Yanceyville on the 11th, of June, at the Academy grove. Preparation will be made for a large crowd, and the meats will be cooked and served well. Good games of ball will be arranged for the day, and will be announced later.

Elkin Times

Thomas Wood of Traphill and Mrs. Rebecca Brown who lives in the edge of Alleghany county were married on Monday of last week. Mr. Wood is perhaps 75 years old while Mrs. Brown is very little younger. They met on Saturday, she furnished him a horse and he went to Sparta for his license Monday evening where they were married at 5 o'clock.

Mr. N. A. Melton of Zephy was in town a short time Monday. He will be connected with Fruitland Institute, a high grade preparatory school in Henderson county. He expects to do some pastoral work also in that section of country. Mr. Melton is a worthy young man and well fitted for the work in which he proposes to engage, having graduated from Wake Forest College at the recent commencement taking high rank.

Raleigh Caucasian.

Caswell County Democrat.

Rev. Mr. Wood of Pittsylvania County Va, died at the home of his son-in-law Mr. D. L. Edmunds in town, at noon Saturday after a brief illness. The deceased was here visiting at the time of his death, being eight-two years of age, and was a minister of the gospel of the Baptist denomination, wielding much influence and strength towards all that was good throughout his native section. An interest family of children and grand children survive him Mrs. D. L. Edmunds of our town being a daughter, and a son who is a minister at Huntington W. Va. The remains were carried near Chatham Va. for burial.

Chapel Hill News.

Master Bruce, son of Mr. S. J. McCauley, came near drowning in Purefoy mill pond Sunday. He and several other small boys went in bathing and Bruce ventured too far out, getting into deep water and would have drowned but for the timely assistance rendered him by Mr. Numa Riggsbee, who saw the perilous condition of the boy and swam in with clothes on and saved him. It was a very narrow escape from drowning.

Warren Record.

We are glad to see Rev. J. M. Daniel, pastor in charge at Duke, N. C., on our streets. Mr. Daniel is the nephew of the late Robt. Gilliland, as true and brave a Confederate soldier as ever "fought for Dixie"

A severe wind and hail storm swept over Littleton and surrounding territory Tuesday evening. Hail stones said to be as large as hen eggs fell and the crop in that section much damaged.

Reldsville Review.

The wheat crop in this section will be ready for harvesting within a week or ten days, and it looks like a very fine crop is to be harvested. Mr. A. L. Palma, one of the most successful wheat growers, says that his crop this year is the best he has ever made.

Sunday evening Monroe Dehart shot and instantly killed Charles P. McAlexander at the home of the former, near Charity, Patrick county, Va. The men were relatives and neighbors, apparently on friendly terms. No one saw the shooting. McAlexander died in about thirty minutes without recovering consciousness. Dehart immediately left. It is said that he was drinking.

Catawba County News.

One of our citizens near town purchased a pig Saturday and about nine o'clock heard a fearful squeal, which seemed to come from the direction of the pig pen. He hastily put on his shoes and went out to investigate and found his pig safe asleep. The cause of the squeal was found to be the new whistle on the Southern, as it steamed into Newton. In the eyes of some, this false alarm would be sufficient cause for a damage suit.

Forsyth News.

The meetings at the Friends church this week is well attended, and some interest manifested. Mrs. Mildred Angle is a very able speaker. Meetings will continue for several days.

Pain Weakens

Headache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or pains of any nature weaken the system—they are a strain upon the nerves. Almost instant relief can be obtained by taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and without any bad after-effects. Take one on first indication of an attack—it will ward it off. They are a pleasant little tablet, sold by druggists everywhere, 25 doses 25 cents; never sold in bulk.

"I was subject to constant headaches for a period of four years. At times I was almost unfit for the work in which am engaged, that of station agent. Through the advice of a friend I tried Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills, and the result has been that I have entirely eradicated my system of those continuous headaches that follow a continual mental strain. They have done for me all that is claimed for them."
O. L. RUSSELL,
Agt. C. & N. W. Ry., Seattle, Wash., Ia.
"I have used Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills for a year now for neuralgia and find there is nothing like them. They surely have been a blessing to me."
