Altamahaw No. 1, Items.

Our friend Berry Faucette is getting better after being sick for about a month.

Mrs. Eva Matkins is very sick with fever.

Miss Lula Smith is suffering from a sore and swollen face.

George Matkins is all smiles, its a girl.

Master Paul Jordan of Gibsonville, who has been visiting his uncle J. M. Jordan for about a month returned home yesterday.

A young man of this neighborhood went to get his girl to carry her to Fair view yesterday, and he went back without her. Ask John Jordan about it.

Alex. Walker visited J. W. Faucette a short while Sunday morning.

Fruit and watermelons has about played out with the farmers, but they are feasting off peas and roasting ears.

Farmers are very busy now pulling fodder, curing tobacco and harvesting wheat land.

This scribe attended the meeting at Fair View Sunday. There was preaching at 11 o'clock by Brother Dave Braswell. His nephew and C. C. Peele are to assist him in his Meeting. May God's blessings rest upon the meeting.

R. F. D. No. 7.

Seburn Whitsett of Charlotte spent Saturday and Sunday visiting his uncle Henry C Whitsett on No. 7.

Mrs. Baxton Holt, who was thrown from a buggy several days ago, is recovering from her injuries we are glad to learn.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Thompson are rejoicing over the arrival of a new boy at their home.

Our clever merchant, J. P. Sharpe at Bellemont, was wearing a 5lb. sugar sack for a glove to-day on account of hurting his hand while unloading some lumber last Saturday.

He has got in a hurry to finish the house we told you he had commenced last March and which he expected to have completed and rented by the 4th of July but failed to do so. He ought to get it done by Christmas any way.

We thank Miss Birdie Holt for some nice scuppernong grapes, the first we have had this season.

We expected "winship" Zeke and Harry at our picnic but they failed to show up and Harry says the old woman would not cook the rations for the basket so he decided not to come empty handed and go home with an empty stomach.

Elbert Nicholson went to Greensboro Saturday on business, returning home Sunday.

A. A. Sharpe of No. 7, called Sunday morning on No. 1, and carried one of his girls to Swepsonville and it seems that they became so absorbed in a conversation or other wise as to miss their way home for they were in Graham Sunday evening on the return trip. Dot had better look about.

Miss Martha Nicholson returned home Sunday from Gibsonville where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

Sidney Russell went to Gibsonville Saturday to visit his sister, Mrs. Cook, returning home Sunday.

Esq John Dixon and wife were in Burlington Monday shopping.

We thank C. F. Rauhut for a half gallon of nice scuppernongs today (Tuesday.)

R. F. D. No. 3.

Miss Iona Lewis is at home again after an extended visit in Guilford County, Glad to have her back again.

Mrs. Julia Gilliam and daughter Mr. and Mrs. John Somers all of Altamahaw No 2 visited at W. A. Lewis Sunday.

Miss Maude Walker of Watson No. 1, visited her cousin Miss Bertha Barker last week.

Misses Ludie and Esther Lewis attended services at Fairview Sunday.

Mrs. Feilda Hurdle of Union Ridge No. 1 visited at R. A. Matlocks Sunday.

We hear that our friend Zan Barinwell of Mabrne No 3 has gone crazy and they had to lock him up in the corn crib. They say he has the finest girl baby in "Texas." Hope Zan will recover. We extend our congratulation and wish the little gal all kinds of good luck. We hope she wont be as ugly as her daddy but if she grows up to be as clever she will be all right.

We have found out why none of the Ross but Andy and family were at the carriers picnic. It took all the rest of them to hold big Ed. It is a fine boy. Ed says he will be big enough to vote by the next election.

We thank Mrs. R. L. Foster for nice corn Jeffery Isley for a gallon of nice new molasses Mrs. G. L. Simpson for grapes and J. C. McCulloch for a nice melon (at last.)

Every body busy and not much news this time.

R. F. D. No. 1.

Messrs. Bulla and Spencer of Randolph county, who purchased the timber on J. A. Hoskins three places are about ready to begin sawing.

E. M. and A. E. Cheek and J. R. Isley, spent Saturday night and Sunday visiting friends and relatives in the southern part of the county.

Miss Ethel Councilman and Miss Blanche Kinney spent Saturday and Sunday in Durham visiting relatives.

E. F. Waddell, of Alamance, and Miss Mary Gibson of near Mebane, were married last Wednesday Sept. 8th, at 11 o'clock. Mr. Waddell is one of the best young men of our county and is liked by all that know him, while his bride is an excellent young lady. Dr. W. B. Mebane spoke the words that tied them together. We wish to join their many friends in wishing them a long and happy life.

Miss Elizabeth Homewood returned home Sunday from an extended visit no th.

Miss Minnie Montgomery left Sunday for Gibsonville where she will teach in the graded school this year.

R. F. D. No. 9.

Mrs. J. H. Trolinger is still confined to her room.

Mr. John Parks has about completed a new addition to his residence which is a nice arrangement.

Mr. H. C. Anthony is getting ready to begin cutting lumber for his new barn.

Miss Vergia Troinger entertained her friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Montgomery's last Friday evening. All had a general good time.

Last Saturday night about ten o'clock some unknown person fired two shots at Mr. J. M. Trolingers house. Mr. Trolinger had retired but some of the family was up and were sitting on the porch when the first shot was fired, they went in and told Mr. Trolinger that some one had shot at the house, Mr. Trolinger got up and came to the front door and just as he opened it the second shot came with several shots taking effect. It is a shock to the family as Mr Trolinger said if he had an enemy he did not know it. While the wounds are very painful they are not considered dangerous.

Mr. J. M. Conklin has about completed his house, it is a nice job and well planned and will make him a nice cottage.

MORGAN WAREHOUSE
Burlington, N. C.

The Burlington tobacco market is now ready for tobacco with plenty of buyers, with large orders, who stand ready to make our market one of the best in the whole land. We will not be second to any market. Morgan the Farmers Friend and untiring Hustler will put forth his best efforts to secure you the very highest prices for your tobacco when you sell at Morgan's Warehouse. My idea as to price is, Primings and Common leaf will bring a better price early then it will later, say from the middle of September to the first of November. Mr. Jno. and Will Leath will be with me both having experience in the warehouse business. These gentlemen are untiring workers and stand ready to lend their valuable assistance in getting you the best prices for your tobacco. Now Friends we want your patronage on the grounds that I propose to get you the very best prices for your tobacco that can be gotten on this market or any other. Hoping to sell your first load, I Am Your Friend,

E. L. MORGAN

Mrs. S. A. Roberson of Oaks is visiting her daughter Mrs. John Cates, we wish for her a happy sojourn in our midst.

Tobacco Report.

While Farmers are selling a limited amount of tobacco the large bulk is not being marketed owing to the fact that farmers are very busy saving what is yet in the field and saving feed. A slight advance in prices has been noticed during the past week on our local market. Tobacco is selling very well considering the quality which has been offered for sale. Good tobacco is bringing a fair average.
