

... RURAL CARRIER ITEMS ...

R. F. D. No. 7.

The threshing machine crowds were favored last week with pleasant weather and good rations. We understand that Lacy Sharpe failed to get through threshing one evening though they worked as long as they could see to tell wheat from oats and Lacy, rather than furnish breakfast for the crowd, hauled the balance of his crop to a neighbors house next morning and had it finished. Lacy is a great economizer but this case may have been due to the fact that he had his hair cut recently and hair cutting is rather expensive these hard times.

John Isley hauled part of his wheat to Landy Watkins to have a grist or two threshed to do him until he got ready to thresh his main crop and when John got ready to move the straw home Landy told him he had as well leave it alone as it will all be in the same family soon any way. "Dan" seems to be busy with Landy and Miss Flossie these days any way.

V. B. Webster is very proficient in the art of preparing land for planting beans.

Jos. ask John Randolph about it. Miss Sallie Fox, of Randleman who has been visiting at C. F. Rauhuts the past two weeks, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shaw of Raleigh who have been at Mrs. Shaw's father's J. M. Albright went to Wilmington N. C. to-day to spend some time at that summer resort.

J. M. Albright gave us our first grapes this season.

L. W. Holt is the first to give us Canteloupes. He had three in his mail box for us this morning. Lev. usually has the best that is going and has it as early as any of them.

Mrs. Alvis Sharpe gave us 2 extra large garden beets last week. Mr. Sharpe brought them over to the mail box in a sack and we thought from the looks of them while in the sack that he had two nice cabbage heads for us.

We were judging by the size of them while in the sack. Several of our patrons kindly donated other vegetables and fruits but the list is too long to mention separately.

It is sufficient to say that we appreciate it and have had peach "soakers" for several days at our house.

The farmers are about done with their crops now and are taking the world easy watching their crops mature. They deserve their rest spell for they have led a strenuous life all spring.

Miss Blanche Thompson of Burlington who has been visiting at Mr. W. B. Sharpe's for the past two or three weeks returned home Saturday.

Misses Nettie Trolinger, Annie Hawkins and Willie Patterson of Burlington and Miss Ollie Lloyd, of Orange Grove spent part of last week visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith at Belmont.

Rev. W. H. Hawkins, President of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference preached an excellent sermon on foreign missions at Antioch church on the second Sunday. A collection for missions was taken up and $21 realized, also $5.00 for the President.

Rev. W. H. Mitchell and wife of Danville, Va., attended the meeting at Antioch, both being members there. Mr. Mitchell left for home Monday and Mrs. Mitchell will visit for some time down on Cane Creek.

Miss Arcenith William of Cane Creek, who has been staying at Rev. W. W. Cudes for the past two weeks returned home Monday.

Rev. T. H. Williams filled the appointment at Antioch for Rev. S. E. Williams Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Jerry Sharpe will spend a month with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Sharpe.

Haw River Items.

Eternal Vigilance is the price of Liberty.

Miss Louise Brooks of Greensboro is visiting relatives and friends here. She taught in the Graded School here and endeared herself to the people.

Mrs. A. L. Anderson left Sunday with her children to visit her parents we hope for her a pleasant time 'tis so sweet to visit the old home in after years and to sit at the feet of our parents, and talk of our childhood days.

Misses Pattie and Valley Lewis of Graham spent Sunday at Haw River with the family of Ike Henderson.

Misses Gertrude and Mondena Sykes of Durham are spending a few days with Mrs. G. W. P. Cates their aunt we hope their stay will be pleasant.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Robertson are spending a few days at Madison the home of their youth shaking hands with friends and looking over the paths, the spring and shadtrees.

Mrs. Brooks of the soldiers home at Raleigh has moved to Haw River with her son the esteemed bookkeeper of the Holt Granite, we rejoice to have her with us the mayor will be under parental care once more.

Again the great reaper has garnered another one of our people to the skies. Mrs. Thomas was taken from the church militant to the church triumphant on Saturday evening she was laid away to rest to await the resurrection morning at Long's Chapel in the presence of a large concourse of people. Rev. P. H. Fleming her pastor conducted the funeral exercises. Surely a good woman has gone to her reward.

Mrs. Teres and Dodson of Greensboro spent a few days with her brother J. P. Cates after a pleasant sojourn, she and her two children, left for their home. The Board of the Graded School have secured the service of Rev. D. W. Arnett to Superintend the Graded School another year. We hope for a successful term the next year. He will continue to preach at Haw River at the Baptist Church.

Miss Claud B. Cardwell of Florence, Texas who has been visiting Miss Katie Lece Banks left for Elm City Monday on the 4:10.

Miss Ruth Pilson of North Wilkesboro spent Thursday night with Miss Katie Lee Banks. Misses Eula Graham and Effie Hughes took a trip to Burlington shopping. They returned on the 4 p. m.

Allen Kemp and family of Haw River are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Jennie Whiteside (daughter of Nathan Dixon) and three little girls of Asheville are spending a few days here visiting relatives.

Miss Effie Coble, who has been working at Graham is spending a few days at home.

P. S. Dixon of Graham, came home Monday for a short visit.

Albert Durham who has been working on the new telephone line from Burlington to Durham is now at home.

The Green School boys on R. 1, crossed bats with Graham team last Saturday. The score is reported 14 to 4 in favor of former team, and they would have given them a complete shut out but three or four of their players were in a run-away just before the game and consequently were nervous.

Last Friday 22nd Mrs. W. P. Stout was very pleasantly surprised when about ninety-five of her friends gathered at her home to give her a birthday dinner. Margaret Hackney asked her to accompany her to visit the sick of the neighborhood that morning and while they were away the friends came and soon got busy spreading the tables in the grove with all kinds of good things to eat. Nearly all the company were there to meet her at the door when she came home.

Margaret Hackney conducted devotional exercises just before the dinner was served, and after the tables were relieved of their burdens the afternoon was spent in a good social way.

Among the visitors who came from a distance to attend the dinner were, Mrs. D. M. Elder and children and Mrs. Vashti Hatch of Burlington, Whitsett, Charlotte, Asheville and Staley, who were visitors in the neighborhood at the time, were present. It was a pleasant occasion to all, especially Mrs. Stout. She was the recipient of several useful gifts which were greatly appreciated.
