MANY WILL SEE CIRCUS.

Hundreds from This City and Surrounding Country to Visit Ringling Shows

Ringling Brothers Circus is the magnet that will attract hundreds of visitors from this city and surrounding country to Greensboro on October 25th, 1910. The railroads are offering special inducements in the way of cheap rates.

The program the Ringlings are offering this year is nothing less than wonderful. It is given by 375 artists. Over 200 of them are Europeans, making their first tour of America. There are no less than 100 big acts. Novelties will be presented by the telephoning elephants; the wonderful Shuman horses, from Albert Shuman's German circus—the Lorch family of acrobats; the Aathur Saxon trio of strong men; Robledo, the Spanish wire dancer; the Manell-Marnitz family of upside-down bellringers; the Alexis family of aerialists; the Dutton Co., of equestrians; the aerial Clarkonians, and the fifty funniest clowns in the world.

The chief attraction of the menagerie is Darwin, the missing link. He looks more like a human being than some men. Darwin lives in his own house. It has windows, doors, pictures on the wall, electric lights and a hot-water heater. He dines at a table with a complete table equipment. He wears the clothes of a man. He carries a watch and is fond of a soothing pipe. He is a friendly chap and likes to shake hands with visitors. Another attractive member of the menagerie is Jennie an elephant that has just passed her 214th birthday. When George Washington was still president of the United States, she was brought from the wilds of India to become an attraction in the Zoological Gardens at London, England. She was then 100 yrs. old. She is still in her prime, for elephants have been known to live 500 years. More than likely Jennie will live to eat peanuts from the hands of children whose great grandparents are yet unborn.

The Afternoon parade is far the best street spectacle the Ringling Brothers have ever had. It was built in the foreign workshops of the show near Liverpool last winter at a cost of more than $1,000,000. It was made from designs executed by the best artist of Italy and France. In it will be seen 1,250 people from all parts of the world, 650 horses and more than half the elephants in America. It will be three miles long. It leaves the show grounds at 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

Saved From The Grave.

"I had about given up hope, after nearly four years of suffering from a severe lung trouble," writes Mrs. M. L. Dix, of Clarksville, Tenn. "Often the pain in my chest would be almost unbearable and I could not do any work but Dr. King's New Discovery has made me feel like a new person. Its the best medicine made for the throat and lungs." Obstructive coughs, stubborn colds, hay fever, la grippe, asthma, croup, bronchitis and hemorrhages, hoarseness and whooping cough, yield quickly to this wonderful medicine. Try it, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Freeman Drug Co.

Missing.

Waiter Irving Lomas, age 29 years; fair complexion; dark blue eyes; light brown hair, inclined to curl, is 5 feet 11 inches tall; weighs about 180 pounds; clean shaven. Wears No. 7 or 8 black shoes, and dark pants, vest and coat. Had on dark derby or grey soft hat, carries an open faced gold watch. Is an accountant. Left home (Summit, N. J.) suddenly August 10, 1910. His people are almost distracted. He takes vacations by tramping through the different States. He may come your way. If people will be thankful if they know he is alive and well.

Communications from him, or anyone (location confidential), will be a kindness to his distressed parents. Address C. H. Seign, Baltimore Maryland.

Or his Aunt Mrs. Annie Lomas Osborn, Tremont Avenue, New York City.

Or his Father, William B. Lomas, Summit, N. J.

Conservation in The South.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 8.—(Special).—In view of the general interest through the South in question of conservation and especially on account of the assembling of the Southern Conservation Congress in this city today, the opinion of President W. W. Finley of the Southern Railway Co., on this subject as expressed in an address on "The Interest of the Railways of the South in Conservation," delivered at the Second National Conservation Congress held in St. Paul, Minn., September 7, will doubtless be read with unusual interest.

Laying down the broad principle that the interest of the railway of the South and those of the people of the South in conservation are identical, Mr. Finley defined the type of conservation most needed in the South as "not the narrow idea of the withdrawal from the present use of some part of these resources, but the wise use of these resources." Taking soil conservation as one of the most vital questions before the Southern people today, Mr. Finley gave figures from experiments conducted by the American and foreign governments, showing that where proper methods are used productivity of soil increases with its use, and in this connection Mr. Finley urged more attention on the part of the people of the South to crop rotation proper fertilization, and live stock raising as the surest means to accomplish this much desired result.

Recognizing that forest and stream conservation are interdependent, Mr. Finley said that too much should not be expected of the national government, and suggested the advisability of changes in the tax laws by state legislature looking to a tax system that would differentiate between timber lands so managed as to insure the perpetuation of a great natural resource and those so managed as to hasten its exhaustion.

"As respects timber and all other resources," said Mr. Finley, "I am convinced that the type of conservation that should be adopted in the South is not the withdrawal of these resources from use, but the elimination of waste as far as possible, and their wise use as the basis of a diversified industrial development that will carry them through all the processes of manufacture and prepare them for the final consumer."

Mortgage Sale.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage deed executed on the 15th day of February, 1908, by Lina McClaine to Chas. Bason and wife, Sinda Bason and recorded in the office of Register of Deeds for Alamance County, in book No. 45 of Mortgage Deeds pages 390-392. The said P. L. Jones, assignee of mortgage, will offer for sale at public outcry to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House Door, in Graham, Alamance County, North Carolina, at noon on Monday, Nov. 21, 1910 the following described tract of land lying and being in Haw River Township, Alamance County State of North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

Adjoining the lands of Collins Ruffin, H. L. Small, E. W. Forbus and others,

Forbus, running thence East 2 chas. and 93 links to a rock corner with said Small line, thence North 1 2-3 E. 1 ch. and 71 links to a rock on said Small line, thence W. 2 ch. and 98 links to a rock on said E. W. Forbus line, thence S. 1 2-3 degrees, W. 1 ch. and 71 links to the beginning, containing 50-300 of an acre, more or less.

This the 15th day of Oct. 1910 P. L. Jones Assignee of Mortgage.
Geo. R. Hoffman, Attorney.

At the last meeting of the Burlington School Board of Education it was decided that all pupils who desire to enter the Primary Department of the City Graded Schools will have to do so before October 1st, or wait until after Christmas. After Christmas pupil will be permitted to enter until February 1st, and after that date no admittance will be granted. Exception is made where sickness has deterred.

Resolution of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased the Almighty in his wisdom to remove from our Sunday-School our worthy and esteemed brother John H. Shoffnet, therefore be it resolved:

First-That in his death The Burlington Methodist Protestant Sunday School has lost an excellent member whose loss we feel greatly.

Second: That we bow in humble submission to the will of him who doeth all things well.

Third: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, to our Church Record and other local papers for publication.
