SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Barnwell Entertains.

Miss Mamie Barnwell delightfully entertained a number of her friends at her home on Morehead Street Thursday night commencing at her college friend, Miss Margaret Conyers of Rocky Mount. The guests were seated around four tables which had been specially prepared for the evening.

The chief game was "Progressive Traveling". Vocal solo by Miss Edith Carroll recitations and instrumental music by the hostess were the enjoyable features of the evening.

Those who had the pleasure of enjoying the hospitality of Miss Barnwell were:

Misses Imogene and Ruth Thurston, Margaret Freeman, Edith Carroll, Bessie Bason Mable Isley, Nonie Moore and Bettie Lyde May, with Messrs J. G. Walker, of Graham Edgar and Vitus Holt, Earle Lashley, Summie Sharpe, Gordon Curtis and Paul Morrow.

Baraca Day.

Baraca Day was observed by the Baraca Class of the Webb Avenue M. E. Sunday School last Sunday. The members of the class had charge of the preliminary exercises of the Sunday school, rendering special music, etc., after which they assembled in their new handsome class room for the first time. 42 members were present. The most interesting and impressive feature of the class exercises was a speech by Mr. J. H. Boon, President of the Baraca Class of the M. P. Sunday School. He talked very forcibly, giving some helpful points in Baraca work, by which the Baraca class may be made a success and a great benefit to the young men of the community. The members of the class were very fortunate in having Mr. Boon speak to them, and each one present expressed his delight and appreciation of the speech, which will be long remembered by all.

This Baraca class is living up to the Baraca motto, "We do things," and is to be congratulated for its splendid achievements. It may be truly said that this class occupies a very high standing in the Baraca work of Burlington.

Picnic.

The Sunday school picnic of the Methodist Protestant church was held Friday at Glennwood farm near Alamance mills. The school was well represented and all present seemed to have a good time. The day was spent rambling around visiting the places of historic interest and making photo views of the beautiful scenery. A dinner rarely ever surpassed was spread before the picnickers.

Another Sunday school, this one from Haw River, was present at this grand picnic outing farm.

Complimentary to her Guest.

The lovely home of Miss Annie Maude Faucett on Front Street was set aglow last Friday night in honor of her guest Misses Ruby Elliott and Nellie Piper two of Durhams popular young ladies known for their splendor and beauty.

The evening was one of pleasure enjoyed by:

Lasley jr., Henry and Sipe Fleming, Lonnie Hall, Summie Sharpe, Latimer Hornaday, Gordon Carver Lawrence Moore and Orlando Pridden jr. of Durham, and Orlando Barnes and W. N. Huff of Elon College.

Card of Thanks

I take this means of thanking the good neighbors and friends who so kindly rendered me assistance during the illness and death of my wife. May the Lord in His infinite wisdom reward you all.

W. H. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Entertain

A delightful reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith of Belmont Tuesday night in honor of his sister Miss Olivia Smith of Burlington.

The porch and lawn was brilliantly lighted with Japanese lanterns while the parlor and hall was elaborately decorated with golden rods ferns and other potted plants.

After the arrival of the jovial crowd and after they were seated on the porch a flower contest was conducted in which Miss Willie Trollinger won the prize a lovely box of chocolate caney while the booby a bouquet of wild flowers went to Mr. Jerry Lea.

Another amusing feature of the evening was "Why Some of us have never Married," which proved the source of much laughter. Delightful refreshments consisting of Cream and Cake and melon were served.

Assuring Mr. and Mrs. Smith of the cordial welcome which they had given the guest and wishing melons ripened more than once a year the crowd reluctantly took their departure.

Those who were so fortunate as to enjoy the evening were:

Misses Willie and Allie Patterson, Maytie Spoon, Addie Ray, Flora Drake, Lillie Turner, Willie Trollinger with Messrs. W. H. Bullard, W. G. Bridges, Jerry Lea, J. P. Andrews, L. L. Patterson and W. T. Trollinger.

And Miss Vellie Styles of Ashboro and Tixie Neelley of Greensboro.

These with a few of their Belmont friends composed the jolly crowd.

Baraca-Philathea Picnic.

The Baraca and Philathea classes of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School will picnic at the home of Mr. Cad A. Albright just below Graham, tomorrow (Thursday) evening. It is earnestly desired that every member of these classes will go, and all who expect to do so are requested to meet at the church at 6:30 tomorrow evening. From there the picnickers will go to Mr. Albrights home in wagons. Supper will be provided by the Philatheas.

Holton-Walker.

A marriage of much interest among the social circles of our town occurred Wednesday evening at seven o'clock at the Presbyterian manse at Greensboro when Rev. Melton Clark, pastor of the first Presbyterian church, joined in marriage Mr. M. L. Holton, of R. F. D. No. 2 and Miss Pearle Walker of Union Ridge.

The wedding was a quiet affair no one being present except Mr. Carey Isley and Miss Annie Holt who accompanied the bride and groom to be to that city in an auto. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Holton left for Oklahoma where they will spend two or three weeks the guests of his relatives.

Upon returning they will reside at the Murray Hill Club House.

Miss Walker is the popular and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jobe Walker a prominent farmer of near Union Ridge, having completed the art course at Elon College and had charge of that Department in our City Graded School for two terms, winning the love of her many pupils.

Mr. Holten has charge of the Murray Hill Club House, a famous hunting reserve owned by Northern capitalists, with beautiful lawns and grove which makes it an ideal home.

Mr. Moore Entertains.

His many friends feel very grateful to Mr. H. F. Moore for the delightful reception given at his home last Thursday night in honor of his guest Miss Clendenin of Indiana.

Quite a large crowd was present to enjoy the melons and refreshments served. Mr. Moore is a good congenial fellow and takes pleasure in making his guests feel at home.

The evening was very much enjoyed.

ROOSEVELT SAYS NOTHING DOING AS TO NOMINATION

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 21. - Former President Theodore Roosevelt, in a letter to Alexander P. Moore, editor of the Pittsburg Leader, made public today, says: "I must ask not only you, but every friend I have, to see to it that no movement whatever is made to bring me forward for the nomination in 1912. I should esteem a genuine calamity if such a movement were undertaken."

The Leader has been advocating the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for President in 1912.

Still Waiting.

The colored excursion from Greensboro to Durham Monday worked the Yankey trick on the colored brethren of Burlington. The train which had eight cars was filled before it reached this place. When the train reached Glen Raven it was seen that the engine did not have water enough to carry them through, so the engine was freed from the cars and brought to the tank and filled. The anxious crowd waiting, which was thirty or forty strong, was told the excursion would be on in a few minutes and so it was, but it did not stop and the crowd was left waiting.

Last Notice as to Payment of City Taxes Before Advertisement of Property.

I give this last notice as a favor to those who have not paid.

A judge in hand according to Taft is worth two in the recall bush.

PRESIDENT GOES TO WORSHIP FINDS CHURCH DOORS CLOSED

Washington, Aug. 20. - President Taft went looking for an open church today and had a hard time finding one. With Secretary of War Stimson and Major Butt, both members of the White House bachelor colony at present, the President started out today shortly before 11 o'clock. They strolled through Lafayette square and up Fourteenth street to the church where the President usually attends. The doors were closed.

"We'll have to go over to Mrs. Taft's church, I guess," said the President.

Back they walked to H street, just across Lafayette square from the White House to the church where Mrs. Taft worships when she is in Washington. It also was closed and the trio of distinguished churchgoers finally turned in the direction of the Church of the Epiphany. There were people in the streets, but here and there another churchgoer recognized the President as the party plodded along. Services were in progress and urchers in a few minutes found seats for the three.

Many of Washington's prominent churches hold but one service each Sunday during the hot months. In such churches the service is usually held at night. The President had forgotten the custom today when he started out but after his long walk was over he remembered it.

Judge Daniels Saturday sentenced Chas. A. Noel, the young man who has been on trial for two days in Davidson Superior Court on the charge of abduction, to fifteen years at hard work in State pen. ## JUST THE SAME GOODS

Did you ever stop to think the goods our merchants are offering now at prices away down are just the same goods they offered you during the spring and summer months. If you buy goods now and pay about half the price you would have paid then, you gain.

The Big Clearance Sale at Sellars which has been a success and sold thousands of dollars worth of merchandise is drawing to a close. Better go before it is to late.

B. Goodman can only give you a few more days to buy summer goods before he will be compelled to place his fall stock on the market.

I. J. Mazur bids his spring and summer stock farewell they must go.

Nothing equals the Burlington Drug Co.

Good trusts should never do things they are ashamed of, even in the making of campaign contributions.

In Tennessee a man has provided in his will for his mule. Perhaps Mr. Bryan will do as much for his some day.

Congress prolonged the extra session so far, that some of our constructive statesmen barely have time to re-build their fences.

Early Cotton Open.

On August 18th we received the following letter from Mr. Roney with an open cotton bowl:

"Gibsonville, N. C., Aug. 18th, 1911.

"Sir: To-day I send you some cotton which opened on the 15th of this month. Now I want to hear from Mr. Beal. I had bloom in my field on the 28th of June. My cotton is the World's Wonder variety, and came from Southern Arkansas.

"Yours fraternally,
"J. N. Roney."

Missionary Society Entertain.

MRS. NOEL BEHIND BARS; ARRESTED IN SPARTANBURG

Spartanburg, S. C., Aug. 21. - Wanted on charge of abduction in Lexington, N. C., where her husband was sentenced on Saturday to serve 15 years upon conviction of the same crime. Mrs. Charles Noel, of about 26 years, was arrested here tonight charged with having enticed Clara Bell Gibbs Verta Kindley, aged 13 and 14 respectively, from their homes at Lexington. When arrested the woman was packing her belongings preparatory to leaving the city. She at first denied that she was Mrs. Noel, but upon being confronted by certain letters admitted her identity. She declared that she would not go back to North Carolina without requisition papers.

According to neighbors Mrs. Irwin was bitten by a mad dog in 1906. Physicians at the hospital declared that the inoculation of five years had been slowly working through her system, and it had at last emerged in an acute attack. She was found in her home suffering agonies. She attacked the policeman who was sent to take charge of her and the ambulance surgeon found it necessary to use a straight jacket to get her to the hospital. Her case is hopeless.
