Senator F. M. Simmons Unanimous Choice

Raleigh, Jan. 17.—Hon. F. M. Simmons was tonight acclaimed the choice of North Carolina Democrats for United States Senator, to succeed himself for a third term, by a caucus of the Democratic members of the General Assembly. This is preliminary to balloting for United States Senator and House separately next Tuesday and declared the Senator in joint session the following day, Wednesday.

Governor Craig attended the caucus and was loudly cheered when he entered the hall. Hon. J. A. Broughton was made president of the caucus. Senator

William Bellamy of New Hanover made the speech nominating Senator Simmons to succeed himself. He paid tribute to the Senator's service to the party as a political leader and to the State and the entire Nation as a statesman. He recounted service rendered his City of Wilmington to eastern Carolina and the State at large in the Congress.

Following speeches were by Speaker Connor, Representative H. Williams of Guilford and W. C. Clement of Halifax. On motion of Senator Bryant of Durham, the selection of Senator Simmons was by acclamation.

Senator A. D. Watts announced that Democratic State Chairman Webb was in the hall with a message from the State Executive Committee. This was found to be the senatorial primary returns. Chairman Webb assured the members, amid laughter, that the action was in accord with the primary returns.

Damage Suit Settled.

Raleigh, Jan. 17.—The Clerk of Superior Court received a check this week for $3,698.05 from the Thornton Light and Power Company, of Hickory, which was in full for costs and interest awarded against the property of the last term of court for the death of Edward Bumgarner who was killed while in the employ of this company. Bumgarner was electrocuted while repairing a street lamp in Hickory last summer.

Women Fought With Deadly Hatpin
New York, Jan. 18.—with needles and umbrellas, several hundred women fought the police today in one of the fiercest riots since the beginning of the garment workers' strike. A lone policeman who tried to protect male strikebreakers was severely beaten.

The policeman arrested one woman, but had to summon 12 more bluecoats before he could get his prisoner to the station house. The police accomplished this by forming a hollow square which was beset on all sides by battling garment workers.

Fifteen women were arrested in another riot which started when the women assaulted a truck driver delivering mattresses for the use of strikebreaker.

The Two Sinners.

She was a woman, old and thin, whom the world condemned for a single sin. They cast her out on the kings highway, and passed her by as they went to pray. He was a man and more to blame, but the world spared a breath of shame. Beneath his feet he saw her lie, but he raised his head and passed her by. They were the people that went to pray, at the temple of God on the holy day. They scorned the woman, forgave the man; twas ever thus since the world began.

Time passed on and the woman died; on a cross of shame she was crucified. The world was stern and would not yield, and they buried her in the potter's field. The man died too, and they buried him in a casket of cloth, with a silver brim, and as they turned from the grave said, "we buried a noble man to-day."

Two mortals knocked at Heaven's gate—stood face to face to inquire their fate. He carried a passport with an earthly sign, but she a pardon from love divine. O ye who judge 'twix love and vice which, think ye, entered Paradise? Not he whom the world has said would win but the woman alone was ushered in.

Exchange.

President-elect Wilson says the tasks ahead of him of making appointments to office is "wholly hateful". Don't you know that sounds ungrateful to the million or more office seekers who feel that they helped Mr. Wilson get his job.
