Democratic Convention Nominates

J. Ed. Moore. In answer to a call signed by several of the prominent citizens of the town any of the democrats met at the Mayors hall Monday night for the purpose of monthly meeting of the board of Aldermen, the convention was adjourned to the Armory. The convention was called to order by J. H. Vernon, and J. M. Brownchairman, with J. H. Vernon and O. F. Crowson as temporary secretary. The temporary organization was made permanent and nominations for a Mayor after a few brief and enthusistic remarks placed the name of Mr. Leslie Meadors, Mr. W. H. Carrol nominated A. F. Barrett making it clearly understood that his nominee was a straight democrat. Mr. Bason placed the name of Mr. J. M. Browning before the convention, Mr. Linsav Fonville nominated Mr. J. H. Vernon Mr. Vernon stated very frankly that he could not or would not accept the nomination so his name was withdrawn. At the moment Mr. Meador seconded the nomination of Mr. Barrett and asked that his name The commencement of Whitsett be withdawn. This request was nessed it is evident that the Institute will be held May 17, 18 considered a joke by the convention. A few minuets of silence The annual sermon will be elasped and it would appear that addressed the chairman and The literary address will be nominated Mr. J. Ed. Monre Williams, R. J. Hall brought the The Whitsett cornet band is nomination to a close by our distinguishbrought laughter and applause. Mr. Kime told the convention that he could not give up his work to accept the honor. The nomination closed and voting began. The nomination closed and voting began. The mames Freeman and C. D. Story were announced as tellers. The tally of the first vote stood as follows: Barrett, 38, Moore 28, Meadow 14, Freeman 12, Williams 6, Kime 2, Turrentine 1. names of the three highest were then placed before the convention which resulted as follows: Barrett 44, Moore 43, Meadows 18 On the third ballot Moore received 72 votes thus declaring J.
