

THE STATE DISPATCH.

A PROGRESSIVE NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE UPBUILDING OF AMERICAN HOMES AND AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

BURLINGTON, N. C., JULY 16 1913.

NO 8

Children's Day at Reformed Church.

Children's Day was observed Sunday night at the Reformed church. The exercise rendered by the children was under the care of Misses Ethie Garrett, Carrie Hornaday, Fannie Clapp and Bertha Huffman. The program of the church was artistically decorated with wreaths of evergreens. After the service by the children Mr. John R. Hoffman discussed at some length the law of interest, the boys are taking in work of the nature, the message very emphatically upon the boys and parents that when the boy fails to grasp every opportunity presented, he is cheating himself. His remarks were warmly received by the large audience.

Park Picnic.

Thursday afternoon the seven o'clock car was loaded down with young people pleasure bent, going to Piedmont Park for an evening of rest and pleasure. In honor of Miss Bessie Bennette, of Asheville, sister and guest of Mrs. Paul E. Morrow, the picnic-makers met, and the evening spent was of rare and genuine pleasure. Baskets that groined with the dainties they held were uncovered in the cold draught pavilion and the supper seemed ever decreasing because of the attack made upon it, yet ever increasing because of the abundance of it. The theatre was drawn open, and music and the dance followed awhile.

The participants of this pleasure were Misses Onie Thurston, Lina and Lula Zachary, Margaret Freeman, Ann'e Till of Durham, Bessie Bennette, Annie Morrow, Bessie Bennette, Lola Lashley, Berde and Nettie Dailey, Marie Barnwell, Mesdames Chester Smith, E. Y. Speed, of Kinston, Dr. W. A. Walker, P. E. Morrow, J. M. Browning, Jno. Barnwell, and Messrs. John Barnwell, Chester Smith, Dr. R. A. Freeman, E. S. W. Dameron, J. K. Browning, Clarence Freeman, George Isley, John Lashley, Backhaus, Paul Morrow and Chas. Sellers.

Died.

Near McCray, N. C., July 12 1913 Mrs. Fannie Turner, widow of Epitaph Turner who was killed in the Civil War. Mrs. Turner spent the last years of her life in the home of her son, W. J. Turner, where she died at the age of about 70 years. She was a consistent member of Protestant Methodist Episcopal church in McCray at the home and interment at Union church conducted by Rev. J. W. Holt.

At Augusta, Ga., July 11 1913 Mrs. Augusta Hailey, infant daughter of E. L. and Fannie Hailey was born August 15th 1912 and died July 11 1913. Funeral and burial at Long's Chapel near the comfort the bereaved.

Church Conference At Front Street

M. E. Church.
On account of the absence of the pastor, there will be no conference at Front Street M. E. Church next Sunday, but immediately after the Sunday service will be held a church conference and every member is urged to be present.

Mr. Buchanan Entertains.

Mr. J. C. Buchanan gave a very pleasant afternoon to his help one day the past week, going to the Piedmont Park where dainties and refreshments were served. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Buchanan and two children, Mrs. Ada Patterson, Misses Grace Patterson, Una Mae and Katherine Elder, Sallie and Lala Patterson and Addie Lynch.

All appreciated the outing and extend kindest regards to the 5-10 & 25 cent store and its clever Proprietor Mr. Buchanan.

Mrs. J. A. Isley at Home.

In response to an invitation the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Jos. A. Isley met at her lovely home on Davis Street Wednesday evening and enjoyed the occasion very much. The hours were spent in discussing the topics of the hour and each were busily engaged with their sewing. The daughter of Mrs. Isley Miss Mabel assisted her in serving a solid course, ice-cream, sandwiches, ice-cream and cake. Those present were: Mesdames Walter Mebane, J. W. Murray, L. A. Walker, R. F. Durrant, J. W. Lashley, Chris Isley, Luther Atwater, Walter Sharpe.

Reunion of Former Students.

There will be a dedicatory service and a reunion of the former and present teachers and students and friends of Sylvan academy in the new academy building August 22 nd 23 rd, to which all present and former students and the public generally are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Bryan May Return.

Asheville, July 14.—Dr. L. E. McBryer, who was appointed to invite Secretary of State Bryan to speak here during the Western North Carolina fair this fall, had a conversation with Mr. Bryan while he was here in which the statesman expressed the opinion that it might be possible to be here at the time mentioned. Mr. Bryan told Dr. McBryer that he had to go to Florida about the time that he is invited to speak here and that he might be able to arrange it so that he could stop here either on the way to or on his return from Florida. Mr. Bryan was invited to deliver an address on Brotherhood day and if he speaks he will probably deliver the address on "The Brotherhood of Man."

Mr. R. F. White Opens A Moving Picture Show.

Mr. R. F. White of High Point was in town a few days ago and rented the Hay Building on Front Street for the purpose of opening a moving picture show. Mr. White has had vast experience in this business, and proposes to put on the latest and most up to date improvements. It is reported that he will also carry vaudeville in connection with the show.

Land Sale a Great Success.

The land sale pulled off Friday by the Interstate Realty and Auction Company under the care of Messrs. E. W. and J. E. Lasley was a great success. All the sixty-three lots offered were sold at a fair price. The sale was witnessed by a large crowd. The free lot was received by Mr. W. C. Hunley and the five dollars in gold won by Mr. Will Daily. The auctioneering by the two men at the same time was a feature which was quite a novelty to those who attended.

To Prevent Blood Poisoning

Apply at once the wonderful old reliable DR. FORTNER'S ANTISEPTIC HEALING OIL, a surgical dressing that relieves pain and heals at the same time. Not a liniment. 25c. Box $1.00.

Automobile Club to Meet.

The Alamance Automobile Club will meet in the office of the Alamance Insurance & Real Estate Co., at 8.00 o'clock July 21st. A full attendance is requested as matters of importance will come before this meeting. W. E. Sharpe, Sec. & Treas.

Birthday Dinner.

Mr. Atlas Thompson celebrated his fiftieth birthday last Thursday at his home when he and his wife served an elaborate birthday dinner to a number of his friends. The good things to eat were numerous and his friends who have lived with him for a number of years were delighted to be served in such a royal manner and to such a loyal feast. Mr. Thompson is one of our best citizens and although his hair is becoming silvery caused by the many years he witnessed come and go he is apparently one of our boys and he is as jovial as a lad of sixteen summers. Among those present were: Col. J. H. Holt, Dr. and Mrs. T. S. Faucett, A. F. Barrett, Clarence Freeman, J. G. King, Rev. and Mrs. T. S. Brown, W. W. Brown, Mr. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Fogleman of Gibsonville; Mr. Jim Fogleman of Blacksburg, Va.; Mr. Martin Murray and mother and Miss Mary Spoon of Friendship; Mr. Webb Fogleman and family of Kimeville; Mrs. Ed. Shoffner and family of this city; Misses Nora and Laura Fogleman, Mara Black and Paul Black.

State Forester Survey in Alamance

Mr. J. S. Holmes who is making a survey of the forestry of the state has come to Alamance County. The survey began in the western part of the state. After spending some time in the western part of the state making addresses on forestry in connection with the Farmers Institute Meetings, Mr. Holmes will return and resume his work in this county. The object of this survey is to find out how timber and woodland there is in the state and how much is being cut each year. While surveying in this county Mr. Holmes will make Burlington headquarters.

New Grocery Store.

Messrs. J. A. Pettigrew and E. M. King have rented the Lasley Building on Front Street and have opened a Grocery Store. Mr. Pettigrew for the past several years has been connected with Jos. A. Isley and Bros. Co., and has resigned to go into business for himself. He has had lots of experience in this kind of business and it is without hesitation that we predict the new store will be a success. Mr. King has also had experience in the grocery business. Both will be glad to have their many friends give them a call. That Mr. Pettigrew is a hustler cannot be denied when it is remembered what a nice and prosperous business he as manager of the grocery department has built for Mr. Isley.

Bryant Must Lecture to Make Ends Meet.

Asheville, July 12.—During the delivery of a stock lecture at Hendersonville near here today Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan paused in the course of his lecture to state that he is compelled to deliver chautauqua lectures in order to supplement his government salary which he declares is not sufficient to meet his expenses. "As this is my first chautauqua lecture since becoming a member of the cabinet," said Secretary Bryan, "It may be out of place to say that I find it necessary to lecture in order to supplement the salary which I receive from the government. As I lectured for 18 years, this method of adding to my income is the most natural one to which to turn and I regard it as extremely legitimate. I did not think it proper to go from the chautauqua platform into a presidential race, and if I had been elected, I would have thought it no stepping down to return to the lecture platform. Thousands of people were present to hear the Secretary of state.

Misses Iris Holt and Ethie Garrett spent Tuesday in Greensboro on business.

And breathe! Use Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets; they are excellent for a sluggish liver. [Advertisement.]

Oakdale Items.

The corn crops are looking very sick on account of the hot weather and no rain.

Threshing will soon be over and then the farmers will rest in the shade, and also attend the protracted meetings which will soon come. The meeting beings at Mt. Zion the 2nd Sunday in next month. Rev. Walker of Greensboro will assist the pastor W. H. Eller in the meeting.

The services at Mt. Zion Sunday were very good. After the pastor finished the talk, Dr. J. D. Gregg made an interesting speech on "Foreign Missions." Then at 2 P. M. the children's day services were held. It was short but very good.

Mr. Lloyd Spoon is at home again. We are glad to know that his spell of sickness was not so very serious.

Several of the young people attended the singing Sunday night at Mr. Jesse Alexander's. The next will be held at Mr. Willie Isleys next Sunday evening. All are invited to come and sing.

Mr. A. R. Spoon and family visited Mr. F. L. Spoon Sunday evening.

Mr. Dolphus Kimreys little daughter fell and broke it's arm last week. We hope it will not be a very serious injury to it.

The black places under the trees are the most enjoyable places that can be found during this hot weather.

Messrs. Graham Harden and Claud Holt spent Saturday, Sunday and Monday at Chapel Hill with friends.

Penmanship at Carolina Business College.

The faculty of Carolina Business College have arranged to give penmanship for the benefit of all students who may care to improve their hand writing. This is an excellent opportunity for any one who may care to learn to write an excellent hand. This penmanship course will be given on Tuesday and Thursday nights of each week and the price of course is very moderate. Few people write a good plain business hand, and with this opportunity there can certainly be no excuse for not doing so. This school should have a large number of students especially on these two nights. If you desire to write a nice hand call at the office of the school and investigate the merits and we believe you will enroll and become a student.

A LEGEND OF WILDWOOD.

She sat beneath the slant-roof shed.

The fisherman's pale daughter, Alone she sat, her father dead Beneath the deep blue water.

He left her but a paltry sum To live on shores of Wildwood. What would she do when winter comes On the wandy beach of Wildwood?

Joyful she was, this little girl Of only fourteen summers, Happy and pleasant,—a story to tell

To all the strange new comers, The loving kindness she displayed Made one man to take a notion, To take her to the town he made Away from the breezy ocean.

Many a playmate's heart was grieved When they heard the news with sadness, To think the one they loved would leave.

So full of joy and gladness, Her favorite friend was Capt'n Dan Who rowed the seining dories, And plied hewas a fisherman And told her quaint old stories.

This little girl came to Alamance A County in North Carolina, Where Real Estate is in advance And still keeps going higher

And so it came about, this man Who took her to our city, Made rich this girl who once was poor

And looked upon with pity, When summer comes with piercing heat This maiden goes to Wildwood,

Her incomes' large enough to fleet A month back into childhood.

Now those of you who want to make Good interest on your earning, You must invest in Burlington To stem the tide when turning.

And keep in mind the little maid Whose destiny was lurking, Each one of her investments paid For shes' living without working.

ELMER ALBERT RILEY.

Mr. Luther Atwater went to St. Leo's Hospital Monday for examination it was first thought an operation would be necessary but it is now believed that Mr. Atwater may be treated and avoid an operation. The family of Mr. Atwater went to Greensboro to visit him Wednesday.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve refreshments on the church lawn Tuesday evening from seven to ten. A number of girls will carry beautiful baskets of flowers which will be sold. The lucky buyers to have an escort for the evening. Everybody is most cordially invited.

Mr. J. R. Foster left Tuesday for Waverly, Va., and other points. He will be gone ten days or two weeks.

Whitsett.

There were no religious services here Sunday except the usual Sunday Schools. The pastor of the Methodist Church is away on a vacation at Macon Springs; the pastor of the Presbyterian Church is at Mount Airy assisting in a revival meeting, and the Reformed Church is without a pastor.

Numbers of our people spent last Friday in Greensboro shopping among them Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Joyner, Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, Mr. J. W. Summers and others.

Prof. C. C. Wimbish returned from Wilkesboro last week and after a day here left for Hurdle's Mills, N. C. and Soudan, Va. where he will visit relatives for a few days.

Lacy Summers of R. F. D. 1, Jamestown was in the community last week. He is thinking of moving back to this community where he once lived some years ago.

Miss Pearl Johnson has returned from a visit to Greensboro where she spent some days with Mrs. Wm. Forbis and other relatives.

Mrs. Lucian Moore whose home is near here has not been well this summer. Some years ago she had an operation at St. Leo's Hospital and has never fully recovered her health.

S. P. Whitt, the mail carrier R. F. D. 1, Whitsett, has been enjoying a part of his vacation the last few days.

Sentiment seems to be generally united that the proposed Presbyterian manse shall be located here and that work upon same shall begin at some early date. It is proposed to build a home with about eight rooms and one or two desirable locations have been looked over with a view to an early selection.

J. Frank Swift who is handling the Ford automobile for this section has sold to one or two parties during the past week, and has others in view for early sales. The cars that he has already placed are giving good satisfaction, and the purchasers are much pleased.

Last week was a very busy one for the mails here. Hundreds of copies of the new catalogue were sent out with the mails, and the office force of the Institute was kept quite busy all the week.

W. J. Thompson was a purchaser some weeks ago of the shares of the lands of the late Joseph W. Foust. It is supposed that he will be allotted his portion on this north side of the tract, although the final division has not as yet been made.

The recent speech of our young friend Chas. C. Barnhardt of High Point at Mt. Pleasant at the Convention has been highly complimented. He is a clear thinker, and usually pleases his hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davenport write that they are greatly enjoying their stay in western North Carolina. They are expected home the latter part of this month.

Kissed By "Loony-Faced."

(Chicago, Ill., Dispatch to The New York World.)

Miss Alice Walsh, whose saucy retorts to the guests patronizing the news desk at the Auditorium Hotel have won her the sobriquet of "Breezy Alice," was arranging her papers and magazines when she noticed what she calls a "loony-faced" man staring at her. She said it was the funniest face she ever saw, and she stared back in amazement.

She crossed the lobby to get change from the cashier. Midway she was seized by two strong arms. Then a kiss was planted firmly on her lips. She yelled and tore away. The "loony-faced" man sprinted down the corridor, with Miss Walsh, the cashier, a porter and two bell-boys in full cry behind. He escaped by bounding through the bar room into Congress street.

"The first time, and that is true," Miss Walsh indignantly declared. "The very first, and by a man with a face like that!"
