The county is badly in need of funds. The county schools demand money and the teachers must be paid and the money must come from the inx payers.

I have been just as lenient with those who have not paid their taxes dispatches. I consider that in that as possible and wish it were in my due and must be paid.

On account of the increased num ber of courts in this county, and the increased work in this office and the further fact that this office is on a calary besit with an insufficient force of deputies, it is impossible for me to ene each man hedividually, and I am taking this method of notifying all who ared so temps, back taxes, spec isl taxes, sto., that they must settle at once or I will be forced to collect more by law.

This is a metter of business. The canty mass have money. I have waited, begged and pleaded, until the tive and when you MUSI pay. I have edes. I am paid to or the tame, and if I am to do
