Yesterday evening an informal reoption was held in the bride's home at which only a few irtimate friends were present. The bride was entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner by Miss Kare Clendenin of Burlington.

Miss Smith has lived here since a mere child and her life has been such as to endear her to a host of friends, who will wish her that abundant happiness she so richly deserves.

Mr. Parse is an esteemed business man and holds a highly responsible position with the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of valuable and useful presents, which betoken in some measure the esteem in which she is he'd.
