THE CHAPEL HILL NEWS.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

Only 25 cents for 3 months. Can't you let us have that much?

Eggs are a scarce article on this market.

President Winston went to Raleigh Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ezzell treated her friends on snow cream Monday night.

Mrs. Cora Williamson is visiting friends in Durham.

Rev. N. M. Watson, returned home from Conference last night.

Weldon Andrews is making arrangements for a big display Holiday week.

Mr. Webb has the finest crate of Cabbage we have seen. The heads weigh from 10 to 13 lbs each.

Mr. Andrew King and W. B. Thompson of the NEWS, spent Saturday and Sunday in Durham.

Miss Mary Ann Wilson and little Estell and Hellen Brown went to Hillsboro Tuesday.

"Daddy" Cheek says he received a letter from a lady in Burlington inquiring what "Z. O." means. He says he is sure going to write and tell her.

Mr. Thos. Harris, of Durham, who has been here on a visit to his mother, returned home last Monday.

Mr. J. P. Foister is making some improvements on his dwelling this week. Let the work of improvement go on.

See H. H. Patterson's Christmas announcement. He advertises such goods as ever before during the Holidays.

Miss Mollie Kirkland, who has been on a visit to her brother, Mr. Leon Kirkland in Durham, returned home this week.

Mrs. Eubanks, who has been on a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. F. Ezzell returned to her home near White Cross, yesterday.

Died—On the 9th, at his home near Mt. Moriah Church, Mr. Kit Davis, aged 84 years. He was a brother of the late Duncan Davis.

Mr. John Davis is somewhat of a turkey hunter as well as a 'possum hunter. He walked into town Tuesday morning with a fine gobbler on his back.

Madam Rumor has it that the Methodist folks will have to provide a parsonage the coming year. The preacher in charge, since his return, however, says he dont know anything about it.

Mr. Roland Hays, of this place, has formed a Law partnership with Judge Womack and will go to Pittsboro to live. We regret to lose Mr. Hays, and wish him success in his new field.

Mr. Sykes, who was convicted of blockading at the last term of the Federal court at Greensboro, is at home. His case was appealed and he is out on bond for his appearance.

"Dock" Yearby was on the Mill yesterday. He brought up a "Fortune-telling Machine" which is on exhibition at the Drug Store. Drop in and have your fortune told. Mr. Merritt will explain the modus operandi. See ad of Holiday goods in an other column.

THE CHAPEL HILL HOTEL FOR SALE

It is furnished throughout and is the most desirable piece of property in the village. For terms and further particulars address "Agen," care of this office.

Rev. H. T. Darnall, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Durham, has announced to his congregation his intention of offering his resignation. He will go to Hampton, Va.

Warrants for payments of State pensiners have been received by Mr. Jnn Laws Register of Deeds, and those who are entitled to them are requested to call and get them. —Orange County Observer.

Mr. J. D. Webb and his little Lucie and Zannie, spent last Saturday in the "Bull City." It was the boys first trip. They enjoyed it highly, and have some big tales to tell the other boys of what they saw in Durham.

Charles E. W. Johnston, of the A. M. E. Church, is the Presiding Elder for this, the Raleigh District and will locate here. Rev. W. E. Walker has been re-elected to the St. Paul A. M. E. Church here.

Mama McCauley has gone to Kekegee, Ala., to spend the Christmas holidays with a classmate from the recent graduating class of Salem Female College. Mrs. McCauley accompanied her as far as Atlanta, Ga.

It is a grand sight to see the friend Klutz says he cannot be able make a very great play for the want of room. You will find many things suitable for patients, and it is general headquarters, in Chapel Hill, for Santa Claus.

Things do happen. One morning last week Mr. M. A. McCauley, one of our most prosperous farmers started to Durham with a load of cotton and strange to say before he reached Chapel Hill, he lost his mules feed and the lines with which he was driving. Evidently the latter part of the night called for a nap.

Bless the man who does not live himself alone, but for his family, his neighbors and his town. Such a man has friends, such a man is loved and respected by all. He is one of real worth and benefit to the community, while the disreputable individual who can see no good in his fellow being, but is always on the outlook for the weakest point, is not the man for whom the community will long mourn after he has departed. Help a neighbor, say a good word for him and your town. —Ex.
