Spilling salt is usually held to be a very unlucky omen. Something evil, it is believed, will happen to the family or the person spilling it.

Messrs. J. W. Cates & Bro., have leased Mr. Thos. F. Lloyd's Mills and Cotton Gin and will move their lumber business out to the depot.

Mr. D. Sparrow, who runs on the University train of the Richmond & Danville, R. R., has not been on duty this week on account of sickness, we are glad to know that he is much better and will be at his post in a day or so.

Mr. Herbert Weaver, of Hillsboro, met with a very painful accident while in Winston last Saturday evening. He was handling a pistol in some way and it went off, striking him in the leg just above the knee. He was brought home last Sunday morning. The last account the ball is still in his leg.

An old friend ought never to be forsaken in a hurry. This is specially true of a good Watch or Clock that has done faithful service, or any favorite piece of jewelry or silverware which has a pleasant association. Particular pains in repairing everything of this description is taken by our wide-awake friend, Sorrell. He mends eye-glasses and spectacles—does all sorts of repairing, and carries a very nice stock of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry. Call and see them.

The Burlington Route carried 2,300,000 to Chicago, during the Fair, and from local points near Chicago, carried 2,700,000 making a total of 5,000,000. This immense number of people traveled without any accident of any kind, and without serious delay. 2ws.

If you want a Cook or Heating Stove, any piece belonging to a stove or stove pipe of any size, go to H. H. Patterson's.

Mr. Geo. Newton, of Fish Dam, and Miss Sula Cates were married yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. L. F. Cates, on the Oxford road near Durham, Rev. G. J. Dowell, of the 2d Baptist church, Durham, officiating. The attendants were Mr. Will Pardon of Chapel Hill with Miss Viola Cates, sister of the bride, Mr. W. M. ### VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE, 1894.

It contains descriptions that describe, not mislead; illustrations that instruct, not exaggerate. This year it comes to us in a suit of gold, printed in eight different colors besides black. Colored plates of Chrysanthemums, Poppies and Vegetables. On the front cover is a very exquisite bunch of Vick's New White Branching Aster and on the back is the New Double Anemone; 112 pages filled with many new novelties of value as well as all the old leading varieties of flowers and vegetables.

We advise our friends who intend doing anything in the garden this year to consult Vick before starting operations. Send 10 cents to James Vick's Sons, Rochester, N. Y., for Vick's Guide; it costs nothing, as you can deduct the 10 cents from first order. It certainly will pay you.

Don't wait for the wagon while the walking is good.

Don't say the world is growing worse when you are doing nothing to make it better.

Don't tell the world your troubles. You can't borrow $100 on them.

Don't let the grass grow under your feet. The cows can't get at it there.

Go to the Racket Store for cheap goods,

Chicago had onther sweeping fire this week. $11,000,000 destroying nearly all of the World's Fair buildings.

Dan H. Gilyard, colored was arrested in Tennessee, charged with house breaking and lodged in jail. On being searched a revolver was found on him. After he had shed four shirts, a bodice or corset of sheet iron one-eighth of an inch thick was disclosed. The sheeting weighed eight pounds and made a close-fitting, bullet proof, coat of mail encircling the body from armpits to hips. The affair was fastened in front by leather thongs, in the back was a dent made by a large sized pistol ball.

WINDSOR, N. C., Jan., 7.—Don Carlos Harrill, aged 63, a prominent farmer living near Drem's Station, in this county, evidently does not believe marriage is a failure. He was married the ninth time yesterday. His bride was Mrs. Bettie Williams, widow of William Williams, of Cashie Neck.
