HILLSBORO TO HAVE FINE SCHOOL BUILDING

Bids were opened Monday, Aug. 1st, for the $100,000 bond issue recently voted by Hillsboro township, for a new high school building to be erected in the town of Hillsboro. The issue will draw interest at the rate of six per cent per annum and the school authorities feel they will prove attractive to prospective bond purchasers. With the proceeds of this bond issue, the county board of Education will erect in the town one of the best and most modern school buildings in the state. The building will be fire-proof and up-to-date in every particular. The plans for the building have been prepared by Milburn-Heister and Co., well known Washington architects, and bids will be accepted on Aug. 8. It is thought that five months will be required in the construction of the building, and it will therefore be necessary to conduct the school the coming year in the old building.

Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. H. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR AUGUST 14

PAUL IN ICONIUM AND LYSTRA.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 14:1-20.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve.—Matt. 4:10.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matthew 10:34.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Heals a Cripple.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul's Narrow Escape at Lystra.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Early Adventures in Asia Minor.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Examples of Paul's Missionary Methods.

I. Paul and Barnabas Preaching at Iconium (vv. 1-7).

As to their work in Iconium observe:
1. Their manner of preaching. This is suggested by the little word "so" in verse 1. They "so" spoke that a great multitude believed. They were true preachers. Only that which brings conviction of sin and induces decision for Christ can be truly said to be preaching in the biblical sense. The same is true of the Sunday school teacher. Let every Sunday school teacher at all times have as his supreme aim to bear the gospel of Christ so as to induce decision for Christ.

2. Their attitude toward opposition. This is suggested by the word "therefore" in verse 3. "Long time therefore they tarried." The opposition did not prevent their preaching, but incited them to continue preaching. Christian workers should learn not to give up work because of opposition.

3. The Lord accompanied their preaching with miracles (v. 3). Since the opposition was so fierce, special help of the Lord was needed.

4. The effect of their preaching (v. 4). The multitude of the city was divided. Where men faithfully preach the gospel there will be division.

II. Attempt to Worship Paul and Barnabas as Gods (vv. 8-18).

1. The occasion (vv. 8-10)—the healing of the lame man. God's gracious power exhibited in healing this lame man occasioned a new difficulty. That which ought to have been a help was turned into a hindrance. The man was a confirmed cripple. He had never walked. He heard Paul's preaching, which caused faith to be born in his heart (Rom. 10:17). When Paul perceived that he trusted Christ, he called with a loud voice that all could hear for the man to stand upright. The cure was instant, for he leaped up and walked (v. 10). There was no magnetic touch, no treatment, only the command, and the naturally impossible became the possible and the real.

2. The method (vv. 11-13). They called Barnabas Jupiter and Paul Mercury, because he was the chief speaker. The priest of Jupiter brought oxen and garlands ready to offer sacrifices unto those men (v. 11). If they had only known in the person of Jesus Christ God had actually appeared to men (John 1:14; Phil. 2:7).

3. Their efforts frustrated (vv. 14-18). This foolish act was happily averted by the tact of the apostles, as exhibited in the address of the occasion. (1) They deny that they are divine beings and declare that they are divinely beings and declare that to worship beings with like passion to themselves is criminal. (2) They direct them to turn away from these vain things unto the living God who made heaven and earth and has ever left witness of Himself in that He has always done good, giving rain and fruitful seasons, filling their hearts with gladness.

III. The Stoning of Paul (vv. 19-22).

Wicked Jews from Antioch and Iconium pursued Paul with relentless hate to this place, where they stirred up the very people who were willing to worship them a little while ago. This shows that satanic worship can soon be turned into satanic hate. This hatred took form in stoning Paul and dragging him out of the city for dead. God raised him up, and with undiminished courage he pressed on with his duties as a missionary bearing the good tidings to the lost.

Soon after this Paul turned back and revisited the places where he had preached, telling them that through great tribulation they must enter into the kingdom of God.

IV. The Organization of Churches in the Field (vv. 23-28).
Evangelization with Paul did not mean a hasty and superficial preaching of the gospel but the establishment of a permanent work. Elders were appointed in every church. The work of the missionary is not done until there are established on the field self-governing and self-propagating churches.

What is Man?

What is man that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thine heart upon him? and that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?—Job 7:17, 18.

The Dwelling Place of the Lord. Then said Solomon, the Lord hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. But I have built an house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling forever.—II Chronicles 4:1, 2.

Supt. R. H. Claytor states that the County Board of Education will make application for a loan of $40,000 from the State Board of Education with which to construct some 4 or 5 modern school buildings in the rural sections of the county. Savers and Winners.

It is very interesting to observe enthusiastic savers. We watch them as they come regularly to the bank to make their deposits. There is on their faces the smile that is peculiar to winners.

Their glory is not alone in the amount they save: they know that it is not always easy to save and, are proud to have succeeded.

And then there is the fascination of growth! Only those who have really saved know the pleasure of watching a savings account grow.

A growing savings account is something to be proud of!
