BEST GRADES TOBACCO BRINGING GOOD PRICES
Tobacco buyers returning from South Carolina report a distinct improvement in conditions there. Good tobacco, they report, is bringing as much money as it did last year, and it is only the lower grades, for which there is no demand, which are selling badly. It is expected that the South Carolina season will have been completed by September 21 allowing an opportunity for the buyers to move to North Carolina, where the season will open on the following Tuesday, September 6th. In this region the continued drought is causing greater harm to the crop daily. The last soaking rain which fell here was early in May.

SPENCER PEOPLE TO INVESTIGATE PRICES
We notice where the four railroad brotherhoods at Spencer are arranging for a meeting in that town to look into the matter of general reduction in prices of family necessities, merchandise and especially fresh meats. They have a representative working on the plan to reduce prices on all commodities, including rents. When a fellow in Chapel Hill has to pay 30c a pound for stew beef, 70c per pound for sliced boiled ham, or 60c per lb. for any kind of ham in the markets, we think it is time to organize here and have these fresh meat prices investigated. The prices charged here are as high or higher than war-time prices. What has become of all our organizations, looking for the betterment of the town? Living prices are extortionate. No wonder boarding house people have to charge $35 and $40 per month for board.

WELL DONE
The State Board of Health expresses gratification at the way people have obeyed the law making it obligatory for parents, householders and guardians to report to the county quarantine officers diseases about which physicians have not been consulted. "The people have heard the appeal of the State Board of Health, have accepted their responsibility and are performing their duty well," says the bulletin of the health department. The intelligent interest North Carolina people are showing in health matters is greatly to their credit, and will operate to their decided advantage has another side that is even more commendable. It shows the desire to protect other families which have not been invaded by the disease. No virtue is more to be commended than concern for the rights of others. The response of North Carolina people to this law is very gratifying.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 21.

PAUL PREPARES FOR WORLD CONQUEST.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 13: 1-14.
GOLDEN TEXT—But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved.—Acts 13: 11.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Gal. 2: 11-21; 1: 23; Eph. 2: 4-2.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Some of Paul's Helpers.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Beginning of the Second Missionary Journey.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Revisiting Friends in Asia Minor.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul Champions Christian Liberty.

1. The Controversy in the Church at Antioch (vv. 1-5).

This difficulty was a most serious one, for it threatened the disruption of the church into Jewish and Gentile divisions.

The question was, "Shall Gentile converts be required to keep the Mosaic law as a condition of salvation?" This issue was brought on by the coming of certain men from Jerusalem who declared, "Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved" (v. 1). The question was so difficult that Paul and Barnabas were unable to put them to silence. These Jewish legalists had the letter of the Scriptures on their side; they could point to the commandments where this was enjoined upon believers (Gen. 17: 14). Paul could not point to any Scripture where it had been abrogated. If Paul could plead that Abraham was justified before he was circumcised, his antagonist could say, "Yes, but after justification the rite was divinely imposed." The brethren at Antioch decided to refer the matter to the mother church at Jerusalem. Accordingly Paul and Barnabas and others were sent as a deputation to Jerusalem.

11. The Deliberations of the Council (vv. 6-21).

1. Peter's Speech (vv. 7-11). He argued that God had borne witness to His acceptance of the Gentiles by giving the Holy Spirit to them the same as unto the Jews. Since, therefore, God had not put a difference between the Jews and the Gentiles, it would be folly for them to do so. God's action in sending Peter unto them was the unanswerable proof that there was no distinction to be made.

2. Paul and Barnabas rehearse their experience (v. 12). They told how that God had set His seal of approval upon their preaching of salvation by grace through faith apart from works, by the working of signs and wonders through them.

3. The argument of James (vv. 14-21). He took the fact declared by Peter and showed how it harmonized with the prophecy of Amos. He showed that the reception of the Gentiles was not in conflict with God's plan, but in strict harmony therewith. God's plan for the ages is as follows: (1) Taking out from among the Gentiles a people for His name (v. 14). This is what is now going on—the calling out of the church. (2) After the church is completed and removed the Israelitish nation will be converted and restored to their land and privileges by the Lord himself at His return (vv. 16, 17). (3) Following this will be the conversion of the world through the agency of converted Israel (v. 17; cf. Rom. 11: 15). His judgment was that the Gentiles should not be troubled with things that are Jewish, but should be warned against the perils of heathenism, such as meat offered to idols, fornication, and blood.

111. The Decision (vv. 22-29).

The mother church at Jerusalem came to a unanimous agreement and accepted the resolution offered by James. They not only sent a letter stating the decision of the conference, but took the wise precaution to send influential men along with Paul and Barnabas to bear the same testimony by word of mouth. This letter denied the authority of the Judaizing teachers (v. 24), and declared the method by which this decision had been reached (vv. 25-27).

IV. The Second Missionary Journey Begun (15: 36; 16: 1).

1. Contention over John Mark (vv. 36-41). Paul was suspicious of Mark because of his desertion on the former journey. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. Paul chose Silas and went through Syria and Cilicia confirming the churches. The Lord thus overruled it to good, for it gave an opportunity for wider dissemination of the gospel.

2. Finding Timothy (16: 1-5). This was at the very place where Paul on his first journey had endured cruel stoning. Timothy was with Paul through much of his work ever afterward, a great blessing to him.

Savers and Winners.

It is very interesting to observe enthusiastic savers. We watch them as they come regularly to the bank to make their deposits. There is on their faces the smile that is peculiar to winners.

Their glory is not alone in the amount they save: they know that it is not always easy to save and are proud to have succeeded.

And then there is the fascination of growth! Only those who have really saved know the pleasure of watching a savings account grow.

A growing savings account is something to be proud of!
