CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 6, 1921

In a news article issued today from the headquarters of the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association announcement is made that in Orange County there were 22 deaths from tuberculosis last year and that the present time there are eight times as many active, open cases of tuberculosis, the majority of whom are taking no precautions whatever to keep from killing themselves and infecting everyone they come in contact with; because in a great many instances they are not even aware that they have tuberculosis. As a step toward correcting this condition and saving the lives uselessly sacrificed to tuberculosis the Association asks Mr. Average Citizen, "How Much Do You Care?"

It is pointed out that "tuberculosis is no respecter of persons unless a high standard of resistance is maintained by keeping in good physical condition all the time; that tuberculosis is not as hereditary as generally believed that the best check on your physical condition is a thorough looking over at regular intervals" all of which is true and good advice.

The Association goes a step further and volunteers to send an examiner to this county who will spend as much time as required to give a thorough physical examination for tuberculosis to anyone who is suspicious that they have tuberculosis and wishes to know positively.

This service is provided by the Association from receipts derived from the sale of Tuberculosis Christmas seals and no charge is made for the examination. The only requirement being that someone sufficiently interested make the preliminary arrangement and provide a place for the examinations.

Let's address a request to the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association, Sanitarium N. C., for the services of the specialist and uncover some of the work of our great foe tuberculosis and then let us support this work by a generous purchase of Tuberculosis Christmas Seals when they are placed on sale at thanksgiving.

Big preparations are being made for a large gathering of Alumni at the University, October 12, University Day, the 128th anniversary. The following letter is being sent to all Alumni by the Central Alumni Committee:

CENTRAL ALUMNI COMMITTEE THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA

Dear Fellow Alumnus:

In two weeks it will be one hundred and 28 years since William R. Davie with a mason's skill and a founders vision laid the cornerstone of the Old East Building. It will be one year since the alumni enlisted for the greatest single crusade in the whole history of public education. University Day last year was the trumpet day of the great crusade.

University day is at hand again. Strike hands today with the local president in his immediate preparations for a live alumni meeting. Where unorganized, organize! Where disorganized, reorganize. Where well organized, better organize. Not merely in official machinery, but also in spirit and activity of more vital loyalties and larger services to meet the needs of the community and make the University live in the hearts of the people.

On this great foundation day Alma Mater's sons all over the world renew in brotherhood their affectionate loyalty to her life and spirit. In staunch groupings on that glad day let us assemble to her side and be unto her the strength from which she builds her dream of greater commonwealth.

Yours in filial fellowship,
Central Alumni Committee

A LITTLE HISTORY OF ELM GROVE SCHOOL DISTRICT

The first house was built in 1846-'47, on a plot of land five and half miles south of Hillsboro, four-half miles south of New Hope creek, a few hundred yards east of Hillsboro and Chapel Hill road, was a log structure with rock chimney and large fireplace.

Tradition says the house was contracted to be built for $80.00. Three men in the community did the carpenter work and two of them never spoke to each other while at work, they used the third man for all intercourse they had to have with each other. They did not remain in this section long, but the third man's descendants are still here, proving the truth of God's promise. Mr. John Latta taught the first in this house.

The pupils from Elm Grove school have furnished many noble men and women for the various vocations in life, 29 that we know of have taught school and it is furnishing state four good ones, now, Miss Mattie Blackwood, Mrs. Gilbert Craig and Charlie Davis and one college president, Dr. S. B. Turrentine, five ministers of the gospel, Revs. D. I. Craig, D. D., of Reidsville, Presbyterian, S. B. Turrentine, of Greensboro, Methodist, W. A. Smith, of Charlotte, Baptist, J. D. Williams, of Liberty, M. P., the late A. P. Garrett, of Cairo, Ill., and Jesse Minnis, now in M. P. Seminary, in Maryland, one lawyer, the late Isaac R. Strayhorn. It furnished about 20 soldiers for the Confederate War, five volunteered and went out with the Orange Guards. Messrs. Thomas J. Strayhorn who was made Lieut. of Co., G 27th Regiment of North Carolina troops Orin and Charles Watson, Samuel A. and William H. Craig, only one of the 20 now living, Mr. W. C. Baldwin.

The main part of the present building was erected in 1896, Messrs. T. R. Cole, O. B. Cate and J. H. Blackwood were the school committee and had it in charge, it is about 50 feet south east of the first one, on the south side of the New Hope road, Mr. W. V. Andrews taught the first school in this house and has taught several terms here and is held in high esteem by those who were under his care. 12 who attended school here, were in U. S., service in the World War. Two, Messrs. Carl Lloyd and John Craig, died with influenza at Camp Greenleaf, Orgelthrope, Ga., Oct. 15-16, 1918. Some of the women did a lot of war work, in the way of sewing, knitting, canvassing and gave response to all calls made on them for our soldiers.

In looking over a letter written by one of Elm Grove's teachers and date was of the seventies. She said she was teaching 12 hours a day and I have known this same teacher to have 60 pupils at a time in the log school house, who had only benches to sit on, some with no backs, boys and girls of today if you could only realize your superior opportunities, and she taught all the grades and always had as many as 2 or more recitations from each pupil every day, and all the good teachers of that day did the same thing for $20 and $25 per month.

The selfish idea of this age, more pay and less work was not in their minds, the thought in their minds was in the words of the poet:

"To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill,
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.

There are three Elm Grove school rolls that we know of, may be more, 1870, '73 and '76, which we hope to have called at our next Home Coming.

We would like to hear the history of some of the other old districts in the county, and will appreciate a correction of any errors we may have made in this.

Was Very Weak

"After the birth of my baby I had a back-set," writes Mrs. Mattie Crosswhite, of Glade Spring, Va. "I was very ill; thought I was going to die. I was so weak I couldn't raise my head to get a drink of water. I took . . . medicine, yet I didn't get any better. I was constipated and very weak, getting worse and worse. I sent for Cardui."

The Woman's Tonic

"I found after one bottle of Cardui I was improving," adds Mrs. Crosswhite. "Six bottles of Cardui and . . . I was cured, yes, I can say they were a God-send to me. I believe I would have died, had it not been for Cardui." Cardui has been found beneficial in many thousands of other cases of womanly troubles.
