LESSON FOR OCTOBER 23

PAUL'S LAST JOURNEY TO JERUSALEM.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 20:1-27.
GOLDEN TEXT—Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap if we faint not.—Gal. 6:3.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Rom. 18: 3-16, 21-23; II Tim. 4:19-21.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How Paul's Friends Showed Their Love.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul and His Friends.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC
—Paul and His Friends.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC
—Paul Reviews His Ministry.

1. Paul's Visit to Greece and Miletus (20:1-6).
Two incidents marked this trip:
1. The Jews laid wait for him (vv. 1-6). This plot obliged him to retrace his steps through Macedonia instead of a more rapid sea voyage.

2. Fellowshiping the Disciples at Troas (vv. 6-16). He met with them around the table of the Lord and spoke words of encouragement. While preaching here, Eutychus, in a deep sleep, fell from a window and was killed. Paul restored his life, thus giving to the disciples a sign of divine power which was greatly needed at that time.

11. Paul's Farewell to the Ephesian Elders (20:17-35).

His object in this address is to impress upon them their responsibility.

1. Review of his three years' ministry (vv. 18-21). (1) The spirit of ministry (v. 19). He was humble, tender and faithful in spite of the many trials which befell him. (2) The faithfulness of his ministry (vv. 20, 21). He was known unto them everything which was of profit, taught them both in public and in private. He neglected no class, Jews or Greeks.
He was impartial in all his ministry.
(3) The theme of his ministry (v. 21).
Repentance and faith. This is the preeminent note in the message of true ministry today.

2. The present state of things (vv.
22-27). Having reviewed his ministry, he now points out the present state of things. (1) His immediate purpose was to go to Jerusalem (v. 22).
(2) Bands and afflictions were lying across his path (v. 23). Despite these he went forward with undaunted courage. He knew that God was leading him, so he went forward. (3) His fixed purpose (v. 24). He was determined to complete his ministry at whatever cost—even giving up his life.
(4) His consciousness of obligation discharged (vv. 25-27). Knowing that they should see his face no more, he called them to record that he had not slurred to declare the whole counsel of God; therefore was free from the blood of all men.

3. His charge to the elders (vv. 28-35). (1) The ground of (v. 28). The flock for which they must care was purchased by the precious blood of Jesus, and they had received their commission from the Lord. (2) The impending evils (vv. 29, 30). False teachers would arise from their own number. Grievous wolves would devour the flock. The most deadly foes of the church are those ministers and Sunday school teachers who are unfaithful to their trust. (3) Incentives to faithfulness (vv. 31-35). His own example of watching night and day for three years is held up before them; his unselfish service, laboring with his own hands night and day that he might be free from suspicion of selfishness.

111. Paul Tarrying Seven Days at Tyre (21:1-6).

His point of destination was Jerusalem. He was pressing onward thither with all speed, but on account of the unloading of the ship he was obliged to wait at Tyre for seven days. During this delay he searched out the disciples who lived in that city. While here certain disciples said that Paul should not go to Jerusalem. The information which these disciples received by the Spirit was doubtless the same as that given to Agabus (vv. 10, 11). Agabus told exactly what the Spirit said, which sets right what the Tyrian disciples seemed to say.
The same Spirit which showed to these disciples that suffering awaited Paul, revealed unto him the same suffering and sent him forward into it.

IV. Paul Tarrying in Philip's House
(vv. 7-14).

Resuming their journey, they paused briefly at Ptolemais to greet the brethren there, after which they went to Caesarea. Here they took up their abode with Philip, who had so successfully wrought in the early days of the church.

V. Paul at Jerusalem (vv. 15-17).

The brethren at Jerusalem gladly received them. Paul's lodging place was with an old disciple.

Red Cross Trains
147 Blind Vets
In Useful Work

Training designed to fit them for the battle of life was taken by 147 blinded ex-service men at the Red Cross Institute for the Blind, near Baltimore, Md., during the fiscal year 1920-1921, according to the report of the Institute for that period.

Of this number, 19 have gone on to other institutions, in almost every case to institutions where those having sight are receiving advanced education. The blind ex-service men who have entered such institutions are provided with special text-books in Braille, reading which they were taught at the Red Cross Institute.

Twelve men have passed from the Institute to successfully carry on some occupation or business for which they were fitted by special training. A few have withdrawn from the Institute because of poor physical condition, 14 are receiving further "training on the job" and 87 are still in training.

TO PATRONS OF RURAL ROUTES

Acting Postmaster Strowd Visits Routes and Makes Some Good Suggestions.

In compliance with the Postal Laws and Regulations, I have inspected each of the four routes leading from this Post Office. Every patron should realize the fact that this service is a part of the great Postal System of the Government. The same care that carries a million-dollar check to a Wall Street capitalist is exercised in carrying a postal card from California to the humblest citizens living at the end of a 25 mile route. The Law requires that the carrier be neatly dressed and that he serve you in a polite, gentlemanly manner.

Now in recognition of this effort on the part of the Government to serve you may not the same Government expect cooperation on your part to use every effort in your power to assist in making this service efficient from every standpoint. The carrier goes to your mail box regularly, practically regardless of the weather, three hundred days in the year. A few days extra work by the neighbors, augmented by whatever you may get from the County Treasury would render the road much more passable during the wet season. Unless something is done on certain portions of the roads it is probable that some changes will have to be recommended.

The Law also requires the use of regulation boxes, approved by the Postmaster General, substantially placed in a position convenient to the carriers. Your box should display your signal when containing mail.
The carrier must also do the same when serving your box. Some of the boxes are inconvenient, unsightly and inaccessible and add no pleasing appearance to this great System of which they are a part. I am glad to note, however, that there are some boxes that measure up to the requirement of the law in all respects. Allow me to thank you for these.

Please understand distinctly that this letter is written to you in no spirit of faultfinding or complaint, but on the other hand to get your support and cooperation, looking to the rendering to the rural districts the service that the Postal System desires you to have. I want every one to feel at liberty to see me at any time, making suggestions in regard to this service. Carriers will soon be able to supply you with prices on regulation boxes. Also a booklet issued by the Government regarding the Postal Routes and Carriers.

R. L. STROWD,
Acting Postmaster.

OUR SIDE:

It is hard to see both sides of the problem at the same time, naturally we look at outside of the mercantile question feeling that Chapel Hill and surrounding Country can do as well with us as at any store and that we are entitled to the support of the Community. It has been the dream of the Managers life to give to Chapel Hill a store that she would appreciate, in every respect, that we have failed in many instances we are sadly conscious, but today as never before we are striving to merit a united Patronage. We know that the new road, The Big City Stores are all attractive and that many of our best friends will forget us, yet we hope that they compare Quality, Styles and prices that we will yet be in the ring. A delivery and charge store cannot meet, large chain stores prices in every case, yet in going thytet in going through the large stores we are surprised at the small difference, many of them just a difference of one to two cents, as a catch, and in many, many cases, we see higher prices. We hope to some day organize a Company large enough financial-ly to give our good and growing town a first class store in every respect, one that carries everything, we stand ready to merge, sell, or get out of the way for a great blessing to the Community to our hosts of loyal men and women who have stood by us, we return our most grateful thanks, pledging you that this Fall, you can do as well with us as with the largest City store, and all we ask is a fair comparison.
