Bill Jones drove a coal wagon. In the course of work he delivered a load of coal at the house of a citizen with whose cook he was acquainted and was greeted by her warmly after the coal had been unloaded. Bill's boss wondered what had become of him, as time passed and called at the house to see if the coal had been delivered. He found Bill in the kitchen. "What are you doing here?" asked the boss. "I thought I went with the coal." "Why?" "I was weighed with it."

SECRETARY WALLACE HAS AN ECONOMIC PARADOX

The price of wheat is too low because the cost of bread is too high! The United States Department of Agriculture is responsible for that economic paradox.

It says the people are not eating as much bread as formerly, wherefore the surplus and the ruinous prices responsible for farmers' distresses. The reason less bread is eaten is because millers and bakers apparently do not know the war is over and are still profiteering at a shameless rate.

For instance: A loaf of bread that costs 8 cents before the war now costs 9 cents. The flour from which it is made cost $4.45 before the war and now costs $6.89 a barrel.

Allowing 280 loaves of bread to the barrel, the margin between the price of flour and the price of bread produced from it has increased from $10.40 to $18.30, according to the federal officials.

Bring back the price of bread to a reasonable level and the people will eat all the bread they want and need, and the farmer will be able to tell European markets to go hang, they declare.

Hotels and restaurants and dining cars charging 20 cents for a bread order are profiteering "enormously."

CURRENT COMMENT.

A pessimist is a man who wears both belt and suspenders at the same time.

Character measures credit. The man who keeps his union dues paid up is invariably a valuable asset to the community.

Senator Ashurst of Arizona loses his "alphabetical leadership" in the next Senate. Senator Adams of Colorado will top the roll call.

It is hardly good sportsmanship for the Democrats to fight the Republicans while the latter are so busy scrapping among themselves.

Some one is liable to charge Israel Zangwill with being brought over by the barbers' union, since his broadside against the safety razor.

One of the new "sights" of Washington to meet the eye of incoming Congressman is the new home of LABOR being erected on Capitol Hill.

How can a woman become a "lord"? Answer: Elect her lord mayor of a town in Great Britain. Miss Ethel Colman of Norwich, England, is the first of the specie.

"When courts are respectable they need have no fear that the people will not respect them," is the tart declaration of Lieutenant Governor Lunn of New York state.

Social amenities at Washington before opening of Congress: "You greatly impress me," say Henry Cabot Lodge to Magnus Johnson. "I think you're a very nice man," replies the Farmer-Labor Senator.

President Coolidge has been taking a referendum vote among arriving Senators and Congressmen on the question of whether he shall appear in person at a town in Great Britain. Up to date C. Bascom Slemp has not announced the result.

OPPOSE WAR-TIME LAW. SPOKANE, Wash., Dec. 5.—The central labor council has called on the city council to repeal the ordinance on syndicalism for the reason that it denies free speech, free press and free assemblage, and places too much power in the hands of officials who would enforce the act.

"The only excuse warranting the passage of this ordinance was the existence of war, the unsettled state of opinion and the then apparent overruling necessity for the preservation of order," the resolution declares.

The unionists point out that they were always opposed to the act "not from any sympathy with the practices against which the law was directed, but from fear that so drastic a measure would lead to great injustice in its administration."

REAL APPRECIATION. "I have just called in to say how much I appreciate your treatment, doctor." "But I am not your doctor, young man!" "No. But you were my old uncle's, and I am his heir!"—Karikaturen (Christiania).
