MOTHER AND HOME COUNTRY'S SAFEGUARDS, SAYS REV. SUNDAY

of the fashionable booze joint where the bloods of the town used to go and hit it up, and saw six young fellows standing out there, with their hats on the back of their heads looking like fried eggs; breeches creased so you could sharpen a lead pencil on them, dressed in the height of fashion and I said:

Where Their Mothers Were. "I suppose the mothers of those boys are down at some bridge whist or literary meet discussing me, or leaving the "dis" off. They don't know where their boys are or don't re." The fir tree—dark and high; The fir tree—dark and high; The fir tree—dark and high; Why, I used to think her slender Was close against the sky. Home Like a Barometer. If things go right at home, they go right everywhere; if they go wrong at home they go wrong everywhere. Oh, the doorsill of the homes is the foundation of the state. A man never gets higher than the garret of his home; he never gets lower than its cellar. never gets lower than its cellar. When Henry Clary lay dying his mind wandered back to his old Ken-tucky homes and his dying words were: "Mother, mother, home, heav-on" Man will never the moth from en." Men will never get away from what they were taught around their what they were taught around their mother's knee, that will be the last thing they think of when they are drifting out with the tide. Many things are tending to de-stroy the home. The social and po-litical interests of woman are mak-

Assails Birth Control. This God-forsaken birth-control is filling the brothels. And then the motion picture influence too-well, if it is one-fourth good it is three-fourths bad in my opinion. It sep-arates families in the evenings; it is open on the Sabbath; it acquaints children with crime. Marvels of daring rather than of nobility. It is impossible to picture before the younger generation infidelity, and nudity in dress, success in crime, without evil effects having some influence on their thoughts and lives.

a bare livelihood; communication within the movement stops; the trade Proper Way to Run Home. The proper way for a home to be run is for the husband to earn and the wife to spend—if she has any sense. The man is supposed to earn, the woman to spend. The pay en-velopes in 1921 amounted to $72, 000,000,000; $50,000,000,000 was spent in stores. The average sav-ings account was $175. The last United States census listed 23,000,-000 women in this country as house-wives; and if they were out in the busy marts earning money at stand-ard wages they would have earned around $30,000,000,000. Twenty-three million women trying to make homes out of all sorts of places.

The women make nine out of ten of all the purchases made in the retail stores. The woman today is the purchasing agent of the United States, she spends the money. Eighty-five per cent of the money earned in the United States is spent by women. The children are a composite of three things: blood, food and en-vironment. You can't get away from it. They should be taught in school and at home how to earn, how to save, how to spend. They ought to be taught how to avoid ought to be taught how to avoid disease, how to be fathers and moth-I hope to God Almighty the day will come when we will have sexual hygiene taught in our high schools. I wouldn't teach it in the grades. A lot of our school curriculum is a lot of bunk and junk, not worth a whoop. When they go out in the world they won't use it.

A Hero's Tribute John Randolph, with the excit-able nervous temperament, rose in the House of Representatives at Washington and said:

"If it had not been for my moth-"If it had not been for my moth-er, sir, who taught me when a boy to kneel by my trundle bed and shut my eyes and say, 'Our Father who are in Heaven, Hallowed be Thy name,' and 'Now I lay me down to sleep,' I, John Randolph of Roa-noke, would be an infidel." Gray, the author of 'Elegy in a Country Churchyard," said, that he was one of a large family of child-ren who had the misfortune to sur-vive his mother, and a life a little longer than she lived. Oh! what a matter.

GERMAN UNIONS Financial Condition of Germany Has About Wiped Away

All Traces of Unionism.

To the Officers and Members of In ternational Unions, National Unions, State Federations, City Central Bodies, Local Unions, Trade Unionists and Friends: Dear Sirs and Brothers: A disaster threatens the trade union movement of the world. The German trade union movement is bankrupt._ Union funds have been wiped out of exist-ence by the depreciation of the mark, to the point where it is worthless. Without funds trade union offices can union, which is essentially organized personal cooperation, disintegrates. Due to the catastrophic drop in the value of the mark, the German Fed-eration of Trade Unions and affiliated eration of Trade Unions and affiliated trade union bodies have been forced to discharge practically all employes. One by one official journals have sus-pended publication. For a while mimeographed notices maintained some degree of cohesion but now even this is being discontinued through lack of funds. When com-munication through union centers stops, unified action among trade unionists in defense of trade union standards will cease. How serious the consequences to German wage earners will be is manifest through information relating to efforts bo information relating to efforts to lengthen hours of work. If the German labor movement is not assisted in this time of dire need, the achievement of forty years of

A plain statement of these facts was officially communicated to the American Federatoin of Labor in a joint letter signed by L. Jouhaux of France, C. Mertens of Belgium, Th. Leipart of Germany, and J. Oude-geest and Johann Sassenbach, secre-taries of the International Federation of Trade Unions.

Sustaining information has come to the office of the American Feder-ation of Labor, through individuals recently returned from Germany and from General Henry T. Allen who was in charge of the American Army of Occupation in Germany. We have a duty to help the Ger-man trade union movement maintain itself as the defender of democracy against the terrific onslaughts of bolshevik propaganda which continue in-cessantly with the direct backing of the bolshevik machine in Moscow, more dangerous because of its prox-imity. The German trade union movement has stood courageously against bolshevist attacks, but with its machinery of organization broken down and out of business the red effort to capture German labor as a means to furthering the program for red domination will be a much easier

Even more potential, the German trade union movement is the only important organized force in Gertribute, my friend, to the memory of her. The ideal mother, my friends, is the product of that civimany that can come to the defense of the Republic and defeat the monlization, which culminated in and radiated from the manger of Betharchists. If Germany should revert to despotism a great victory bought radiated from the manger of Beth-lehem, Jochobed, the mother of Moses, and Hannah, the mother of Samuel, to the Spartan mother, who said to her son who claimed that his sword was too short, "add a step to it, my boy." There are prototypes of Christian motherhood that should govern our land, and she must be godly. Fathers are busy. Oh the parshe must be godly. Fathers are busy. Oh, the par-cnts. And you in the creation of a soul and the development of char-acter. So great is the responsibility that you must be a Christian. Fath-ers may fail, and God pity them, if they do. God have mercy! God Republic had entered the war the con-vention of the American Federation of Labor decided that while we could have mercy. oGd held our world when women of Labor decided that while we could have no meetings with representatives of held our world when worlds have no meetings with representatives of the people of enemy countries during the war, "when victory is achieved none will be quicker to extend fra-none will be quicker to extend fratheir legs and smoke cigarettes and drink booze and be respectable. I say to you this, the web of a nation is made from the thread that is spun in the home and you never will save this city, you will never save New York or Philadel-phia; you never will save Boston, Chicago San Francisco or any other ternal hands of trade union fellow-ship to organized workers in all countries with which we are at war, or will do so more heartily than will the A. Ff of L." Now is the time that American Chicago, San Francisco, or any other labor must make good that pledge. While the people of our nation are city from intemperance and degra-dation and ruin, when you run a barroom in your homes and keep wines and champagne on the sidegiving generously to various relief funds, this is the distinctive relief work that devolves solely upon America's workers. Nor is the fra-ternal appeal the only one that con-cerns us. If the German trade union movement fails the tide of influence board. No blessing at the table, no Bible in the home, no prayer. * * * The Need of Prayer. The Need of Prayer. Now this nation has no better will be felt the world around, and with fearful consequences in central friend than the mother who will taech her boy to pray. Home is a refuge. Life is a good deal like an army on the march. At Europe. We in America would have to meet the effects in our home markets and foreign trade. In our evening we put our heads on our knapsacks and slumber through the collective bargaining conferences we would have to meet the problem of lower standards of work within com-petitive production centers. night. In the morning the bugle calls to action. How pleasant to rehearse the tasks of the day and We learned in the World War how closely the world is knit together by the ties of world organization in science, in education, in finance, in production, in commerce, in labor the surprises around the campfire of the old home circle.

HOW DO YOU STAND, FRIEND, ON THE THRESHOLD OF THIS NEW YEAR?

Are you in any better financial condition today than you were one year ago.

We know several people who have prospered during this year.

They have been saving all through 1923, and now they can face the New Year with confidence.

Sometimes they did not have much to, save, it is true, but they SAVED SOME-THING, each pay day, and now those small savings amount to a nice sum.

We want you to start NOW, start saving, and it is for YOUR OWN GOOD that we tell you this.

Take Old 1924 by the hand, as a new partner, a real friend, and when the time arrives for you to bid 1924 goodbye, as you are now bidding farewell to 1923, you will be a happier man, a bigger man, a better man.

Each one of these New Year's days is taking you one mile-post nearer that time of old age when you'll need money, and need it badly.

YOU WOULD HATE MAN WHO WOULD COMMIT A CRIME AGAINST HIS LOVED ONES, WOULDN'T YOU?

Surely you would! Then what about the man who makes no preparation for the future of his loved ones? What about the man who goes on through life, rapidly approaching old age, and who makes no preparation for himself for that time of helplessness that comes to all who live to old age?

ve to old age? He is most certainly going to be a burden upon some one, some day. There are more than one kind of crime. When a man is in full vigor of youth, or in that settled, earnest period of middle life, then when he should make his arrangements so he will not be a burdn upon his loved ones when old age and helplessness come upon him. Now, in the beginning of a New Year, is the best time of all to start planning for the day when you can no longer do for yourself. This bank always love to help people plan for the future. For nearly fifty years we have rendered this service to people of this section. We want to serve you, too.
